Petersbourg, July 22.

BY our last Letters from the Army commanded by Felt Marshal Munich, dated the 9th Instant, we have the following Account of a second Action between the Russians and the Turks upon the River Savrana : That on the 4th Instant Felt Marshal Munich received Intelligence by a Moldavian Defserter, who had served the Commander of the Turkish Army, Weli Bashaw, that the Turks had neither Inclination nor Courage to come to another Engagement ; but the Parties that were daily dispatched to get Intelligence of the Motions of the Turks, having informed him that the Turkish Army was marching towards the River Savrana, upon the Frontiers of Poland, he forthwith ordered the Russian Army to follow them : That on the 8th, at One in the Afternoon, he had farther Advice by the Zaporoski Cossacks, who had been to reconnoitre the Enemy's Army, that the greatest Part thereof was composed of Turkish Troops, and that they were actually coming to attack our Army. Our Avant Guard, consisting of seven Regiments, the third Division commanded by Lieutenant General Charles de Biron, and the Hussars of the Regiment of Stojanoff, as also some Cossacks, had passed the River in the Forenoon, so there remained only the first and second Division of the Army, the Artillery, and the Don and Zaporoski Cossacks on that Side of the River where the Enemy appeared. The Zaporoski Cossacks, to the Number of 2400 Men, encamped upon a Mountain about one Verst distant from the first Division, and their Camp was, as usual, barricaded with Waggon, which between One and Two in the Afternoon the Turks attacked ; whereupon the Cossacks immediately dismounted, and having placed their Horses behind the Waggon, advanced a little Way out of their Intrenchment. The Turkish Cavalry attacked those Cossacks several Times with great Fury, but were always repulsed. M. Butterlyn, Major General for the Day, caused the advanced Guards to assemble, and we caused our Piquets to advance to the Head of the Army. The Turkish Army then drew together in a Wood about two Versts distant from the Left of our Camp, and a Verst from that of the Zaporoski Cossacks, which we judged to be very numerous by their Colours, and that it had been reinforced since the last Action with a fresh Body of Turkish Troops. The Enemy drew up in the Wood in Order of Battle, and we had great Reason to expect that the Action would that Day become general. The Zaporoski Cossacks defended themselves with great Bravery. The Don Cossacks that were posted upon the Right Wing, and 300 Soldiers of the Piquets, under the Command of M. de Vilbau, Aid de Camp to the Felt Marshal, were detached to their Assistance with 2 Field-pieces. This Succour having joined the Right of the Intrenchment of the Waggon of the Cossacks, and Brigadier Schipoff having at the same time, with some Hundreds of Foot and some Field-Pieces hastened to the Left, the Enemy was forced to abandon the Attack and retire towards the Wood. Lieutenant General Gustavus de Biron, who had the Command of the Regiments of Horse and Foot Guards and the Cuirassiers, was order'd, together with Lieutenant General Baron de Lowendahl, with Part of the Field Pieces, to advance from the main Body of the Army. These Troops, and those that composed the Piquets and the Corps de Reserve, formed, before the Army, a Line, the Right whereof joined the Intrenchment of the Zaporoski Cossacks, and the Left extended to a Valley. The Enemy sometimes attacked the Right Wing, and sometimes the Left, advancing even to the Camp of our Army, but were repulsed on all Sides by the Artillery, inasmuch that we saw every Moment great Numbers of them drop. In the mean while, Lieutenant General Baron de Lowendahl had placed upon the Mountain, where the Zaporoski Cossacks were encamped, Part of the Field Artillery, and the Felt Marshal General had ordered the same to be covered with Troops commanded by Brigadier Schipoff. About Four a-Clock the Turks began to retire towards the Left of our Camp, and in their March towards the Mountains were pursued by our Cossacks. It then seemed as if they would immediately have abandoned the Field, but they halted again in the Wood ; and about Five in the Evening ventured to give the last Assault, which was very vigorous ; but the Fire of our Artillery that had been brought on the Mountain where the Enemy was first posted, and the Bombs and Granades which we threw without Interruption, had so good an Effect, that the Enemy run aw

(Price Two Pence.)

In great Confusion, leaving, contrary to their usual Custom, a great Number of their Dead in the Field of Battle. The 9th our Army continued their March directly towards the Dniefter.

Vienna, Aug. 9, N. S. The last Letters from the Imperial Army of the 2d Instant, are dated from Sehebel, two German Miles to the South of Temelwaer, where they have good Forage, and are well supplied with Provisions. They had no certain Intelligence of the Designs of the Turks, but it was apprehended they would either come into the Banat and endeavour to engage the Imperialists in a general Action, or sit down before Belgrade, or march into Transylvania, the latter of which was thought the most probable; and it was reported, that an advanced Body of the Turks was at Caransebes, which Post, if kept, cuts off the great Communication with Transylvania by the Porta Ferrea. The Turks have turned their Siege of Orsova into a Blockade. The Duke of Tuscany being still indisposed, was blooded Yesterday.
