A Courier arrived here the 29th of July, in the Evening, from Felt Marshal Lacy, who brought Letters dated the 13th of the same Month, by which the Czarina is informed, that a considerable Body of Turks and Tartars, eight Versts from the Perecop, had attacked his Advance Guard, consisting of a Regiment of Dragoons, and the Ukraine Cossacks, which they probably would have destroyed, if Lieutenant General Spiegel, with four more Regiments of Dragoons, and Krasna Chokin with his Don Cossacks, had not come to their Assistance, who after a very sharp Action, entirely defeated the Turks, and took a Tartar Murza, or Prince, Prisoner, with several Colours that Felt Marshal Lacy sent to her Majesty by one of his Adjutants two Days before this Account; but as he is not yet arrived, all the Particulars are not yet known. It is assured however, that there were 15000 Turks and as many Tartars in the Action, above 3000 of which were killed on the Spot. A Courier is also arrived from Felt Marshal Munich, with Letters dated the 14th of last Month, on the Banks of the River Condina, about 15 Versts from the Turkish Camp, for they have passed the Dniester with all their Army Horse and Foot, in order to fight the Russians. Count Munich mentions, that he designed to leave his heavy Baggage, and continue his March the 15th, and rest his Army the 16th, in order the 17th to attack the Turkish Army in case they don't retire; so that we daily expect to hear of a decisive Battle.

Vienna, Aug. 20, N. S. We have certain Advice of the Entrance of the Succours into Orsova, which were lately sent from Belgrade. The Grand Vizier is still at Cladova, and the advanced Turks are said to be even at Lugos. It is now positively affirmed, that his Royal Highness the Great Duke of Tuscany will set out for the Army on the 26th Instant N. S.

This Day Prince Cantimir, Envoy Extraordinary from the Czarina, had his Audience of Leave of his Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by John Inglis, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards an Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke.

The same Day he had an Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses in their Apartment, and was conducted by the Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, August 11, 1738.

Whereas divers evil-disposed Persons have, for some time past, made a Practice of filing Guineas, and putting them off at the Bank, and other Places: His Majesty, for the apprehending the Persons concerned in filing Guineas as aforesaid, is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in the aforesaid Practice. And whereas John Carter, and Francis Kelham, against whom Informations have been taken upon Oath, have, since the Discovery of these Facts, left their Habitations, and absconded: His Majesty is pleased to promise the like Reward for the apprehending of each of them, upon their or either of them being convicted. And, as a further Encouragement, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts.

HARRINGTON.

John Carter is a tall thin Man, of a pale Complexion, and is lame of one Foot which turns inwards; he is a Watch-Graver by Trade, formerly kept an Ale-house in West-Smithfield, but lodged last at the Duke's Head in St. John's Square.

Francis Kelham, a little Man with a red Complexion, who kept the Rose and-Crown Ale-house in Bartholomew Close, till he absconded. They have both been frequently seen at Horse Races, Gaming-Tables, Hazard, and Cockfighting Matches. Whoever apprehends either of the said Persons, or any other Person concerned in these Practices, may apply themselves to Mr. Ashton, in Surry-street in the Strand, or to Mr. North, near Fishmongers-Hall, in Thames street.

General Post Office, London, August 27, 1738.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the North Mail from London, was set upon and robbed by a single Person on Foot, this Morning between the Hours of Two and Three, on this Side Kingsland, near London: The Postmaster General thinks proper to make it publickly known, that whoever shall apprehend the Person who committed this Robbery, will, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall make a Discovery of the Person who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

The Person who committed this Robbery, is described to be a middle-sized Man, had on a light-colour'd close bodied Coat, with close Sleeves, and a full Bob Wig pretty light, with a Paper Mask over his Face. He carried off the five following Bags, viz. Hartford, Peterborough, Horncastle, Louth, and Boston; and likewise took the greatest Part of the Letters out of the Enfield, Ware, St. Ives, and Roylton Bags.

Note, There were two Men at a small Distance from him, suppos'd to be his Accomplices.

Admiralty Office, August 8, 1738.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners Widows of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinfales, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at so great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute some Relief to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, these are to give Notice of the same to all such Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and send or bring them hither. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tuesday the 19th of September next, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

Victualling Office, August 23, 1738.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Wednesday the 13th of September next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals in writing, sealed up, at their Office on Tower Hill, from all such Persons as are willing to serve His Majesty's Navy with Butter, Suffolk, and Cheshire Cheese, for the Year ensuing, ending at Michaelmas, 1739.

Victualling Office, August 23, 1738.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Wednesday the 4th of October next, in the Forenoon, they shall be ready to receive Proposals and treat with such Persons as are inclinable to furnish Oxen and Hogs, at the Ports of London, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Dover, for the Service of His Majesty's Navy.

WHEREAS the acting Commissioners in the Commission of Bankrupt awarded against John Simpson, of London, Merchant and Broker, have certified to the Rt. Hon. Philip Lord Hardwicke, Baron of Hardwicke, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, that the said John Simpson hath in all things conformed himself according to the Directions of the several Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts: This is to give Notice, that by Virtue of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, his said Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Act directs, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 18th of September next.

THE under-mentioned Persons claiming the Benefit of the Act lately passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, the following Notices have been brought to the Printer of the London Gazette, to be inserted in this Paper, and are herein inserted in Obedience to the said Act.

Whereas in Pursuance of an Act passed in the 11th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Relief of such Prisoners for Debt, as have by unavoidable Accidents lost the Benefit of an Act passed in the last Sessions of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and for the Indemnity of such Sheriffs and Goalers as have incurred any Penalties on Account of such Prisoners not being discharged, and for extending the Benefit of the said Act to Creditors, whose Debtors were committed to Prison since the first day of January 1730, and were detained there upon the 1st day of January 1736, and have chose to continue there: I Catherine Estwick, Widow, have, by Notice in Writing of equal Date herewith, required the Marshal of the King's Bench Prison to bring John Raper, late of Chelmsford, in the County of Essex, Innholder, who was a Prisoner in his Custody on the 1st day of January 1736, and hath continued so, and since been charged in custody at my Suit, before the Justices, at their General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County of Surry, which shall first happen next after 30 days from the Date hereof, with a true Copy or Copies of the Cause or Causes of his Detainer, that he may be obliged to deliver in upon Oath, and subscribe a full and true Schedule of his Estate and Effects whatsoever; This is to give Notice to the other Creditors of the said John Raper, that they may come in for their distributive Share of his Estate and Effects, according to the Tenor and Direction of the said Act.

Whereas in Pursuance of an Act passed in the 11th Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Relief of such Prisoners for Debt, as have by unavoidable Accidents lost the Benefit of an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and for the Indemnity of such Sheriffs and Goalers as have incurred any Penalties on Account of such Prisoners not being discharged, and for extending the Benefit of the said Act to Creditors whose Debtors were committed to Prison since the first day of January, 1730, and were detained there upon the first day of January 1736, and have chose to continue there, I Isaac Demeza have, by Writing under my Hand, dated the 29th of August, required the Marshal of the King's Bench Prison to bring Abraham Munoz, late of Whitechapel, Merchant, who was committed to Prison since the first day of January in the Year of our Lord 1730, and was detained in the said Prison upon the first day of January in the Year of our Lord 1736, and hath continued so detained, and who hath been charged in Custody at my Suit since the said 1st day of January 1736, before his Majesty's Justices, at their next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the County of Surry, which shall first happen 30 Days next after the Date of the said Notice, with a Copy or Copies of the Cause or Causes of his Detainer, that he may be obliged to deliver in upon Oath and subscribe a Schedule of all his Estate and Effects, to be assigned for the Benefit of his Creditors; This is to give Notice to the other Creditors of the said Abraham Munoz, that they may come in for their distributive Share of his Estate and Effects, according to the Tenor and Direction of the said Act.

Whereas pursuant to an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, I Samuel Illing, Woodmonger, have by Notice in Writing dated the 28th of this Instant August, required the Marshal of the King's Bench, Keeper of the King's Bench Prison, in the County of Surry, to bring Abraham

Abraham Muñoz, late of White Chapel, Merchant, in the county of Middlesex, now a Prisoner in the said Prison, who was detained there at my Suit on the first day of January, 1736, before the Justices of the Peace, at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Surry, which shall be held for the said county thirty days next after the Date of the said Notice, together with a Copy or Copies of the Cause or Causes of his Detainer, that the said Abraham Muñoz may be obliged to deliver in up n Oath and subscribe a Schedule of his Estate and effects in such manner as the said Act directs. This is therefore to give Notice to the other Creditors of the said Abraham Muñoz, that they may be apprized thereof, and come in for their distributive Share, according to the Tenor of the said Act of Parliament.
