

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 12. to Saturday September 16. 1738.

Kensington, September 15.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have been presented to his Majesty (in the Absence of his Grace) by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addresses his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Waterford.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beseech your Majesty to accept our sincerest Congratulations on the late happy Addition to your Royal House; and beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we esteem every Increase of your Royal Family, as a Pledge and Security for the future Peace and Happiness of this Kingdom.

Your Majesty's great and eminent Virtues, your unwearied Care for the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, your tender Concern for the Rights of all your Subjects, make your Majesty's Reign a Blessing to your People, and engage our Hearts and Wishes, that it may long continue, to your Majesty's Glory, and to our Joy: And we most earnestly hope, that a Prince of your illustrious House may always be our King and Governor, and be formed by your Majesty's great and good Example.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Kerry.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, amidst the general Joy that the Birth of a Prince must create in all your Majesty's People, beg Leave to testify, in a most humble Manner, the Sense we have of that great and invaluable Blessing.

This happy Event, as it must revive in us, and in every one of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, a grateful Remembrance of the Happiness we have already enjoy'd under the Protection of your August House, so it gives us the pleasing Prospect of the Continuance of the same under your Royal Line.

That your Majesty's Reign over us may be long, very long and happy; and that our latest Posterity may be ruled by one of your Royal Descendants, are the most earnest Wishes and Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, approach your sacred Person with joyful Hearts, to express a just Sense of our Happiness, in the late Increase of your Majesty's Royal Family.

The Blessings we feel under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, are the Effects of your Majesty's innate Goodness and great Wisdom, Virtues derived down to your Majesty from your glorious Ancestors, which engage the Affections of all your People; and the Birth of a Prince enlarges the Hopes of your faithful Subjects, that our Posterity may as perfectly and securely enjoy their civil and religious Rights, as we now do under your Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Corke, and of the Grand Jury, at a General Assizes and General Goal Delivery held for the said City and County thereof, on the 25th Day of July, 1738.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the late Increase of your Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince.