An Officer of Distinction in the Army has written in a Postscript on the 3d Instant, that he had opened his Letter to give Advice by that Postscript, of the Grand Vizier's being departed for Constantinople with 30000 Men, upon the Occasion of a great Revolution; of which we must wait for a Confirmation. The Great Duke of Tuscany arrived at Buda on the 5th Instant, and the next Day his Royal Highness proceeded on his Journey to the Army.

Stockholm, Sept. 5, O. S. The King of Sweden seems now to be quite rid of his Fever by the Help of the Jesuits Bark. The Marshal of the Diet was taken ill of a Fever and Ague Sunday last at Church. Letters from Gottenbourg advise, that the East India Ship the Suecia arrived there the 30th past.
