Vienna, Sept. 17. N. S.

Yesterday came hither a Courier from the Army, with an Account, that the Grand Duke of Tuscany arrived at the Camp the 10th Instant, and was received by the Troops with great Joy. The Imperial Army was actually incamped on the 10th past within the great Lines that were made before Belgrade in the Year 1717, but as they were found too large to be defended by the Imperial Army in its present Condition, they were at Work in raising Lines of a less Compass under the Cannon of Belgrade. The Bridge upon the Danube had been taken away, and one laid over the Save. Count Ciceri having desired Leave to retire from about Palafch near Sabatz, or to have a Reinforcement sent him, upon an Apprehension of being again attackt by the Turks, whom in a late Skirmish he had defeated, we learn by the Letters of the 10th, that not only he had been reinforced with 1000 Horse under the Command of the Generals Wittorff and St. Ignon, but that they were all returned since to the Camp at Belgrade, upon Advice that 20,000 Bosniacks were marching towards them. The Hussars posted at Hassan Basha Palanka had given Advice of their having discovered Parties of the Enemy from that Side. There were also Advices from about Ravena near Parakin, that a Column of Turks with Cannon were arrived there; and that there is another Body of Turks at Ram over-against Vivalanka: And 'tis apprehended these several Bodies of Turks will move by concert, and joyn on their Approach towards Belgrade. The Garrison from Orsova is arrived, with M. Cornberg, their Commandant, at the Place where the Temes falls into the Danube a little above Belgrade. Engineer General Bauffe, who died suddenly the 6th Instant, is said to have left some Papers of the Surrender of Orlova, endeavouring to justify himself, and affirming that he had no Share in the Surrender of that Place.
