Petersbourg, September 23.

THE 18th, 19th, 21st, and 22d of this Month, the Czarina has been employed in seeing the Second and Third Regiments of the Foot-Guards, the Regiment of Horse Guards and C dets, exercise; which all performed so well, that her Majesty was extremely pleased.

Warsaw, Oct. 15, N. S. The Court has received this Morning a Letter from an Officer they have in Count Munich's Army, in which he says the Russians are now at Bowzdodokow, a Town on the River Bog, out of the Territories of Poland.

Vienna, Oct. 18, N. S. By Letters of the 10th Instant from Count Konigsegg, which came by Express, we have Advice, that the whole Army was to march the next Day from Semlin, in order as is believed to resume the Operations of the 27th and 28th past, by passing the Save and the Danube again, and penetrating by Panchova into the Bannat, and this principally with a Design to dislodge the Turks said to be assembled at and near Vivalanka; while Prince Hildburghausen, with the Saxons and Bavarians, two Imperial Battalions, the two Regiments of Wirtemberg, and that of Toulon Dragoons, with two Regiments of Cuirassiers Palfi and Bernes, to joyn all which 6000 Croatsians are said to be in march, shall remain to cover the Frontiers of Sclavonia, and particularly to succour Ratscha. This last Place appeared, by Letters of the 8th, to have suffered but very little from the Fire of the Enemy. Preparations are making for opening the next Campaign early: Orders are already given for buying up all the Corn that can be well spared in those adjacent Countries at a certain Price; and Instructions are drawn up for a Plenipotentiary to go to several Courts of Germany to sollicit Supplies of Men and Money. There seems to be no Doubt but that the Great Duke of Tuscany and his Consort will make a Tour this Winter to Florence.

Kensington, October 19.

This Day Don Sebastian de Carvalho, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Portugal, had his first private Audience of His Majesty, to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by John Inglis, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.
