Warsaw, October 22, N. S.

IT is confirm'd that the Muscovites have quitted the Territories of Poland; and it is added, that Count Munich is to return to Petersbourg to acquaint the Czarina with his Reasons for his dilatory Retreat thro' this Country, and for the miserable State of his Army. By Yesterday's Accounts from Caminiec and the neighbouring infected Country, the Plague rages extremely, and advances towards this Capital: It is now within a few Leagues of Lemberg.

Hague, Nov. 4, N. S. Letters from Vienna bring little more than the Confirmation that the few Turks who are left in the Emperor's Territory, retreat nearer and nearer to their own Frontiers; and that the Imperialists are extending themselves as well in the Banat, as on the Save, in order to settle the proper Posts of Defence, and take their Quarters, for the Winter. These Letters add, that the Death of Colonel Count Cornberg, who surrendered Orsova, has not stopt the Enquiry ordered to be made into his Behaviour on that Occasion, but his Process is carrying on now. When he died on the 30th of September at Belgrade, it was debated among the chief Officers there, whether he should be buried with the military Honours due to a Colonel, seeing his Conduct, though questionable, was not then brought under Examination, nor Sentence pronounced upon it: An Expedient was found, a Battalion of Foot attended his Body to the Grave; but then the Drums beating a Retreat, they march'd off without firing.

Whitehall, September 1, 1738.

Whereas divers evil-disposed Persons have, for some time past, made a Practice of filing Guineas, and putting them off at the Bank, and other Places: His Majesty, for the apprehending the Persons concerned in filing Guineas as aforesaid, is pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in the aforesaid Practice. And whereas some of the Persons concerned in filing of Guineas have been supplied with Engines for edging or milling the Guineas after they have been filed as aforesaid, by one or more Persons that have made the same for the Purposes aforesaid; His Majesty, for the apprehending any Person or Persons concerned in the making or mending any Engine or Instrument made for the edging or milling any of the Gold Coin of this Kingdom, doth promise the like Reward, upon Conviction of each of the Persons concerned in making or mending any Instrument made for the Purposes aforesaid. And whereas as John Carter, Francis Kelham, David Roberts, and Joseph Benson, against whom Informations have been taken upon Oath, have, since the Discovery of these Facts, left their Habitations, and absconded: His Majesty is pleased to promise the like Reward for the apprehending each of them, upon their or either of them being convicted; and, as a further Encouragement, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts.

N. B. Joseph Benson is the Maker of the Engine lately found in the New River, and has made several Engines for milling the Guineas, and is reckoned by the Gunsmiths an ingenious Man at his Business.
