Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 7. to Saturday November 11. 1738.

St. James's, November 10.

THE following humble Address having been transmitted from Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has (in his Grace's Absence) been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Corke.

WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, and to express a just Sense of that Joy which fills the Breasts of all your Majesty's Subjects, on every Increase of your Royal Family.

Your Majesty's Justice, Wisdom and Moderation are but number'd among your other Kingly Virtues, on which we reflect with the highest Satisfaction, and make us earnestly wish for the Prosperity of your Majesty's Reign, and that you may long continue to be the Defender of the Protestant Religion, the Protector of our Liberty, and the Guardian of our Property.

The Birth of a Prince enlarges the Hopes of your faithful Subjects, that one of your Royal House (animated by your Majesty's great Example) may always rule over these Kingdoms, and deal out Blessings to our Posterity with your Majesty's Paternal Care.

Vienna, Nov. 8, N. S. By the last Letters from Transilvania we are assured there is no Foundation for the late Alarms said to have been taken there, nor for the March of any of Prince Lobkowitz's Troops towards the Porta Ferrea ; on the contrary, the proper Officers are already detached from the respective Regiments to recruit, and the Mountains and Passes are so full of Snow, as to leave no Fear of any Enemy but the Plague, which has certainly made great Ravages in that Country.

Berlin, Nov. 11, N. S. The King and Queen of Prussia are removed from Wusterhausen to Cossenblatt, which is nine German Miles from hence, and are not expected in Town before the Middle of next Month.

Whitehall, November 10, 1738.

Whereas Information has been given upon Oath, That Anthony Silk, of Peckham, in the Parish of Camberwell, in the County of Surrey, was on the Second of this Instant November, between the Hours of Five and Six in the Evening, violently assaulted in a Field, commonly called the North Field, in the Parish aforesaid, and wounded in a barbarous Manner, by two Persons unknown (one of them a tall Man, the other low of Stature, a third standing at a small Distance, supposed to belong to them) and robbed of Wares worth in Silver, some Halfpence, and his Coat, Hat and Wig, &c. and left for dead : For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Crimes, His Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE;

Whitehall, November 3, 1738.

Whereas two Letters, dated the 14th of August, and 16th of October last past, have been received by Mr. Caesar Chandler, at Downhampney in Gloucestershire, threatening his Life, and the burning down his Farm House, if he did not lay Down Hundred Pounds at certain Places, and at the Times therein mentioned ; His Majesty, for the disordering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one concerned in writing and sending the said threatening Letter, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they, or any one of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement to such Discovery, Sir John Hyde Cotton, Baronet, and Robert Nugent, Esq; living in Dover Street, Westminster, do hereby promise promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making the said Discovery; to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Ro. Nugent,
for self and Sir John Hynde Cotton.

General Post Office, London, August 27, 1738.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the North Mail from London, was set upon and robbed by a single Person on Foot, this Morning between the Hours of Two and Three, on this Side Kingsland, near London: The Postmaster General thinks proper to make it publickly known, That whoever shall apprehend the Person who committed this Robbery, will, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall make a Discovery of the Person who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon. By Order of the Post Master General, John Jesse, Clerk.

The Person who committed this Robbery, is described to be a middle-sized Man, had on a light-colour'd close bodied Coat, with close Sleeves, and a full Bob Wig pretty light, with a Paper Mask over his Face. He carried off the five following Bags, viz. Hartford, Peterborough, Horncastle, Louth, and Boston; and likewise took the greatest Part of the Letters out of the Enfield, Ware, St. Ives, and Roylton Bags.

Note, There were two Men at a small Distance from him, suppos'd to be his Accomplices.

General Post-Office, Nov. 1, 1738.

Whereas a Bank Bill, D. No. 3848, dated the 12th of September, 1738, for the Sum of 23 l. 10 s. 2 d. payable to Anna Stalker, or Order, three Days after Sight, was stolen out of the Bristol Mail upon the 13th of September last, and was brought to the Warehouse of Mess. Bigot and Godin, on Monday the 30th of last Month, by one who pretended his Name was George Willis, and bought of the said Bigot and Godin, by their Servant David Delawan, Nineteen Yards of white Paduasie, at the Price of 9 s. 6 d. per Yard, which came to 9 l. 11 s. 6 d. which he paid to the said Delawan by delivering to him the Bank Bill aforesaid, receiving the Overplus of 23 l. 10 s. 2 d. after the Deduction of the 9 l. 11 s. 6 d. The said George Willis is described to be a Man between the Age of 20 and 30, of a middle Size, and had on a Drab-colour Coat and a Bob Wig, and said he lived at a Merchant's near Tower Hill, that dealt in Spicery, which, upon Enquiry, appears to be false.

The Post-Master-General therefore thinks it proper, upon this Occasion, to publish this Advertisement concerning the said George Willis, describ'd as above, looking upon him as a Person who either robb'd the Bristol Mail himself, or was concern'd as an Accomplice in the Robbery; and that what has been already publish'd may be again made known, that upon the Conviction of the Principal or Principals in the Robbery, such Principal or Principals being convicted thereof, the Person who shall make the Discovery of him or them, will be entitled to the Reward of 200 l. for each of them, who shall be so convicted as Principals or Accessories, besides the Rewards provided by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. And any Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Robbery, who shall make a Discovery as aforesaid of the Person or Persons who have committed the said Robbery, will be entitled to the Rewards aforesaid, and further, have the Benefit of his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Order of the Post-Master-General,
J. D. Barbutt, Sec.

Exchequer, Nov. 8, 1738.

The Paymaster of the Lottery 1710, gives Notice, that he hath Money reserved in his Hands to pay off the Annuities on Benefit and Blank Tickets which became due at Michaelmas last past, 1738.
