Copenhagen, Nov. 15, N. S. The Queen of Denmark is happily recovered of her late Indisposition, and dines in publick again as usual. A Regulation of Quarantain is printed, being the same in Substance with that appointed last Year; only the suspected Ports, which were then comprehended under a general Denomination, are now particularly mention'd; these Ports (besides Dantzick and Konigsberg) are, Elbing, Pillaw, Libow, Memel and Window. Major General Walter, who commanded the Regiment of Foot Guards, is made Governour of the Citadel of Copenhagen, vacant by the Death of Lieutenant General Scheel; and M. Prætorius has succeeded the former in the Command of the Guards.

Warsaw, Nov. 12, N. S. The Officer of Distinction who brought the Letter from the Son of the Kan of the Tartars, has promised to deliver to the Republick several Poles found Prisoners among the Russians that the Tartars have taken; as likewise to compensate all Damages committed by their Troops, when a just Estimate can be made of them. The Russians and Turks have made like Promises. Count de Utterocht, who is to succeed Baron Loos in England, has obtain'd Permission to defer his Journey till next Spring. This Day the Primate died.

Vienna, Nov. 15, N. S. The Army is either broken up, or upon the Point of separating. Count Koniglegg has sent a Plan for the Winter Quarters, which has been approved by the Emperor with some few Alterations. His Imperial Majesty goes this Day to Cloister Nieuburg, where the Festival of St. Leopold is celebrated annually; upon which Occasion, and on Account of a great Hunting in that Neighbourhood, the Court will be absent about three Days. The Empress goes with him, tho' to remain only in her Chamber during that Time. An Order of the Council of War has been published in the Army, to forbid any Person, upon Pain of Death, to pass the Places marked for the Quarantain; and every Body was to be visited at the passing of the Tibiscus, in order to hinder the Contagion from spreading in Hungary. It is said Felt-Marshal Wallis will have the Command of the Imperial Army the next Campaign. The Emperor has given that General the Command of Belgrade and of Servia, in as full a Manner as it was possess'd by the late Duke of Wurtenburg, and he has Orders to repair hither as soon as his Quarantain will allow him, to consult and fix the Operations of the next Campaign.
