To all that Sail in St. George's Channel.

This is to give Notice, That there is a Lanthorn lately set up to the Southward of the Entrance of the Harbour of Holyhead in North-Wales, at the Sole Expense of John Power, Esq, Proprietor of the Holyhead Pacquet Boats. And that it may be of General Use to all Vessels that may have Occasion to put into that Port, he thinks proper to make the Situation of it publick in the following Manner, viz. When you have run into the Bay of Holyhead so far to the Eastward as to bring the Skerries Lighthouse to bear N. N. E. from your Compass Course, then Holyhead Harbour bears from you S. S. W. Beware of the Out Plasters which lye about half a Mile to the Northward of the Salt Island which covers the Mouth of the Harbour. When you are up with the North Point of the said Island, the Lanthorn is direct South from you (situate on Rising Ground, Distance about 100 Yards from High Water Mark) you must run to the Eastward until you bring the Lanthorn to bear S. W. by S. Westery, then you are to clear off the innermost Plasters which lie against the Middle of the said Island, then you run in boldly for the Harbour on your Starboard Hand. N. B. The Lanthorn will be light the 1st of January next.
