

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 16, to Tuesday December 19. 1738.

Petersbourg, November 25.

THIS Court has received Advice, that the Cham of Crimea and the Budziack Tartars are preparing to attack the Lines in the Ukraine, as soon as the Rivers are frozen hard enough to make them passable for their Horses: As the Russians are well prepared to receive them, they don't seem here to apprehend the Tartars will be able to do them any considerable Damage. The razing of the Fortifications of Oczakow, and the retiring of the Russian Garrison from thence, was not publickly divulged at this Court for a long Time, but now it is own'd, that on the 31st of August last the Garrison blew up all the Mines and Works of that Place, after having lost a great many Men by the Plague, which it seems never fails to be at Oczakow every Summer, but which the Russians were not informed of before; for if they had known it, they would have demolished the Place last Year. As the Russians have also destroyed Kinburn, they have nothing at present on that Side to restore to the Turks, to engage them to make up Matters.

Vienna, Dec. 17, N. S. This Morning the Grand Duke and Duchess of Tuscany, and Prince Charles, set out for Florence; and it is assured that the Grand Duke has given his Word to the Emperour to be back in the beginning of April at farthest.

Whitehall, Dec. 14, 1738.

Whereas a great Number of disorderly Persons assembled in a riotous and tumultuous Manner in the Month of October last, and committed several notorious Outrages in the City of Bristol, and the Neighbourhood thereof: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to such of the said Offenders as shall discover any Two or more of their Accomplices, before the End of this present Month of December, so as they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Crime.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE;

Bank, 14 December, 1738.

Upon a Representation from His Majesty's Postmaster-General, That it is apprehended that the Expectation of finding Bank Bills in the Letters, gives Encouragement to the frequent Robbery of the Mails; The Bank of England, to contribute what in their lies so put a Stop thereto, and to render their Bills of no Significancy or Value to those who are guilty of such flagitious Practices, do declare, That for the Benefit and Security of those who have Occasion to transact Money Affairs in the Country, they will from and after the First Day of January next (instead of Three Days Sight Bills) give to such as desire the same, their Bills payable at Seven Days after Sight to ——— or Order, whereby in Case of a Robbery, the Proprietors will have Time to give Notice thereof; and if the Indorsements are duly filled up, as they expect they should, they can be of no Use or Service but to the right Owners.

And whereas they may fall into those Hands who may be ignorant of the Form of indorsing them, a Blank Indorsement will be printed on the Back for the Parties to fill up, and to be repeated as often as Occasion requires.

12 Dec. 1738.

The Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, That on Friday the 12th of January next, they will be ready to sell by Auction to the best Bidder, at the Office of Ordnance in the Tower of London, several Parcels of Breachings, Rope Sponges, Tackle Falls, Tarr'd Rope, Port Ropes, Pole-axes, Funnels of Plate, Powder Horns, Lanterns, Spades, Shovels, Parchments and Paper Cartridges, Match, Trace, and Thill Harness, Sword Belts, Files and Armourer's Tools, Musquets, Musquetrooms, Pistols, Bayonets, Car touch Boxes, with other odd and unserviceable Stores; which may be viewed till the Time of Sale, at the said Office, where printed Lists of the Lots will be deliver'd to such as call for them.
