Bank, 14 December, 1738.

Upon a Representation from His Majesty's Postmaster-General, That it is apprehended that the Expectation of finding Bank Bills in the Letters, gives Encouragement to the frequent Robbery of the Mails; The Bank of England, to contribute what in them lies to put a Stop thereto, and to render their Bills of no Significance or Value to those who are guilty of such flagitious Practices, do declare, That for the Benefit and Security of those who have Occasion to transact Money Affairs in the Country, they will from and after the First Day of January next (instead of Three Days Sight Bills) give to such as desire the same, their Bills payable at Seven Days after Sight to ——— or Order, whereby in Case of a Robbery, the Proprietors will have Time to give Notice thereof; and if the Indorsements are duly filled up, as they expect they should, they can be of no Use or Service but to the right Owners.

And whereas they may fall into those Hands who may be ignorant of the Form of indorsing them, a Blank Indorsement will be printed on the Back for the Parties to fill up, and to be repeated as often as Occasion requires.

The Anniversary Meeting of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, will be held at the Vestry Room belonging to the Church of St. Mary le Bow in Cheapside, on Friday the 16th of this Instant February, at Nine of the Clock in the Forenoon; upon which Occasion there will be a Sermon preached by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Bristol. Prayers will begin at Eleven a-Clock.

London, Feb. 9, 1738.

Notice is hereby given, that the Vessel wherein the Floating Lights was kept near Dudgeons Shoal on the Well on the Coast of Norfolk, drove from her Moorings on the 4th Instant, and will be replaced as soon as possible, of which Notice will be given in this Paper.

John Major.
