Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 7. to Tuesday July 10. 1739.

Whitehall, the Tenth Day of July, 1739.

WHereas many and repeated Depredations have been committed, and many unjust Seizures have been made in the West-Indies, and elsewhere, by Spanish Guarda Costas and Ships acting under the Commissions of the King of Spain or his Governors, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in Violation of the Treaties subsisting between the Crown of Great Britain and Spain, whereby his Majesty's trading Subjects have not only sustained great Losses, but have also suffered in their Persons by the Cruelties and Barbarities which have been exercised by the said Spanish Guarda Costas; And whereas his Majesty has caused repeated Instances and Representations to be made from Time to Time at the Court of Spain, in order to obtain Redress and Satisfaction for such injurious Treatment and unjust Practices, and to prevent the like Violences for the future: And whereas a Convention for making Reparation, to his Majesty's Subjects for their Losses by the said Depredations and Seizures, was concluded between his Majesty and the King of Spain on the Fourteenth Day of January last N. S. by which Convention it was stipulated, that a certain Sum of Money should be paid at London within a Term in the said Convention specified, as a Ballance admitted to be due on the Part of Spain to the Crown and Subjects of Great Britain, which Term did expire on the Twenty Fifth Day of May last; and the Payment of the said stipulated Sum, as agreed by the above-mentioned Convention, has not been made, by which means the said Convention has been violated and broke on the Part of the Crown of Spain, and his Majesty's Subjects remain without any Reparation or Satisfaction for their many, great, and grievous Losses: His Majesty hath therefore taken this injurious Proceeding of the Crown of Spain into his serious Consideration, and his Majesty having determined to take such Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honour of his Crown, and for procuring Reparation and Satisfaction to his injured Subjects, is pleased by and with the Advice of his Privy-Council, to order, and it is hereby order'd, that general Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well his Majesty's Fleet and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or general Reprizals, or otherwise by his Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the King of Spain or his Subjects, or others inhabiting within any the Territories of the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within his Majesty's Dominions; and to that end his Majesty's Advocate General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commission, and present the same to his Majesty at this Board, authorizing the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprizal to any of his Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that behalf, for the apprehending seizing and taking the Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to Spain, and the Vassals and Subjects of the King of Spain, or any Inhabiting within his Countries, Territories or Dominions; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual and are according to former Precedents; And his Majesty's said Advocate General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commission, and present the same to his Majesty at this Board, authorizing the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to ~~Will and~~ ~~Require~~ the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within his Majesty's Dominions, to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprizals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be taken, and to hear and determine the same, and according to the Course of Admiralty, and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels and Goods as shall belong to Spain, or the Vassals and Subjects of the King of Spain, or

or to any others inhabiting within any of his Kingdoms, Territories, and Dominions; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents: And they are likewise to prepare and lay before his Majesty at this Board, a Draught of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the Courts of Admiralty in his Majesty's Foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draught of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes aforementioned. From the Council Chamber at Whitehall, the Tenth Day of July, 1739.

It is the Directions of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that all such Men who have voluntarily enter'd themselves, in or about the City of London, or that shall hereafter so enter, do forbear to repair on board the respective Ships they enter to serve in, excepting the Press Gangs who may be employed with the Lieutenants in raising Men for the Fleet, otherwise they will forfeit the Benefit promis'd them by his Majesty's late Royal Proclamation; and Notice is hereby given, that they must apply to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy for Conduct-Money, if the Ships they have entered to serve in be at Chatham, at the Bay of the Neve, or in the Downs; or if at Portsmouth or Spithead, for Conduct-Money, and Carriage for their Chests and Bedding, not exceeding One Hundred Weight. And if there are any Men in or about the Town who have enter'd for the Ships at Plymouth, they are also to apply to the Navy Board for Conduct-Money, and Carriage for their Chests and Bedding to Port-

Portsmouth, from whence they will be put on Board their proper Ships, if come to Spithead, or be sent to Plymouth by the first Opportunity; in order whereunto they must apply themselves to Philip Cavendish, Esq; Admiral of the Blue Squadron of his Majesty's Fleet.

By Command of their Lordships,
J. Burchett.

Admiralty Office, July 9, 1739.

There being a sufficient Number of Landmen now in His Majesty's Fleet sitting out, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty desire, that the Lord Lieutenants, the Vice Admirals of the Maritime Counties, and the Justices of the Peace in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and in the Country, will not send in any other than Seamen fit for his Majesty's Service.

By Command of their Lordships,
J. Burchett.

Admiralty Office, July 4, 1739.

My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby pleased to give Notice, that Directions have been sent to the Lieutenants who are employed on or about the River of Thames in procuring Men for His Majesty's Ships which are fitting out, not to impress the Masters of any small Boats, commonly called Peter-Boats, employed on the said River in catching Fish for the Supply of the City of London, provided the said Persons are actually Masters of the said Boats, and not Seamen.

J. Burchett.
