Stockholm, August 18.

THE King of Sweden came to Town last Monday from Carlsberg, when M. Pechlin, Minister of the late Duke of Holstein, had an Audience of his Majesty, and deliver'd his new Credentials from the present Duke; he had also Credentials to the Queen of Sweden, which he deliver'd to the King for her Majesty.

Copenhagen, Aug. 25, N. S. On the 23d Instant in the Evening, the Marquês d'Antin, with his Squadron consisting of four Men of War and a Frigate, came to an Anchor before this Place.

Copenhagen, Aug. 29. The French Squadron is still at Anchor before this Place, very near to the Town. They want nothing, unless it be Water, having been fully supplied with fresh Provisions by the Swedes at Carlshaven, from whence the Marquês d'Antin went by Land to Carlscroon, and saw the Swedish Fleet and Dock there. The Damage which the Fleuron received in passing from Stockholm to the Sea, is not so considerable as was apprehended at first; so that they have not thought fit to bring her either into the Swedish or Danish Dock, both which were offered if necessary.

Berlin, Aug. 29, N. S. On the 15th Instant between Ten and Eleven at Night, his Prussian Majesty arrived here in perfect good Health. The Prince Royal came on the 17th, as also all the Generals and Officers who had accompanied the King of Prussia in this Journey. As his Prussian Majesty came through Pomerania on his Return, he disposed of the late Feldt-Marshal Gromkow's Regiment in Favour of Colonel la Mothe. On the 21st his Majesty left this Place to go to Potzdamm. The same Day Baron Brakel, the Russian Minister to this Court, arrived here from Vienna. His Prussian Majesty returned hither this Morning from Potzdamm; and designs after a few Days to go to Wutterhausen, where he will spend the Hunting Season, as usual.
