Dublin, October 11.

N Tuesday the 9th Instant, the Parliament having met according to the Prorogation, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the Houle of Peers, and being feated on the Throne with the usual Ceremony, his Grace sent for the Commons, and made a Speech to both Houles, who unanimously resolved upon humble and dutiful Addresses to His Majesty, which were this Day prefented to his Grace.

His Grace William, Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland, his Speech to both Houses of Parliament, at Dublin; on Tuesday the 9th Ninth Day of October, 1739.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with the greatest Satisfaction that I obey his Majesty's Commands to meet you again in Parliament; and, from the Experience I have had of your Zeal for the publick Service, I persuade my self, that his Majesty's gracious Intentions of promoting the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom will be effectually answered.

The present Situation of Assairs in Europe, hath made it necessary for his Majesty strong-ly to exert his Power for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce abroad. It will highly become us to shew our utmost Zeal at Home for the Support of his Majesty's Government, and the Protestant Religion, against Such as shall dare to disturb the Peace and Tranquility we so happily enjoy.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare the several Accounts and Estimates to be laid before you. I have nothing in Command from his Majesty to ask, but the usual Supplies; and you may be assured, that they shall be frugally managed, and applied to the Support of the Establishment, and the Defence and Security of this Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I think my self obliged to take Notice to you, that an Act has been passed in Great Britain, for taking off (after the First Day of May 1740) the Sublidies payable to his Majesty upon Woollen or Bay Yarn imported into Great Britain from this Kingdom, and for giving Liberty of carrying Wooll and Woollen Yarn and Manufactures into certain Ports of Great Britain from several Ports of this Kingdom, from whence they could not formerly be exported. That this Act may have its full Effect for the Advantage of both Kingdoms, it will deserve your most serious Consideration, what Methods will be most likely to prevent the clandestine and illegal Exportation of those Commodities to Poreign Parts; which must in the End prove detri-mental bottle to Great Britain and Ireland, whose true Interests are inseparable.

I am likewise to acquaint you, that his Majesty observes with much Satisfaction the Increase of your Linnen and Hempen Manufactures; and to assure you, that you may depend upon his Royal Favour and Protection, in the improving, and extending to the ut-most, a Trade so beneficial to this Nation.

I hope it is unnecessary for me to give you further Assurances of my Readiness to concur with you in every thing that may conduce to the publick Good.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, return your Majesty our most sincere and hearty Thanks for your Majesty's gracious Intentions of promoting the Happiness and Welfare of this Kingdom, which we have experienced upon every Occasion; and, at the same Time, earnestly intreat your Majesty to believe, that we will use our best Endeavours that they may on our Part be effectually answer'd.

With Hearts full of Joy, we congratulate your Majesty on the late happy Increase of your Royal Family, which affords us the surest and most pleasing Prospect of having the Effects of those Virtues, which so conspicuoufly appear in your Majesty, continued to our latest Posterity, under a Succession of Princes of your Majesty's Royal House.

The present Situation of Affairs in Europe having made in pagesting for the present Situation of Affairs for the present Situation of Affairs for the state of the present Situation of Affairs for the state of the present Situation of Affairs for the state of the state having made it necessary for your Majesty ftrongly to exert your Power for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce Abroad, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Lives and Fortunes are not so dear to us, as the Support of your Majesty's Government and the Protestant Religion. And your Majesty may with Considence depend upon our utinost Zeal at Home, in Case any Declars, can be so desired as to attempt to dis Persons can be so daring as to attempt to di-strurb the Peace and Tranquility we at present fo happily enjoy.

Being sensible of the Advantages we have a Prospect of receiving from an Act of Parliament lately passed in Great Britain, in Relation to exporting Wooll and Woollen Manusactures from this kingdom into several Ports of Great Britain, we think it incumbent upon us to endeavour, as far as in us lies, that this Act may have its full Effect for the Advantage of both Kingdoms, and, for that Purpole, will take into our most serious Consideration, what Methods will be most likely to prevent the clandestine and illegal Exportation of those Commodities into so reign Parts, which, in the End, must prove derimental both to Great Britain and Ira-land, whose true interests are most certainly inseparable.

The Encouragement your Majesty has been graciously pleased to give to our Linnen and Hempen Manusactures, has raised them to their present flourithing Condition, and your Majesty's kind Assurances of your Royal Favour and Protection in the Improving and Extending to the utmost, a Trade so beneficial to this Nation, shall ever meet with all the Acknowledgments that are due from the most grateful People to a Prince so desirous of the Welfare of his Subjects.

We cannot here omit returning our Thanks to your Majesty, for continuing his Grace the Duke of Devonshire in the Government of this Kingdom. The Experience we have already had of his Grace in that Station, giving us the strongest Assurance of all the Blellings this Nation can enjoy under a wise and just Administration, En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

At the presenting of this Address to the Lord Lieutenant, his Grace was pleased to My Lords,

I Will forthwith transmit this mutiful and affectionate Address 10 his Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty. The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, in Parlament asfembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, have the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's gracious and constant Intentions to promote the Welfare and Happinels of this Kingdom.

The vigorous Measures your Majesty hath been pleased to enter into, in the present Situation of Affairs, for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce abroad, will be always considered by us as the strongest Instance of your Majesty's watchful Care for the Good of your People.

We shall, at all Times, and upon this Occasion in particular, be most zealous to support your Majesty's Government and the Protestant Religion, against all such as shall dare to attempt the Disturbance of the publick Peace and Tranquility, which we have the Happiness to enjoy under your Majesty's most wife and gracious Administration; and we shall chearfully grant the usual Supplies for Supporting your Majesty's Government with Honour.

We beg Leave humbly to thank your Majesty for the Assurances given this House, that your Majesty will continue your Royal Favour and Protection to improve and extend the Linnen and Hempen Manufactures, upon which the Welfare of this Kingdom so much depends.

We are sensible that the true Interests of Great Britain and Ireland are inseparable, and will neglect no Opportunity in our Power, effectually to prevent any clandestine or illegal Exportation of Wooll to Foreign Parts, which necessarily tends to the Prejudice of both Kingdoms.

We most gratefully acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness in continuing to us a Chief Governor, whose Administration has been justly distinguished by his Zeal for your Majesty's Service, and the Good of your People. And we do affure your Majesty, that we will, in all our Proceedings, endeavour to approve | Kingdom.

ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Isaac Ambrose, Cl' Parl' Dom' Com' and Burdett Worthington,

At the presenting of this Address to the Lord Lieutenant, his Grace was pleased to say, I Will take the first Opportunity to transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governour of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,
YE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg leave to return our most hearty Thanks to your Grace, for your excellent Speech delivered from the I hrone to both Houles of Parliament, and with the utmost Sincerity to congratulate your Grace on your Return to this Kingdom.

Your Grace's inviolable Attachment to his Majesty's Service, your Desire and Care to promote the Happiness of this Nation, and your known Prudence and Humanity, cannot fail to secure to us the Continuance of those Advantages, which we have already experienc'd from your mild and just Administration.

The tender and fatherly Concern, which his Majesty hath shewn for the Interests of his People, and the Protection of their Trade and Commerce, must fill our Hearts with Asfection and Gratitude, and will engage us, to exert our most vigorous Endeavous in the Support of his Majesty's Government and the Protestant Religion, against the Attacks of those, who envy us the Prosperity which we enjoy under them. And we cannot, without the highest Satisfaction, observed that our Zeal in this Cause, will the most effectually appear, by a strict Adherence to those Principles, by which your Grace, and your Family, have been so remarkably distinguished.

We perceive the good Effects of your Grace's Influence in having the Duties on our Woollen Yarn taken off, and the Opportunities of carrying our Woollen Manufactures into Great Britain enlarged. And we will, on our Part, take proper Methods to prevent all illegal Exportations, which are attended with Consequences prejudicial to the Trade of both Kingdoms.

These, and the many Instances, which we have felt, of his Majesty's Royal Bounty and Favour to us, in the extending the Trade of our Linnen and Hempen Manusactures, give us the greatest Reason to hope, that we shall become a flourishing and a happy Nation.

We want no other Assurance of your Grace's favourable Intentions to this Country, than what may be found in your Conduct towards us, which hath been to recommend on-ly those Things to our Care, which it is manifestly both our Duty and our Interest to pro-En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor. mote.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citi zens and Burgesses in Parliament as-

May it please your Grace,

WE his Majesty's most Dutisul and Loyal VV Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, return our humble Thanks for your Grace's excellent Speech from the Throne.

The Experience we have had of your Grace's just and mild Administration, gives us a full Assurance of all those Blessings, which a good and wife Governor can confer upon a loyal and grateful People, and makes us confider your Grace's Return a fingular Happiness to this Kingdom.

The Measures at this Time pursued by his Majesty for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce Abroad, are a further Proof of his Majesty's Attention to the Welfare of his Subjects; and, under your Grace's Influence, and from the Example of your noble Ancestors, we shall endeavour to di-flinguish ourselves by our Zeal for the Pro-testant Religion, and for the Honour and Support of his Majesty and his Government.

We shall, with the greatest Chearfulness, concur in granting to his Majesty the usual Supplies, being well affured of your Grace's prudent Care in applying them to the Pur-poles for which they shall be given.

We shall always most grarefully acknowledge his Majesty's Goodness in the Assurance he has been pleased to give us of his Protection in our Trade and Manusactures, and shall ever look upon this Instance of his Majesty's Favour as a new Proof of your Grace's kind and just Representation of the State of this Kingdom. And as we shall always make the publick Happiness the great Aim of our Consultations; so we have no Poubt but your Grace will most readily concur with us in every Thing that may conduce to fo defirable an End.

Isaac Ambrose, anď Cl' Parl' Dom' Com' Burdett Worthintong,

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer. I Will use my best Endeavours to preserve the I Esteem you express for me, in this very obliging Address, for which I return you my Thanks.
