

January last past, the Out-house of Mr. Thomas Pridcaux, at Lewson, in the said Parish of Holbeton, was also maliciously set on Fire and burnt: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in either, or both of the Crimes above-mentioned, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, John March, of London, Merchant, does hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid on the Conviction of any or either of the Persons concerned in burning the Cellar of John Pollexfen of Motcombe aforesaid, or Mr. Thomas Pridcaux's Out-house at Lewson.

John March.

Whitehall, Feb. 12, 1739-40.

Whereas Charles John Drew, late of Melford in the County of Suffolk, Attorney at Law, was on Thursday the 31st of January last, between the Hours of Twelve and One in the Night, barbarously and cruelly murdered and robbed, in his House, by Persons unknown, being shot in the Body with divers Slugs, which have been since taken out of the deceased; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, except the Person who actually committed the said Murder, so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, John Gent, junior, of Sudbury in the County of Suffolk, does hereby promise a Reward of One hundred Pounds, to be paid on the Conviction of any or either of the Persons concerned in the said Murder, except the Person who actually committed the same.

John Gent, junior.
