

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 22. to Tuesday March 25. 1739.

Dublin, March 14.

A Message from the Lord Lieutenant to the House of Lords.

I Think it incumbent upon me to put your Lordships in Mind of the present Situation of Affairs, not doubting but that both in your publick and private Capacities you will do what in you lies to secure the Peace and Tranquility of this Kingdom.

Die Veneris 14 Die Martii, 1739.

Resolved by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, Nem. Con. That the providing of Arms and Ammunition for the Use of the Militia, is absolutely necessary for the Security of this Kingdom.

Resolved by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, Nem. Con. That the most speedy and effectual Care be taken to disarm all Papiſts.

Resolved by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, Nem. Con. That these Resolutions be laid before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, as the unanimous Opinion and Advice of the Lords, upon Consideration of the present Situation of Affairs. En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Grace our most sincere

(Price Two Pence.)

Thanks, for your Message to this House, in which you have with so much Goodness put the Lords in Mind of providing for the Safety, Peace, and Tranquility of this Kingdom.

We cannot on this Occasion, omit repeating to your Grace, the Assurances which we have constantly given, that we will at all Times, both in our publick and private Stations, heartily and zealously, with our Lives and Fortunes, defend and support the present Government, happily established in his Majesty and his Royal House, against all Enemies, secret or open, foreign or domestick.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

THE Address of the House of Lords expresses such Zeal and Readiness to support his Majesty and his Royal House, as must give great Satisfaction to all his Majesty's good Subjects, and cannot fail to discourage the Designs of his Enemies; and the Lords may be assured, that I shall always have a very great Regard for their Opinion and Advice.

The Lord Lieutenant's Message to the House of Commons.

THE present Situation of Affairs makes it proper for me to recommend it to you to take such Measures as you shall judge may be most effectual for the Security and Defence of this Kingdom.

Sabbati 15 Die Martii, 1739.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an humble Address be presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to thank his Grace for his Message to this House, and the Concern he has expressed for the Safety of this Kingdom.

Resolved,