D U B L I N.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms under the Command of Vice-Admiral Vernon at Porto Bello.

We are highly sensible, that next under God, we owe this Success to your Majesty's wife and steady Conduct; and we cannot doubt, but that by the Continuance of his Blessings on your Majesty's Councils and Arms, you will secure for ever those just Rights, which belong to your Majesty's Subjects, and for which you have shewn such a princely Concern.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Shall forthwith transmit these your dutiful Congratulations on the Success of his Majesty's Arms, in order to their being laid before his Majesty.

Dublin, March 28.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonshire,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave, before the Conclusion of this Session, to make the most grateful Acknowledgments to your Grace for your wife and just Administration.

The Continuance of your Grace in the Government of this Kingdom, is a most valuable Proof of his Majesty's paternal Regard for the Happiness of his Subjects of Ireland; and we should think ourselves unworthy of so great a Favour, if we did not on our Part, use our utmost Endeavours to make your Administration as easy to your Grace, as it is happy to the People.

We are persuaded, that a steady Loyalty to his Majesty, and a constant Adherence to the true Interest of our Country, must be the only Means to recommend us to your Grace's Approbation: As we have always acted upon these Principles, we humbly hope that your Grace will make favourable Representations to his Majesty, of the Unanimity with which this House has dispatched the Business that came before us this Session.

We think ourselves at this Time obliged to repeat our most sincere Assurances, that we will be ready upon all Occasions zealously to defend and support his Majesty's Person and Government; and that we will heartily contribute every Thing in our Power, towards the Security and Prosperity of his Kingdoms.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords,

IT is a sensible Pleasure to me to receive these farther Marks of your Lordships Satisfaction in my Administration; and I assure your Lordships, I think myself obliged to represent faithfully to his Majesty, on my Return into his Royal Presence, the Zeal you have shewn for his Majesty's Service during this Session, and your Readiness on all Occasions to do every Thing in your Power for the Support of his Person and Government.

Dublin, March 29.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonshire,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Gonour of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, in Discharge of the Duty we owe to ourselves and those we represent, take this Opportunity to declare our most grateful Sense of that Candour, Vigilance and Justice so conspicuous through the whole Course of your Grace's Administration.

We beg Leave to return your Grace our most sincere Thanks for the particular Regard and Attachment to the Interest and Welfare of this Nation, with which you have acted upon every Occasion; and we from thence assure ourselves, that your Grace will, upon your Return to his Majesty, represent us a People firmly attached to his Royal Person, zealous for the Protestant Interest and the present happy Constitution, and truly sensible of his Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness to us, of which he has given us a most signal Instance, by committing the Government of this Kingdom to a Person of your Grace's great Wisdom and Abilities.

*Isaac Ambrose, } Cler. Parl.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Thank the House of Commons for the kind Sense they express of my Endeavours to promote the Welfare and Prosperity of this Kingdom; and I shall with very great Pleasure make a faithful Report to his Majesty, on my Return into his Royal Presence, of your steady Loyalty and inviolable Affection to his Majesty's Person and Government.

Dublin, March 31.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant went this Day to the House of Peers; and being seated on the Throne with the usual Ceremony, his Grace sent for the Commons, and gave the Royal

Royal Assent to several Bills, the Titles of which will be inserted in our next.

After which his Grace was pleased to make the following Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Have with great Satisfaction obey'd his Majesty's Commands in giving the Royal Assent to the many useful Bills which you have prepared; and I assure myself you need not be put in Mind how necessary it will be, in order to reap the full Benefit of them, to carry them into a due and impartial Execution.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Cheerfulness and Unanimity with which you granted the usual Supplies, and for which I am to return you his Majesty's Thanks, are fresh Instances of your Affection and Zeal for his Majesty's Person and Government, as the seasonable Provision which you have made for arming the Militia is of your Attention to the Preservation of the publick Peace and Tranquility of this Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is with much Pleasure I observe from the Addresses of both Houses, that my Administration has been agreeable to you; and as I shall always have the Welfare of this Kingdom at Heart, you may depend upon my best Endeavours for your Service; and I shall continue truly and faithfully to represent to his Majesty the Affection, Loyalty and Zeal of his Majesty's Subjects of Ireland.

Then the Lord Chancellor declared, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure that this Parliament be prorogued to Monday the 12th Day of May next; and the Parliament was accordingly prorogued to Monday the 12th Day of May next.
