Copenhagen, March 29. Their Danish Majesties intend, about the Beginning of May, to take a Journey into Holftein; whereupon Orders are given, and Preparations actually making for it. The Frince Royal, who is to be confirmed, and to receive the Communion this Eafter, goes along with their Ma-jefties. It is thought they will be frequently moving from one Place to another, review-ing the Troops, especially the new establish'd Militia, and furveying the Works at Gluckstadt. If their Majeflies stay long in any Place, it will be at Gottorp and at Altena, where it is expected the Margrave of Bareith and the Princels of Ooftfrile will come to vilit them : Yet probably the whole Time of their Absence from hence will not exceed fix Weeks or two Months at the most.
