By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Fast.

GEO RGE R.

Whereas we have been obliged, for vindicating the Honour of our Crown, securing the Trade and Navigation of our Subjects, and defending our undoubted Rights, to declare War against the King of Spain, and are determined to prosecute the same with the utmost Vigour, till, by the Blessing of God on our Arms, we shall obtain that Satisfaction and Security which we may hope from the Justice of our Cause: We therefore, putting our Trust in the Divine Assistance, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, hereby command, That a publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, upon Wednesday the Twenty-fifth Day of November next; that so both We and our People may humble ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon for our Sins, and may, in most devout and solemn Manner send our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty for averting those heavy Judgments, which our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved; and imploring his Blessing and Assistance on our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety and Prosperity to us and our Kingdoms. And we do strictly charge and command, that the said publick Fast be reverently and decently observed by all our Loving Subjects in England, our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as we may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, we have given Directions to the most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of publick Worship, and to take Care the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at our Court at St. James's the Twenty-second Day of October 1741, in the Fifteenth Year of our Reign.

God save the King.

Our Will is therefore, and we charge that incontinent this our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and thence in our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance. And our Will and Pleasure is, that our Sollicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewards of Stewartries, and Baillifs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom we ordain to see the same published; and we appoint them to send Doubles hereof to the several parochial Kirks within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day abovementioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after divine Service.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-second Day of October 1741, and in the Fifteenth Year of our Reign.
