St. James's, December 11.

THIS Day the following Address was presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, as President of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, accompanied by the Bishops; and also by the Lower House with their Prolocutor.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Archbishop, Bishops, and the Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, beg Leave, with the general Voice of your People, to present our most humble and unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's safe and happy Return to these your British Dominions.

It is with the utmost Joy and Satisfaction, that we embrace every Opportunity of openly professing to your Majesty, and to all the World, our deep Sense of the manifold and great Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Government; of the free and equal Course of all publick Justice; of the full and undisturbed Possession of our Civil Rights and Liberties; with all those other Benefits, which daily accrue to us from your watchful Care and active Zeal for the Safety, Honour, and Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

But that, which chiefly affects the Hearts of your faithful Clergy, is your firm and invariable Resolution to support and defend our holy Religion; as by the Laws of your Realm now happily established in the Church of England, which, on all Occasions, your Majesty hath so fully and publicly declared, and of which we have such convincing and undeniable Experience, that with all possible Thankfulness we rest assured, that through the Divine Assistance we shall transmit to Posterity complete and entire the same primitive Faith, the same apostolick, Pious of Church Government, and in all other Respects the same excellent Constitution, which hath hitherto been found the chief Bulwark of the Reformation.

These Sentiments, which fill our own Breasts, with unspeakable Joy and Gratitude, we think it our indispensable Duty, with our utmost Care and Diligence, to impress on the Minds of all those, whom Divine Providence hath placed under our Inspection: And we do earnestly beseech the Almighty, by whom Kings rule, that all your Designs and Undertakings for the publick Good may be crowned with Success; that your Reign over us may be long and glorious; that the Whole and every Part of it may be as happy to yourself, and to your Royal Family, as it is beneficial to us, and all the rest of your People; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Descendants to fill the Throne of these Kingdoms, till Time shall be no more.

His Majesty's most gracious Answer.

My Lords, and the rest of the Clergy,

I Thank you very kindly for this affectionate and loyal Address. You may depend upon my constant Care to maintain and support the Church of England, as by Law established; and to preserve to my People the full Enjoyment of all their Religious and Civil Rights.
