Petersboarg, December 12.

A Body of 5 to 6000 Grenadiers, are on their March hither under the Command of Colonel Stuart, the Felt-Marshal Lacy's Son in Law, and are actually at Moscow, if not already on this Side of it. The Princess of Hesse-Hohnberg having been out of Order, her Majesty on the 7th did her the Honour of a Visit, and from thence proceeded to the Barracks of the Preobrezenski Guards, where she treated them in the same Room in which she had assembled them the Night of the 25th past. Her Majesty has bought several Houses in the Neighbourhood of the Court, which she designs for the Quarters of the 141 Grenadiers, who are to be formed into a Corps of Trabants with the Rank of Lieutenants, and their Uniform, which will be magnificent, is ordered. Captain Hopken, who was lately taken Prisoner, arrived here the 9th, and had her Majesty's Leave to appear at Court the next Evening at the Drawing Room and Ball. M. Nepluef, the Privy Counsellor, who went some Time ago Governour to the Ukraine, and upon the late Change was sent for back, is arrived, and appear'd Yesterday at Court with his Order. Since the Publication of the late Order by Beat of Drum, an immense Quantity of Plate and other valuable Effects belonging to the five chief Prisoners, have been transported to the House which was fitting up for Mademoiselle Julian Mengden after her Marriage, where the Commission of Confiscations will be kept.

Petersbourg, Dec. 15. A Secretary was sent the 13th to notify to all the Foreign Ministers, that according to her Majesty's new Regulation, the Grand Chancellor Prince Czircaski, and the Privy Counsellor M. Bestucheff, who had been declared Vice Chancellor, were charged with the Care of Foreign Affairs, and that the Ministers upon all Occasions should address themselves to these two. By the same Regulation the Admiral Count Gallowin, and the Master of the Horse Prince Kourakin, are declared Ministers of Conference, to assist the Great and Vice Chancellors upon extraordinary Occasions, and when specially called in. The Privy Counsellor Brevern remains as before, charged with the foreign Dispatches.

Naples, Dec. 12, N. S. On the 9th Instant two Vessels arrived here from Genoa, with Recruits to compleat the Swiss and other Regiments. On the 11th sailed from this Port the two Ships of War St. Philip and Parthenope, escorting to the Prefidii 19 Transports with the large Train of Cannon for Battery, Mortars, Ammunition and Military Stores for the Expedition to Lombardy.

Rome, Dec. 16, N. S. The Pope has appointed Mess. Fabbretti and Clarelli as Commissaries to prepare the necessary Subsistence for the Passage of the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops through the Ecclesiastical State, who promise to pay ready Money for what they may have Occasion. The March of the above Troops is for the present suspended, and Part of those of Spain are extended to our Confines towards Montalto. Many Deserters of both Armies arrive daily in this City, to prevent the Entrance of which in too great a Number together, several of the City Gates are shut up. On the 11th the Cardinals Tencin, Acquaviva, and M. Tun, had Audiences of the Pope relating to the Commissions they had received from their respective Courts. On the 16th it was reported that M. de Montemar was arrived incognito at Cardinal Acquaviva's Palace on his Journey to Naples.

Leghorn, Dec. 22, N. S. On the 19th Instant, 200 Men out of Pandolfini's Regiment of Militia, entered into the Garrison of this Place.

Florence, Dec. 24, N. S. On the 17th Instant a Courier arrived here from Leghorn to the Spanish Agent, with a Letter from M. de Montemar to the Regency, requiring a Passage for a Column of the Spanish Troops through Tuscany to Lombardy, and the next Day a Council was thereupon held, in Consequence of which, Orders were sent to Mess. Velluti and Mazzone, (both Tuscan Officers) to attend on M. de Montemar as Commissaries to settle with him what may may be necessary. On the 20th the said Com-millaries arrived here; and on the 22d, after they had received the necessary Instructions from the Regency, set out for Orbitello to attend on M. de Montemar. On the 18th in the Evening the Spanish Agent dispatched a Courier to M. de Montemar, with the Answer he had received from the Regency to his Excellency's Letter; and the Regency dispatched an Express to Leghorn to acquaint General Braitwitz with M. de Montemar's Request, and their Determination. On the 19th a Courier arrived here from Vienna, with Dispatches from the Great Duke to the Regency, as was said, concerning the Finances; and with Notice of M. de Richécourt's Return to Tuscany to attend Business as formerly. In the Evening a Council was thereupon called; and in the Night Sig. Gavi, the Superintendent of the Great Duke's Domains, was, by Order of the Regency, and Consent of the Court of Rome, taken out of the Church where he had taken Refuge, and, under a strong Guard, conducted to the common Goal. On the 20th a Cabinet Courier was, by the Regency, dispatch'd to the Great Duke, to acquaint his Highness with the Demand of the Passage for the Spanish Troops through Tuscany, as well as the Regency's Answer to M. de Montemar, and at the same time to acquaint his Highness with the Imprisonment of Sig. Gavi. On the 22d the Prince d'Ottajono de Medicis had a private Audience of the Electress Dowager Palatine, and in the Night dispatched his Valet de Chambre to the Court of Naples.

Vienna, Jan. 3, N. S. On Monday the 1st of this Month, two Couriers arrived one after the other, with the agreeable News, that Marshal Khevenhuller had passed the River of Ens, and driven the Enemy from the Town of that Name, and from that of Steyr also. As the French and Bavarians had the said River before them, besides an Intrenchment and a Line drawn between the two Towns abovementioned, Marshal Khevenhuller made a Feint of attacking them on the Side of Mathausen, during which Time M. Mercy dislodged them from Steyr, after having killed and made Prisoners a great Number of them; and at the same time the Town of Ens was taken. The Day after, being the 31st of December, a Battallion of French which pretended to make some Resistance on the Banks of the River Ens, was cut to Pieces. Mess. de Segur and Minucci, who commanded a Body of 10000 French and Bavarians, having retired with Precipitation, Marshal Khevenhuller detached the Hussars after them, who slew and took Prisoners a great Number. The Boors having also taken Arms, cut all they met with to Pieces, and the Marshal is in full March to give the Enemy Battle. They attempted to save their heavy Baggage by the Danube, but the greatest Part of it has been taken by the Hussars, a few of whom have been killed, which is hitherto the only Loss on our Side. From Bohemia we are informed, that four Companies of French Grenadiers were put to the Sword by the Hungarian Troops called Portalistes, 300 of the French Hosts having run away at the first Onset. This Detachment was advanced to reconnoitre the Great Duke's Army, who took 200 Prisoners at Wodnian. From the Army of M. de Lobeowitz there is Advice, that M. de Chatillon, a French Brigadier, had fallen into the Hands of Caroli's Hussars, who after killing an Hundred of his Men, took him Prisoner himself, with his Son, four other Officers, and an Hundred private Soldiers.

Vienna, Jan. 6. The Enemy commanded by M. de Segur, the Prince of Tingry, my Lord Cläre, and M. de Minucci, made a Feint at first as if they intended to retreat on the Side of Wels and Lampach, but they threw themselves into Lintz, where, together with the Garrison, they make a Body of 10,000 Men, and are so block'd up by Marshal Khevenhuller, that being destitute of Provisions, and cut off from all Assistance on every Side, they have already offered to capitulate, and to evacuate all the Upper Austria, upon Condition of having a free Passage, and the military Honours allowed them; but Marshal Khevenhuller insists, that they shall either surrender themselves Prisoners of War, or engage to serve no more against the Queen during the Continuance of the present War. General Bernes has seiz'd the great Magazine which the Enemy had at Cremmuhlfist, where he made two Companies of Bavarian Cuirassiers Prisoners of War; and General Bernclau has got Possession of the Salt Works at Gmund, with the Towns of Hallstat and Ischel, and taken Prisoners 400 Men that were in Garrison. Mathausen has likewise surrendered at Discretion.
