Will. Yonge.

Whitehall, April 10, 1742.

Whereas on Sunday the 4th Instant, about Two of the Clock in the Morning, five Men mounted on Horseback, loaded with Goods, suspected to be Tea, passing through the Road near Clerkenwell Green, one of their Horses run against the Constable, who holding up his Staff to defend himself, the Person on the said Horse discharged divers Pistols or Blunderbusses at the said Constable and his Watchman Isaac Crawley, and wounded the said Crawley in his Arm, which has since been cut off: And whereas another of the said Persons returning back, fired four Pistols or Blunderbusses at the said Constable and his Watchman; and soon after divers Persons came to the Watch-house at Clerkenwell Green, and discharged several Pistols or Blunderbusses through the Door of the said Watch-house, and wounded Richard Croxall, another Watchman there on his Duty, who is since dead. For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned, his Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any two of the Offenders who shall first discover their Accomplices (the Person who first fired at and wounded Isaac Crawley excepted) so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

CARTERET.

N. B. Isaac Crawley abovementioned is since dead.

Custom House, London, April 15, 1742.

The Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs give Notice, That by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, a Reward of Fifty Pounds will be allowed for apprehending each of the said Offenders, to be paid on a Certificate of the Judge before whom the Offender shall be convicted, provided the Discovery is made within three Months after the Offence was committed.

And as an Encouragement to the Person or Persons who shall discover all or any of the said Offenders, the said Commissioners do promise a further Reward of Fifty Pounds for each of the Offenders discovered, so that he be convicted.

And as a further Encouragement to such Person or Persons as shall apprehend all or any of the said Offenders, the said Commissioners do likewise promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds more, to be paid for each of the Offenders on Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

Wm. Manley, Secretary.
