

Breslau, April 28. Yesterday we received the News of the Castle of Glatz having surrendered the 24th Instant to the Prussians. The Garrison, consisting of 400 Men, marched out with three Pieces of Cannon, &c.

Copenhagen, May 1. This Morning about Eight o'Clock the Court set out for Gottorp. They propose to lie to Night at Antwerthaw, and to Morrow, the 2d, at Odensee, where they remain the next Day, being Holiday. The 4th they remove to Colding, and stop there Saturday and Sunday. The 7th they are to be at Haderleben, the 8th at Flensburg, and the 9th at Gottorp.

Dresden, May 2. According to the last Advices from the Army, the first Column will be at Leuthmeritz the 4th Instant, and the whole follows with all possible Expedition, and will extend itself from that Town to Schlakenwerth, in the Circle of Saatz, by which Position they will have the River Eger before them, the Elbe on their Left, the Town of Eger on their Right, and their own Frontiers behind them. The Prussians have evacuated Olmutz. It is said that M. Podeweltz, and the Foreign Ministers attending his Prussian Majesty, are to repair to the Town of Glatz, in order to be nearer to his Person.

Hambourg, May 4. By a Letter from Stockholm of the 24th of April, N. S. we hear, that eleven Mails and three Expresses were arrived there at the same Time from Finland by the Way of Allandshaff, by which there is Advice, that Count Lowenhaupt was assembling his Army with the utmost Diligence; that the Parties of Cossacks which had from Time to Time made Excursions from the Russian Camp, had been as often driven back by the Finland Peasants; and that Colonel Legerkrantz, who had been dispatched by Count Lowenhaupt to General Keith, to endeavour, as it was then thought, to procure a farther Suspension of Arms, was returned from the Court of Russia, and on his Way to Stockholm, to give an Account of the Success of his Negotiation, but that Count Lowenhaupt had him seized some Hours after he had left his Camp, and conducted Prisoner to Stockholm, where he was expected the Night that the last Letters came from thence,
