

The London Gazette.

Numb. 8186.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 4. to Saturday January 8. 1742.

Capitulation of Prague.

1. THE present Inhabitants of the Town of Prague shall not be called to Account or molested under any Pretences whatever, for the Oath they have taken, the Services they have performed, and Money they may have lent, and for having served the Emperor or his Allies, they being constrained thereto by Force.

1. Granted.

2. All the General Officers of the Troops, besides those of the Garrison, French or Imperialists, and the Garrison in the Condition it shall then be in, and all belonging to it, in the Service of the Emperor, or his most Christian Majesty, shall march out with their Arms and Baggage, and all the Honours of War; and they shall not be subject to any Kind of Reprizals, under any Pretence whatsoever.

2. All that are in a Condition to march shall go out of the Town, viz. Those of the Garrison.

3. The Garrison shall carry with them all the Effects belonging, as well to his Imperial, as his most Christian Majesty, consisting of 40 Copper Bridges upon Carriages, with three Changes of Carriages, two Pieces of Brass Cannon mounted, and engraved with the Arms of Bavaria and Count Terring, and four Carriages of Artillery, made for the Use of the Infantry.

3. The Effects of all Sorts belonging to the Sovereigns, shall remain at Prague, and shall be consigned to the Royal Officer to be commissioned for that Purpose.

4. In like Manner they shall be at Liberty to carry away with them, all Grain, Meal, Biscuit Bread, Biscuit, Utensils belonging to the Ovens and Magazines, and in general every Thing belonging thereto, as Forage, Hay, Straw, Oats, Barley, or Rice, which are in the Magazines.

4. Provision shall be made for the Subsistence of the Garrison during the March, so that neither the Grain, nor the Meal, &c. of the Garrison shall be touched, which shall be faithfully delivered up.

5. They shall be at Liberty to carry away with them all the Equipages belonging to the Troops of the two allied Nations, and to the Officers, as well absent as present, their Furniture and Effects; of what Kind soever, belonging to them, the Arms deposited in the Magazines, Cloathing made up, or in Bales, Harnesses and Equipages of the Horses of all Kinds belonging to the Troops, to the Artillery, or to the Provisions, Regimentals, &c. without any Distinction.

5. The Equipages belonging to the Officers shall not be meddled with, but it is hoped that Nothing but what is really the Property of the said Officers will be mixed with them.

6. All the Papers belonging to the Military Chest, the Super-Intendant, the Commissaries of the War, the Artillery, Provisions, the Hospitals, and those of the Contractors for Meat, shall likewise be carried away by the Persons who are charged with them.

6. Granted, upon Condition of a Search, and that nothing be intermixed therewith to the Prejudice of the Queen, and the States of the Kingdom of Bohemia.

7. A sufficient Number of Waggons shall be furnished, each drawn by four Horses, and which shall not carry above 12 to 15 C. Weight, for the Removal of all the Effects belonging to the Allies, whether Ammunition or Equipage, which shall be conducted to a certain Place upon the Frontiers of the Upper Palatinate, which shall hereafter be agreed upon, and Saddle Horses shall likewise be furnished for the Officers, and also such Draught Horses as may be necessary for the Carriages belonging to them, which shall carry their Equipages or Effects to the said Place to be agreed upon.

7. It is agreed to engage for the Removal of the Equipages of the Officers, who shall actually march out with the Garrison, and they shall be suffer'd to provide themselves with Horses at their own Expence.

8. There remains upon the Ramparts of the City of Prague, six Pieces of Cannon 24 Pounders, with their Carriages and Implements; of which there's one not fit for Service.

Three 12 Pounders mounted upon their Carriages with their Implements compleat: A spare Carriage of a 24 Pounder with its Implements compleat: Two Mortars of 12 Inches with their Carriages and Implements compleat,

Three Mortars of 10 Inches  $\frac{6}{8}$ ; all which nine Brass Pieces of Cannon, five Brass Mortars with their Carriages and Implements, and one spare Carriage for a 24 Pounder, belonging to his Majesty the King of Poland and Elector of Saxony, shall be restored upon the first Requisition.

[ Price Two Pence. ]

