Mentz, May 4, N. S.

WE hear that the French suffer'd a great deal by Fatigue in their March and Return to and from Egra, and that there is still a Mortality amongst them about Nuremberg. They are in continual Motion towards Spire, tho' there are not as yet above 7 or 8000 of them on the other Side of the Rhine. It was suppos'd that some would arrive at Franckenthal and Oberheim on the 3d, as they have already had Ovens built at those Places; but it is assur'd that there are none towards Creutznach and Bingen, or any marching that Way.

Mentz, May 7, N. S. According to all Accounts from Amberg, the French are moving towards the Danube; those belonging to M. Noailles's Corps have not lately made any considerable Motion, but are endeavouring to buy up what Provisions and Forage they can on both Sides of the Neckar

Copenhagen, May 7 A Placard is published here, dated April 2 1743, which prohibits the Exportation of all Sorts of Horses from the Kingdom of Denmark the Dutchy of Sleswick, and the several Parts of Holstein, as also from the Lordship of Pinneberg and the County of Rantzau, till the 31st of July next; yet they who desire to export Horses bred in their own Studs, may still do it by virtue of a special Pass from the Chamber of Finances. The Court is at present wholly taken up with the Reviews, which begin To-day. Three Dutch Men of War are arriv'd in the Sound, being a Part of those appointed to protect the Trade.

Hague, May 14, N. S. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland arriv'd here this Morning, and intends to stay here a Day or two. Lord Carteret is expected To-morrow. The Province of Zealand sent in her Content Yesterday to the Propositi'on of Holland, for the March of 20,000. Men to the Assistance of the Queen of Hungary; so that there are now four Provinces for that Measure, and but one, viz. Utrecht, that has declared itself against it; and it is not doubted, but this Affair will be finally concluded in a few Days at the Assembly of the States General. There are Letters in Town which mention Prince Charles's having pass'd the Inn, and oblig'd the Bavarian Troops to abandon their Posts in the Bishoprick of Saltzbourg.

Whitehall, May 7.

On Wednesday Morning a Messenger, dispatched by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret, principal Secretary of State attending the King, arriv'd here with an Account, that his

On Thursday their Excellencies the Lords Justices met at the Cockpit, and open'd their Commission, when they were pleas'd to appoint Andrew Stone and Edward Weston, Esqrs. to be their Secretaries.
