

The News of the taking of Dingelfing and Landau, was brought hither by Capt. Gastheim, of Diemar's Regiment, Aid de Camp to Marshal Khevenhuller, preceded by four Postillions. General Tornaco of Prince Lobcowitz's Corps, is advanced towards the Danube, and is not far from Deckendorf.

Prague, June 2. We have Advice that the Enemy has all on a sudden abandoned Wasserburg, where our People got a considerable Magazine with six great Cannons, and all that belongs to them. But what is of more Importance, is the News we received Yesterday by a Courier, that her Majesty's Troops have taken Deckendorf, and in it 350 Prisoners, and made themselves, by Force, Masters, not only of the Bridge of the Town over the Danube, but also of the floating Bridge, after having repulsed the French, who had already begun to break down the First. By all which, we lost no more than 60 or 80 Men. Prince Lobcowitz, who was just come to Prince Charles, was present, by Chance, at this Action. Part of the Baggage of the Prince of Conti is fallen into our Hands, and we hear there are about 5000 French behind Deckendorf, who, it is thought, can hardly escape.

Masfricht, May 29. N. S. This Day the third Division of the Hessian Troops, in his Britannick Majesty's Pay, consisting of Prince George and Prince Frederick's Regiments of Foot, under the Command of Col. Mansback, passed the Maeze at this Place, and will be succeeded To-morrow by the fourth Division.

Hoechst, May 30. N. S. General Honeywood arrived Yesterday at Konigstein, with the Regiment of Blue Guards, which will encamp To-morrow. All the British Cavalry will be up by the 2d or 3d of next Month. Our Artillery arriv'd in the Camp upon Saturday last, and all the British Foot and Dragoons are now actually incamped, except two Battallions left at Neuwied to guard the Bridge there. The Bridge of Boats, which was prepared at Francfort, is now brought down to this Place, in order to be in Readiness to be laid over the Main, wherever it shall be thought proper.

Ostend, June 2. The Transports from Ireland got into this Harbour last Night and to Day: The seven Companies of Brigadier Howard's Regiment marched out this Morning, and were relieved by Lord Rothes's: The Battallion of Sinclair's marches for Bruges To-morrow.

Hanover, June 2, N. S. Upon the 30th of May the King reviewed, upon the Plain of Linden, the Regiments of the Infantry of Bothmer and of Crug, which will set out upon the 6th Instant for the Army, with the other six Regiments of Infantry which his Majesty sends thither. This Corps is to be at the Main by the 27th Instant: It will be commanded by General Druchleben. Upon the 2d the King gave an Audience to Count Flemming, Envoy Extraordinary from Poland, who arrived here a few Days ago; as also to M. de Mardefeld, Envoy from the Bishop of Lubeck. Major Brietenbach, who commands the Squadron of Horse Grenadiers lately raised, has received Orders from the King to go to the Army.

Hague, June 4. N. S. The States of Holland have given Directions for the Payment of that Province's Quota, in the Subsidy of 16000 Florins for last Year to the Queen of Hungary. Baron Reischach had sent to Prague, with the King's Resolution of the 17th of May last, concerning the March of the Auxiliary Body of Troops, returned last Saturday, and brought Orders from the Queen to that Minister, to press the said March as much possible towards the Main. We had an Account to Day, from Hanover, of the Arrival of the Lord Carteret there. The Duke of Richmond set out for Utrecht Yesterday Morning, as did M. Wafner for Hanover to Day. As Baron Cronstrom is expected here this Night, and the States of Holland, who adjourned themselves till Friday next, will resume their Assembly that Day, it is thought that the Dispositions for the intended March of the Dutch Auxiliary Troops, will then be adjusted. We hear that the French are drawing their Army together at Platling, situated upon the Confluence of the Iser with the Danube, and that being apprehensive of Prince Lobcowitz, they have begun to remove their Magazine from Stadt am-hoff to Straubing, for greater Security.

War Office, May 18, 1743.

Whereas several of the Soldiers belonging to the Highland Regiment of Foot commanded by the Rt. Hon. Lord Sempil, have mutiny'd and deserted with their Arms and their Highland Regimental Cloaths, and are supposed to be marched Northward; It is the Lords Justices Direction that all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Constables, and other Civil Magistrates do use their utmost Endeavours to secure all or any of the said Mutineers and Deserters in some County Goal, or other Prison, according to the Direction of the Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and to give immediate Notice thereof to the Secretary at War, as directed by the said Act. And all such Persons as shall so apprehend any of the said Mutineers and Deserters, shall receive Forty Shillings for each Man, over and above the Reward given by the said Act to such Persons as shall apprehend Deserters.

By Command of their Excellencies,
WILL. YONGE.

Whitehall, May 19, 1743.

It having being represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that, on the 2d Instant, Richard Cadman, Servant or Agent to Mr. Charles Yonge and Company, Contractors for the Return of the Excise Duties for Wales middle Collection, having received from the Collector of Excise a large Sum of Money, at Bishop's Castle in Shropshire, was murdered about two Miles and a Half from that Place, near to a Village called Norbury, between the Hours of Three and Four in the Afternoon, and robb'd of the said Money; For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons who committed the said Robbery and Murder, their Excellencies are pleased to promise his Majesty's Pardon to any Person or Persons concerned therein, (except the Person who actually committed the Murder) who shall make Discovery of his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ANDREW STONE.

Admiralty-Office, April 28, 1743.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are pleased to direct, that all such disabled or worn out Seamen, who have been minuted to be received into the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, do make their Appearance at this Office on Wednesday the 1st of June next, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning.

Tho. Corbett.

Admiralty-Office, April 28, 1743.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham,
