Petersbourg, July 2. Wednesday last being the Festival of St. Peter, and his Imperial Highness the Great Duke's Name Day, the same was celebrated here with extraordinary Magnificence. It is currently reported, that the Preliminary Articles of Peace were signed some Time ago at Abo by the Russian and Swedish Plenipotentiaries, and that, in Consequence thereof, a Suspension of Hostilities was proclaimed on Board the Russian Fleet of Gallies, lying in Aland Haff, on the 19th past. The Russian Ministers are in hourly Expectation of a Courier from Abo, with the News of the Bishop of Lubeck's being elected Successor to the Crown of Sweden, the Day of Election having been fixed for the 21st past. It is generally believed that her Imperial Majesty intends to return to Moscow the Beginning of next Winter, to go from thence the following Summer to Kiow to perform her Vows, and afterwards to come back to this City by the Way of Smolensko, Plefco, and Riga.

Stockholm, July 8. On Wednesday, Yesterday and To-Day, the States have met upon the Affair of General Lewenhaupt, whose Friends have made a last Effort to save him, or rather to delay his unhappy Fate. The Point chiefly insisted on, in order to gain Time, was, as we hear, that the States should make a Revision of all the Protocols and Acts of that General's Process: But, after long and very violent Debates, it was resolved, amongst the Nobles, that his Sentence only should be read. As to the three other Orders, they have been unanimous in confirming the Sentence of the Commission and Court Martial, and would not allow of any Representations being made in favour of the said General. M. Degenfeldt, the Hessian Minister, set out from hence, a few Days ago, on his Return to Cassel.

Stockholm, July 12. The Business of the two Generals under Sentence of Death, is what takes up the chief Attention of the Senate and Diet at present. A few Days ago Lieutenant-General Bodenbroke had Notice to prepare himself to die, next Saturday the 16th Instant being fixed for his Execution. Within these few Days his Swedish Majesty has received Petitions from several of the principal Districts of Dalicaria; wherein they acknowledge their Crime, and beg for Mercy.

Naples, July 9. Their Sicilian Majesties returned this Day from Portici, to celebrate the Queen's Birth-day To-morrow in this City; but the Diversions, which were prepared upon this Occasion, and for her Majesty's happy Delivery and Recovery, are suspended upon account of the Plague at Messina, which continues to rage, and has almost desolated that Town. Some Persons have escaped from thence to the opposite Shore of Calabria, and brought the Infection with them into a small Village; but the Place is now surrounded by Guards, to prevent their having any Communication with the Neighbourhood. No Port in Italy, except Venice, will admit of any Vessel from Messina to Quarantine.

Hanau, July 13, O. S. The King has been pleased to promote Brigadiers General Richard Onslow, Francis Fuller, Henry Pulteney, Charles Howard, Philip Bragg, John Huske, Henry Ponsonby, and Charles Frampton, to the Rank of Majors General of his Majesty's Forces.

Hague, August 2. Our freshest Advices from the Side of the Rhine mention the French Troops, as well those under the Command of Marshal Noailles, as of Count de Saxe, having entirely evacuated the Palatinate, and retreated into Alsace.
