

War Office, July 29, 1743.

Whereas it hath been represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that several private Men, belonging to his Majesty's Regiment of Foot under the Command of Hugh Lord Sempill, had concealed themselves in the Highlands, when the Regiment was ordered to march for South Britain, or had deserted before the Arrival of the Regiment in Nottinghamshire; and that such Deserters had expressed their Concern for deserting his Majesty's Service, and most humbly prayed they might be pardoned upon their Return to their Duty with the Regiment; Their Excellencies are therefore pleas'd to promise his Majesty's most gracious Pardon to all such Deserters as aforesaid, who shall return to their Duty and surrender themselves to Lieutenants John Mackenzie, Alexander Macdonald, George Ramsay, or either of them, now employed on the Recruiting Service for the said Regiment, on or before the 10th Day of September next.

By Command of their Excellencies,
Will. Yonge.
