Petersbourg, August 29.

HER Imperial Majesty has lately declared her Intention of going to Moscow the latter End of November, or the Beginning of December; and it is supposed that the Foreign Ministers will follow her Majesty thither.

Lisbon, September 18. His Portuguese Majesty sets out for the Baths To-morrow; and as he is better now than he has been since his first Seizure, the Court flatter themselves his Majesty will receive great Benefit from this Journey.

Spire, Sept. 23, O. S. Yesterday Morning a Detachment of Twelve hundred Cavalry, and as many Foot, were commanded to Gemmerheim, in order to cover the Peasants from the adjacent Villages, who were employed in demolishing the Lines that were lately raised by the French upon the Queiche, and the said Lines were accordingly demolished in the Evening, which his Majesty went himself to see completed: And this Morning the said Detachment returned to our Camp here.

Hamburgh, Oct. 2. The Prince Augustus of Holstein arrived here the Day before Yesterday from Stralsund, where his Royal Highness the Duke Administrator had embarked the 27th past, N. S. with the Senators Lowen and Wrangel, and accompanied by Count Sparre and the young Count Taube, &c. for Wittauport, to pass from thence on board a Yacht called the Flygarn, which waited here for that Purpose, directly to Sweden. The Admiral Count Taube was at Sea with several Men of War, posted at a Place called Perth off the Island of Bornholm, from whence the Prince would be attended by the Swedish Convoy. The Ceremony of presenting the Prince Augustus with the Order of St. Andrew, in the Name of the Czarina, is to be performed by the Chamberlain Korff To-morrow.

Navy-Office, October 3, 1743.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of January 1742, to the 30th of June 1743, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf, These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, the following Days, to wit, on Munday the 17th Instant for the Captains, Tuesday the 18th for the Lieutenants, and Wednesday the 19th for Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavits required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

General Post-Office, London, August 18, 1743.

POST-CHAISES between London and Dover, and London and Tunbridge-Wells.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the several Post-masters on the Road between London and Dover, and London and Tunbridge Wells, are ready to furnish Gentlemen, or others, with Post-Chaises, safe, easy, and well secured from the Weather, upon as short Warning as for Post-Horses, at any Hour, either of the Day or Night. Gentlemen who have Occasion to go Post on the above Roads, are desired to apply to Mr. Baldwin, at the George Inn in the Borough of Southwark.

A Post-Chaise may be had at any of the Stages on the Dover and Tunbridge-Wells Roads, to go Part, or all the Way, for one or more Stages, for those who do not chuse to travel in the Night.

N. B. All Gentlemen that travel in Post-Chaises of their own upon the Roads where Post-Chaises are already set up, by the Authority of this Office, may be supplied with Horses, at the several Stages on those Roads, at the Rate of Nine Pence per Mile.

By Command of the Postmaster General.

Geo. Shelvocke, Secr.

Notice is hereby given by the Agents to the Officers and Ship's Company that were on board his Majesty's Ship the Fox, at the taking of a Spanish Privateer called the Santa Justa Refina, that they may receive their respective Shares of the Head Moneys at Mr. Thomas Mangles, near the Dock at Plymouth, on Tuesday the 11th Instant; and that the Shares of such as shall not then be demanded, will be paid on every Tuesday for three Years to come, at Mr. Edward Jasper's Office on Great Tower Hill, London, to the Parties, or to Persons legally empowered to receive the same.
