W Hereas this present Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Thirteenth Day of this Instant October, We with the Advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Thirteenth Day of October, to Tuesday the Twenty Second Day of November next; and we have given Order that a Commission be prepared for proroguing the same accordingly. And we do hereby further declare his Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall on the said Tuesday the Twenty Second Day of November next, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgesies, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster on the said Tuesday the Twenty Second Day of November next.

Given at Whitehall the Eleventh Day of October, in the Seventeenth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

Worms, Oct 13, N. S. On Thursday last his Majesty gave Orders for the combined Army's returning to Worms, and accordingly on Friday Morning, at break of Day, it was in full March, and arrived about Ten at Mutterstadt, where his Majesty lay that Night: Yesterday it marched to Frankenthal, and this Forenoon encamped in the Neighbourhood of this Place, where his Majesty arrived about Ten. Tomorrow it halts, and on Thursday will march towards Oppenheim.

Dublin-Castle, September 29. This Afternoon arrived His Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom: He was received on his Landing by the Lords Justices and several of the Nobility, as also by the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of Dublin. The Forces in Garrison here lined the Streets through which his Grace, attended by a Regiment of Horse, the Battle-Ax Guards and other Officers attending the State, proceeded to the Castle, where there was a numerous Appearance to compliment his Grace upon his safe Arrival.
