

will be left on board, and all the Seamen are to be retained. The Holstein Artillery is to be disembarked and brought into the Town. The Embargo on Shipping is taken off, and the Transports, which are engaged for this Month, will probably be dismissed at the End of it, if not sooner. The Prince Royal of Denmark sets out To-morrow for Holstein, being to remain at Dragoe till he hears about what Time her Royal Highness the Princess-Louisa of England may be setting out from Hanover, and then to go to Altona in order to meet and receive her Royal Highness upon the Frontier of the Danish Dominions.

Copenhagen, October 19. The Prince Royal set out the 16th Instant, N. S. early in the Morning, in order to meet the Princess, his future Consort: Her Royal Highness is to lodge the first Night after her Arrival at the Palace of Fridericksberg, about a Quarter of a Mile off. And the next Day, she is to be conducted from thence into this City, with the Ceremony of a Publick Entry, for which great Preparations are making.

Bern, October 12. A strong Party of the Vaudois having penetrated into the Maurienne, with an Intention to seize some Magazines the Spaniards had left in those Parts, have taken Prisoners a Captain and Thirty Men of the Regiment of Arragon, as also, at some Distance from thence, a Detachment of twelve Dragoons and fifteen Grenadiers of the Regiment of Pavia, who had been sent to reinforce the former; but Don Juan de Villalba, the Spanish Governor of St. Jean de Maurienne, by sending a fresh Supply of Troops, has prevented the Vaudois from executing their Design upon the Magazines. M. de Marcieux, who commands a Body of French Troops in Dauphine, has published an Order strictly forbidding the Subjects of the King his Master, to admit any Piedmontese or Savoyards into that Province, under any Pretence whatsoever, either with Passports or without; and the French Militia, posted on the Frontiers of Savoy, are now absolutely under the Command of M. de Villalba.

All the Letters from Chambery and Geneva agree in the important News of the Spaniards and French having been repulsed with the Loss of some Hundreds of each Nation, in the Attempts they made the 8th and 9th Instant to force the Pass of San Pedro in the Valley of Vraita; and that in Consequence of this Disappointment, and the growing Inclemency of the Season, the Infant had abandoned his Project of penetrating into Piedmont, and was returning to winter in Savoy. Letters from Florence mention, that Prince Lobkowitz was advanced with his whole Army into the Neighbourhood of Bologna, and had taken up his Head Quarters at the Chartreux, a Convent at a small Distance from that City.
