THIS Day the following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Richmond in the County of York, was presented to the King by the Right Hon. Sir Conyers Darcy, Knight, and John York, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, who were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Richmond, in the County of York.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Richmond, in the County of York, with a Sincerity equal to the most affectionate of any of your dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and offer our Congratulations for your Majesty's safe and happy Return from the Hazards of a glorious Campaign, in Consequence of a War, undertaken for the Defence and Security of the Liberties and a Balance of Power in Europe; and which has hitherto been attended with such Success as so just a Cause deserved; and which, we hope, under the farther auspicious Conduct of your Majesty's Arms, and the Influence of your Councils, will, in due Time, be brought to a happy Conclusion.

We beg Leave also, with the same Sincerity, to congratulate your Majesty upon the Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; and the Birth of another Prince of your Majesty's Family; Events which fill our Hearts with the greatest Joy, and with the most lively Hopes and Assurances of the Continuance of a Free and Protestant Government over us, in your Majesty's Family, to latest Generations.

Price Two-pence.)

It is the less regretted by us, that so many of our Fellow Subjects have been before us in their Congratulations to your Majesty upon these happy Events, as this Season gives us so apt an Occasion to wish, that the Glories and Felicities of this Year may be multiplied upon your sacred Head in the next, and still more, in every succeeding one, till the Liberties of Europe are settled upon a firm and lasting Foundation; and we preface this to your Majesty, with the more Confidence, from the Wisdom of your Councils, the Justice of your Cause, and the long Experience of your Majesty's Care and Tenderness for your People; and we think ourselves under the strongest Obligations of Gratitude as well as Duty, to offer our Prayers to Almighty God, for your Majesty's long and happy Reign over us, and for a prosperous and successful Event to all your Undertakings.

Given under our Common Seal at the Borough aforesaid, the 30th Day of December, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

St. James's, January 9.

This Day the following Address of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Burgh of Dundee in Council assembled, was presented to the King by the Hon. Thomas Leslie, their Representative in Parliament, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Burgh of Dundee in Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Dundee, with the profoundest Respect, and most unfeigned Sincerity, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Arms in Germany; the Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa to the Prince Royal of Denmark; the Addition made to your Family by the Birth of another Prince; and
