St. James's, January 10.

THIS Day the following Addresses were presented to the King; which his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve-Men and Freemen of the Borough of Great Grimsby, in Common Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of this very ancient Corporation, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we feel the highest Pleasure upon your safe Return to these your British Dominions.

Your Majesty's known Zeal for a just Balance of Power upon the Continent, having carried your Sacred Person into the most imminent Dangers, as well as his Royal Highness the Duke, who has brought off so honourable a Mark, and given such early Proof of Courage and Behaviour in the Day of Battle, and the Success attending your Majesty's glorious Fatigues, produce from us the most grateful Acknowledgment to Divine Providence, for protecting a Life so valuable and necessary, to give a Check to the ambitious Views of those Powers, who disturb the Tranquillity of Europe.

Permit us, Sir, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty upon the Marriage of the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, and the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, a farther Pledge of Security to the Protestant Succession, the Happiness and Liberties of this Nation.

To which, give us Leave to add the Profession of a most sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Family, upon whom every Thing that is valuable depends.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this 6th Day of January, 1743.

(Price Four-pence.)

May it please your Majesty,

The Increase of your Royal Family by the Birth of another Prince, and the Strengthening the Protestant Interest by the Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, afford a most solid Pleasure to us, and to all who justly value the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign.

That the vigorous Measures, pursued by your Majesty for the Prosperity of these Kingdoms, and securing the Balance of Power in Europe, may be always successful, and prove an effectual Curb to the Common Enemy, are the earnest and hearty Prayers of,

Your Majesty's

most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Signed by Appointment,

Ja. Leslie, Provost.
