

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 13. to Saturday March 17. 1743.

St. James's, March 17.

THE following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons; and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, think it our indispensable Duty, at a Time when your Majesty's Dominions are threaten'd with an Invasion by a Popish Pretender, supported by the ambitious Power of France, to give the strongest Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty and firm Adherence to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Under your Majesty we fully enjoy our religious and civil Rights; these must fall a Sacrifice should a Popish Invader succeed.

If Persons disaffected, from any Motive whatsoever, should be deluded to join in such an horrid Enterprize, 'twill only serve to incite our Vigilance, to confirm our Resolution of hazarding our Lives and Fortunes in the Support of your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Crown, and of the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House, which we look upon as the Butwark of our Religion, Liberties and Property.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the common Seal of the said City of Dublin to be hereunto affixed, the 27th Day of February, 1743.

(Price Six-pence:)

The following Address of the Noblemen, and Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace for the County of Edinburgh, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Charles Gilmour, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace for the County of Edinburgh, met at their Quarter Sessions.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, being fully sensible that the many Blessings we now enjoy, do entirely depend upon the Support of our present happy Establishment, humbly beg Leave to take the first Opportunity, in this critical Conjunction, to express our utter Abhorrence and Detestation of the insolent, rash, and perfidious Designs, discover'd by your Majesty's paternal Care and Vigilance, of your Enemies Abroad, and their deluded Encouragers at Home, to disturb the Happiness and Tranquility of your mild and auspicious Government, by invading your British Dominions, and attempting to set up a Popish Pretender in Opposition to your Majesty, and your undoubted Right to your Imperial Crown.

We behold with Pity and Indignation the Folly of those, who can suffer themselves to imagine, that the Peace and Prosperity we have for so many Years enjoy'd, under the Influences of a Government so wisely established on the manly Principles of Liberty, hath obliterated the Memory of that Oppression and Tyranny, those Nations formerly groaned under; or that the Possession of such inestimable Blessings are proper Means for preparing the Minds of a free People again to submit to the Yoke of Slavery and arbitrary Power.

As no Satisfaction could remain in Life after surviving the Liberties and burying the Laws of our Country, the hazarding our Lives, and those small

