Aldermen and Council of the Corporation [of Lancaster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

 $\mathbf{W}^{ ext{E}}$ your Majefty's moft dutiful and loyal W E your Majerty's more during and courses Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Alder-men and Council of your Majefty's ancient Corporation of Lancafter, in Common Council affembled, having heard that Preparations are making abroad, by the common Diffurber of the Peace and Repole of all Europe, to invade this Kingdom in Favour of a Popish Pretender to your Majefty's Throne, thereby endeavouring to deprive us of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, which we happily enjoy under your Majefty's mild and gracious Government and Pro tection, beg Leave to affure your Majefty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, and with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, support, maintain and defend your Majefty's lacred Perfon and Government, and the Protestant Succession to the Crown in your Majesty's Royal House, as well against the un-natural Attempts of any Faction at home, as your Majefty's Enemies abroad ; and may your Majefty's Reign be prosperous and happy, as we hope it will be long over us.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the faid Corporation to be affixed hereto, this fecond Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1743.

The following Address from the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Common Council and Burgeffes of the Corporation of Denbigh, has been prefented to his Majesty by John Wynn, Esq, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans: Which Address his Majesty was plaased to receive very gracioufly.

An humble Address from the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Common Council and Burgeffes of the Corporation of Denbigh.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Aldermen, Bailiffs, Common Coun cil and Burgefles of the Corporation of Denbigh, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Prefence with our warmeft and most dutiful Assurances, in this critical Conjuncture.

Your Majefty's just and gentle Reign ought naturally to excite in us, all that Loyalty and Gratitude, which is the due Return of free and happy Subjects to the most indulgent and beft of Princes.

But when, contrary to the Faith of Treaties, a Foreign Power shall threaten to invade this Kingdom, and shall even presume publickly to fupport an odious, exploded and infolent Claim to your Majefty's Crown and Title; What Words can be equal to our just Indignation and Abhorrence, or what Sacrifice can be too large for the Defence of your facred Right, and for the Prefervation of our Religion and Laws, and of all that is most dear and valuable to us.

If any lurking inveterate bad Hearts at Home, have invited and encouraged the known Eneny of our Quiet, and of the Liberties of Europe, to undertake this rafh and de'perate Enterprize, we trust that the Legislature will continue to exeit itfelf, in such a Manner of putting Strength and Power into your Majefty's Hands, and that fo good a Sphit will alife in this Nation, as may teach thole, who mean to difturb us, that your Majesty's Throne can never be shaken, while it is thus firmly founded on the Valour, Wealth, and Affection of a generous and great People.

Accept, Diead Sir, our fervent Wifhes for the Peace, Glory and Length of your Reign. Given under our Corporation Seal, the Ninth Day of March, 1743-4.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Haverford West, has been prefented to his Majefty by George Barlow, Esq; their Representative in Parliament. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St, Albans: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very gracioufly.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Haverford Weft.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful ard loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of your Town and County of your Town of Haverford Weft, affembled in our Council Chamber, being alarmed at the intended Invation of these Kingdoms, beg Leave to prefent your Majefty with our just Refentments of it, and with our inviolable Attachment to your facred Perfon and Government.

That the common Difturber of the Tranquility of Europe, check'd always in his ambi-tious Defigns by your Majefty's Wildom and Prowefs, and of late most shamefully defeated, should endeavour to wreak his Revenge on your Majesty's Dominions, is not to much to be wondred at; but that any who have the Happinels of being Inhabitants of these Islands, thould join with him in Favour of a Popifh Pretender, or in any Defign whatever, to difturb your Reign, is what fills us with Surprize and the highest Indignation. We are willing to hope, that this Perfidy and Infatuation of our Fellow Subjects is but of fmall Extent, and that the concurrent Voice of the Nation, at this Juncture, will give your Majesty the strong-est Assurance of British Fidelity in general.

As for ourfelves, we do folemnly declare that we are truly fenfible of the invaluable Bleffings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, that no Confideration whatfoever shall work us into a Thought of Disaffection; that we will to our utmost support your Majesty against all foreign and dome flick Enemies; and inceffantly \mathbf{B} pray
