

Representatives in Parliament, the Lord Duplin, Sir Jacob Bouverie, Bart. and others, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Pembroke, Groom of the Stole to his Majesty and Lord Lieutenant of the said County. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury in and for the Body of the County of Wilts, at the Assizes held at New Sarum, the Fifth Day of March 1743.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, being truly sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, by the full Possession of all our Religious and Civil Rights and Liberties which are in the most effectual Manner secured to this Kingdom by the present Settlement in your Majesty's illustrious House, do beg Leave to express our highest Detestation and Abhorrence of the late insolent Attempts of the French in Favour of a Popish Pretender, to disturb your Majesty's happy Reign over us; and to give you the strongest Assurances of our most sincere Attachment and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government; and that we will, upon all Occasions, devote our Lives and Fortunes to the Support thereof.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Free Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex, has been presented to his Majesty by Samuel Savill and Charles Gray, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by Sir Edward Smith, and others, who were introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Free Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to express our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence, at the Insult of a neighbouring Power, who greatly mistaking the Sense which the British People have of their Happiness under your auspicious Government, would have imposed upon them a popish Pretender under the Vassalage of France.

Our most faithful Endeavours shall never be wanting to frustrate all such wicked Attempts, as far as shall be in our Power; and our most ardent Wishes shall ever be, That these Kingdoms may continue bless'd with the Enjoyment of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, under the happy Reigns of your Majesty and your illustrious Family.

The following Address of the Mayor, Principal Burgesses, and Assistants of the Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Pitt and George Lyttelton, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, who were introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, principal Burgesses, and Assistants of the Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, principal Burgesses, and Assistants of the Borough of Okehampton, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, in order to express the great Abhorrence we conceive, at the daring and perfidious Designs of a certain Foreign Nation.

That any People should be so infatuated as to imagine to have it in their Power to deprive your Majesty of the Royal Diadem, and your Subjects of all their Privileges, in Church and State, by setting over us a popish Pretender, must of Necessity be imagin'd an Instance of false Policy, not only in this, but in all succeeding Ages.

We therefore, among your other faithful Subjects, do, in the most sincere Manner, assure your Majesty of our best Assistance, not only in frustrating this wicked Design, but even all others that shall be attempted against your Royal Person, Crown, or Dignity.

May your Majesty live long in the Hearts of your Subjects; and may there never be wanting a Branch of your Royal Family to emulate your Virtues, and inherit your Crown.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of Okehampton aforesaid, the Twelfth Day of March, in the seventeenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Queenborough, in the County of Kent, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Newnham, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, (Richard Evans, Esq; their other Representative, being sick) who was introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Rochford: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To