To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, in Council affembled.

Most gracious Sovereign, THE most dutiful and loyal of your Majeity's Subjects, do not refent that infolent Attempt to invade your Majefty's Kingdoms, and to fet over us a popish, abjur'd Pretender, with greater Detettation and Abhorrence, than the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of this your Corporation.

As those ineftimable Bleffings of civil and religious Rights have, throughout the whole Series of your aufpicious Reign, been inviolably preferved to us; we humbly prefume to affure your Majefty, that our Attention and Endeavours fhall never be wanting to difappoint and defeat every Attempt which shall be made to subvert or difturb your Majefty's Government.

And we can never doubt, but that the fame ancient Virtue of the English Nation, which exerted itself and shone out in its full Lustre in that glorious Work of the late happy Revolution, in Opposition to Popery and arbitrary Power, does still, and will for ever exist to support and defend your Majesty, and your undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of these Realms, and the Protestant Succession in your Royal House, in Defiance of the Pretender and his Adherents, and all other your Majefty's Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall in the Borough aforefaid, this 10th Day of March, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, has been presented to his Majefty by John Selwyn, Efq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introdu-ced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very gracioufly.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

THE undoubted Intelligence .your Majefty has received of an intended Invation of thefe your Kingdoms, in Favour of a popifh Pretender, to be supported by a French Power, and encouraged by difaffected Perfons at home, affects us with the deepest Concern, and with Abhorrence and Detestation of the vile Indignity offered hereby to your Majesty.

We are fenfible, that, under your Majefty's most just and auspicious Government, we enjoy greater national Bleffings than the Subjects of any other Kingdom: We acknowledge ourfelves therefore bound in Duty and Gratitude to your Majefty, in Regard to our own true Intereft, and in Justice to our Posterity, to support, maintain, and defend your Majesty's facred Per-fon and Government, at the Hazard even of our All; and beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majefty, that with the fincerest Zeal, Fidelity and Loyalty, we will exert all the Power we have in the Discharge of this our Duty, and in oppofing the Efforts and Attempts of all your Enemies.

We cannot but with fome Degree of Satisfac# tion look upon it as an Earnest of further and future Protection of your Majesty's facred Perfon and Government, that that Divine Providence, who has preferved our Religion and Liberties from the like former Attempts; who fo wonderfully protected your Majefty in the midft of the thickest Dangers, to which for the common Good you lately to glorioufly exposed your Royal Person; and at the fame Time gave for great Success to your Majesty's Arms against the treacherous Enemy and Diffurber of Europe, has begun already to make those haughty audacious Invaders feel the Effects of his Displeasure in their very first Attempt to execute this their infolent Defign, whereby they and all their Adherents here may fee that it is the Will of Heaven that your Majefty shall reign over us; that the Defence of our Faith shall not be entrusteft with a Romish Bigot; and may know, that therefore all their Oppofition to the Divine Purpofes must be as vain in the End, as it is implous and wicked in the Intention.

Not only our Duty to your Majesty, but our own Interest also engage us earnestly to pray, that your Majefty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous; and, for the Sake of our Posterity, that the Government of these Kingdoms may remain in your Royal Family to the End of Time.

To this our most humble Address, we have caufed our City Seal to be affixed this 13th Day of March 1743.

The following Address of the Grand Jury, affembled at the Affizes held for the City and County of the City of Exeter, has been prefented to his Majefty by Humphry Sydenham, Efq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford: Which Address his Majesty was pleafed to receive very gracioufly.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Grand Jury, affembled at the Affizes held for the City and County of the City of Exeter, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majefty on the timely Difcovery, and, we hope, effectual Difappointment of an intended Invation of your Majefty's Dominions in Favour of a Popifh Pretender; a Defign equally injurious to your Majesty and the Nation; to your Majesty, as it was calculated to dethrone the beft
