

Roermunde, April 17. This Day two Squadrons of the Hanoverian Regiment of Life-Guards passed the Maeze at this Place, in their Way to Flanders, and will be immediately followed by two other Squadrons of Schées Regiment.

Amsterdam, April 21. Mess. Tralman, Schryer, and Rynst, are promoted to the three vacant Flags belonging to the Department of the College of Admiralty of this Place.

Hague, April 21, N. S. In Consequence of Mr. Trevor's Memorial of the 14th Instant, four Provinces have already consented to grant a Succour of twenty Men of War to his Britannick Majesty, in pursuance of the Treaties; and the final Conclusion of that Affair is only postponed for a Day or two, in Expectation of the Consent of the remaining Provinces. Count Nassau, Commander in Chief of the Dutch Forces in the Netherlands, set out Yesterday upon his Journey thither. M. Fenelon, the French Minister, is hourly expected here. By Letters from Dunkirk, of the 14th Instant, we have Advice, that the Embargo having been taken off there upon the Sunday Morning before, the Vessels of all Nations were released, except those belonging to the English.

Admiralty Office, April 14.

His Majesty's Ship the Fox, being upon a Cruize on the Coast of Portugal, fell in, on the 14th of last Month, about 20 Leagues to the Westward of the Burlings, with the famous Privateer Schooner belonging to Bayonne, which is said to out-sail every Privateer in Galicia, and, after a Chace of five Hours, took her. She mounted six Carriage Guns, six large Brass Swivel Guns of three Pounders, and 12 Iron Pattereroes, and carried 80 Men.

His Majesty's Ship the Saphire, commanded by Captain Saunders, took off of Ostend, on the 7th Instant, a Galliot Hoy from Dantzick, bound to Dunkirk, having on board 193 Officers and Soldiers, and about 60 Arms, for the Service of the French King. The Officers and Men were raised for the Service of Count Lowendahl's Regiment at Dunkirk.
