St. James's, May 5.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, and others, of the County of Roscommon, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, and others, at the Assizes held for the County of Roscommon, the Twenty-ninth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and forty four.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects have too lively a Sense of the Happiness we enjoy in our Religion and Liberties, under your mild and auspicious Reign, not to be affected with a just Resentment at the insolent Attempt, intended by your Enemies, to invade these Kingdoms, encouraged by a popish and disaffected Party therein.

Permit us, Gracious Sovereign, on this first Occasion of our Meeting, to testify our Abhorrence of the same; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, support your undoubted Title to these Realms, which you have so justly merited, and we hope will ever continue in your August House.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Knight of the Shire, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Clare, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Knight of the Shire, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Clare, assembled at a General Quarter Sessions held at Ennis, the Third Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty four.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, think ourselves bound, in Duty and Gratitude, to give at this Time the strongest Assurance of our unshaken Loyalty and unalterable Attachment to your sacred Person and Government.

We reflect with Pleasure on the Prospect we have of being freed from any Apprehensions which may arise from the restless and ambitious Schemes of France, or the wild Attempts of a popish Pretender, which we attribute to your Majesty's constant Vigilance for the Welfare and Security of your People, and to that Providence which has ever made your Majesty its peculiar Care.

Our Happiness is so compleat in the Enjoyment of our religious and civil Rights, under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, that we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, maintain and defend your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Crown of these Realms, and the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House, against all Attempts which your Majesty's secret or open Enemies may form to deprive us of these inestimable Blessings: And we farther beg Leave to express our Joy at perceiving that your Majesty is universally supported by the Unanimity and Affections of your Subjects; and your Majesty's paternal Care of your People, leaves us no Room to doubt of the Continuance of their Union and Fidelity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgessees and Commonalty of the Corporation of Carrickfergus, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgessees and Commonalty

monalty of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Carrickfergus.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, being highly sensible of the many valuable Privileges granted to us by your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, and our happy Enjoyment of them under your Majesty's most gracious Protection, do think it our indispensable Duty to declare, at this Time, our unfeigned Sense of these inestimable Blessings; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, with that Zeal, Loyalty, and Affection, which are justly due to you, as the best of Kings, support and defend your Majesty's Person and Government, against the Pretender, and all those who would insolently endeavour to place him on that Throne, to which your Majesty, and your illustrious Family, have the undoubted Right.

It is an Honour peculiar to this Town, that our great Deliverer King William the Third, of glorious Memory, chose to make it his first Place of Landing, from a Confidence, as we presume, of the approved Loyalty of this Corporation in former Reigns; and we can no more forbear to mention the happy Foundation he laid for establishing our Religion, securing our Properties, and defending our Liberties, than to acknowledge, with the utmost Gratitude, that that great Work, so seasonably begun by him, and steadily carried on by your Royal Ancestor, was admirably compleated through your Majesty's constant and unwearied Endeavours.

These are Blessings ever to be remembered, and cannot fail to excite in us the deepest Sense of Duty and Affection to your Majesty; must render our Allegiance inviolable against all Attacks from Abroad, and procure to us at Home that undisturbed Enjoyment of our Religion, Liberties, and Fortunes, which have always been the chief Concern of your Royal Breast.

That your Majesty may have a long and prosperous Reign, and that we may never want one of your Royal Issue to inherit the British Crown, which, honour'd with your Majesty, gives Terror to your Enemies Abroad, and Peace and Tranquility to your Subjects at Home, is and shall always be our fervent and earnest Prayers. In Testimony whereof, we have affixed our Common Seal of the said Corporation the Second Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty-four.

The following Address of the Mayor, Justices, Aldermen, Grand Jury, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowy, has been presented to his Majesty by Jonathan Raffleigh and William Wardour, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Justices, Aldermen, Grand Jury, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowy in the County of Cornwall, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held in and for the same.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, at a Time when your most sacred Person, and undoubted Right to your Kingdoms, are threatned with an Invasion by the French King, in Favour of a popish Pretender, think it our Duty, with the greatest Zeal and Affection, to assure your Majesty of our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of such an insolent and daring Attempt.

As we are fully convinced, that, by the Lenity of your Royal Administration, our Religion, Laws and Liberty have, according to our Constitution, been most religiously supported; so, on our Part, we beg Leave to declare, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, defend your Royal Person, and the Succession of your most illustrious House to these your Majesty's Kingdoms, against all Attempts whatsoever.

That your Majesty's Reign over us may be long, and attended with all the Blessings of Heaven, and that you may at all Times be able to conquer the Ambition of your Enemies, are the sincere Prayers of,

Your Majesty's most Dutiful
and Loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal of the said Borough, the 3d Day of April 1744.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Radnor, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Humphrey Howarth, Knight, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Radnorshire.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Gentlemen, at the Great Sessions for the County of Radnor, on Thursday the Fifth Day of April 1744.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy and Gentlemen, having now the Opportunity, which we have impatiently waited for of meeting together at the Great Sessions for this County, do, with the utmost Chearfulness and Unanimity, Unanimity, lay hold of it, to approach your sacred Majesty, with this repeated Testimony of our steady Zeal and invariable Affection towards your Majesty's Royal Person and Family; under a perpetual Succession of which, we have the justest Foundation to expect, that those Blessings which we enjoy in the Security of our Religion, Liberties and Properties, will be continued down to the latest Posterity.

And therefore it was with the utmost Resentment and Indignation that we looked upon the late insolent Behaviour of our French perfidious Neighbours, in threatening your Majesty's Dominions with an Invasion, in order to load these free Nations again with Tyranny and Superstition.

But the Providence of the Almighty, the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Loyalty of all our Fellow Subjects, has, without Doubt, by this Time sufficiently convinced them of the Vanity and Rashness of their Undertaking.

And had it pleased God that, together with the rest of your faithful Subjects, we of these your ancient Dominions had been called forth to sacrifice our Lives as well as Fortunes in the just Defence of our King and Country, we should endeavour to behave as in no wise degenerating from our valiant Ancestors.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, loyal and united People; and that God may prosper your Majesty's Arms, in the Support of your Majesty's unquestionable Right to the Crown of these Realms, the Protection of your faithful Subjects, and the Chastisement of your faithless Enemies, is and shall be the constant Prayer of,

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful
and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Burrough of New Radnor, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Lewis, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Burrough of New Radnor, 2 in the County of Radnor. 3

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Burrough of New Radnor.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being fully sensible how much the Security of our Religion, Laws and Liberties depend upon our having a Protestant Prince upon the Throne, and to the Succession of these Realms, cannot delay joining with the rest of your faithful Subjects, in shewing our utmost

Ab horrence of the Project of invading your Dominions, in Favour of a popish Pretender.

We congratulate, with Hearts full of Joy, your Majesty upon the early Discovery of the Perfidy of France, in attempting (in a Time of Peace) an Invasion upon this Country; and likewise upon the Success your Majesty has already met with, in rendering that Design abortive.

We are highly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty, and humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, upon this and every other Occasion, support your Majesty and the Succession in your Royal Family, at the Expence of all that is dear and valuable to us. We are, and always shall be,
Your Majesty's most Loyal and Faithful Subjects.

The following Address of the Provost, Bailies and Council of the Town of Stirling, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. James Erskine, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Bailies and Council of the Town of Stirling, representing the Community of the same.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN these Times of Trouble and Danger, whilst an Invasion has been so lately threatned by France, in Favour of a popish Pretender, and a War is now so justly declared against that Crown, permit us to join with your other dutiful and loyal Subjects, in testifying our Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, and for the Establishment of the Crown of these Realms in your august House; an Establishment, upon which every true Briton is convinced that the Happiness of this Country depends, and the Preservation of its Liberties, both Civil and Ecclesiastical.

In the Reign of your Royal Father, when an unnatural Rebellion was raised in this Island, the Town of Stirling shewed itself actively loyal, sincerely and thoroughly attached to the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's illustrious House; now when there is a second Attempt to unhinge this happy Establishment, but under this additional Disadvantage, that the Attempt is made by our inveterate Enemies, whose Interest is our Destruction, we must reckon ourselves doubly obliged to adhere, in the strictest Manner, to that Duty we owe our King and Country.

Tho' your Majesty's Town of Stirling must yield to many within your Dominions, in Wealth and Number of Inhabitants, there is none more considerable in Point of Situation, seeing it commands that important Pass, which makes the Communication betwixt the High and Lowlands of Scotland.

Permit us then to assure your Majesty of our thorough Submission to your Royal Will, and to the established Laws of this Kingdom in Times of Peace; of our utmost Activity in Time of War for your Majesty's Service, and of our thorough Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government in both.

And permit us further to say, that the Satisfaction we have in our Situation, results intirely from a Prospect of being in some Measure useful to your Majesty and our Country, in Times of Trouble and intestine Commotions.

That your Majesty may long Reign over us for the Good of these Realms; that your Arms by Sea and Land may be blessed with prosperous Success; and that the Inhabitants of these Islands may remain a free and happy People to latest Ages, under your Majesty and Royal Progeny, is the wish of every true Briton, and is the daily Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of your Town of Stirling.

By Order of the Council,

William Chrystie, Provost.

Stockholm, April 20. On Wednesday last was burnt, by the Hands of the Common Hangman, in the Chief Market Place of this City, a French Paper, entitled, The Secret Instructions of the English Court for her Minister here. This Writing, which is full of the most infamous Falshoods, and was maliciously contrived with the sole View of setting at Variance several Powers now in Friendship and Alliance with each other, was found among the Papers of a certain Clerk of the Secretary's Office, called Rydelius, who was arrested last Year by Order of the States for having carried on some secret Intrigues. Upon his Examination he confessed that a Merchant of this City, called Thomas Plumgreen, gave him this Writing to translate into Swedish, with an Intention to publish it. The Merchant, who could not contradict that Fact, has nevertheless denied upon Oath his being the Author of the Piece in Question, which is judged by every Body to be one of the Productions of that Party, which has been so long employ'd in throwing the Affairs, not only of the North, but of all Europe into Confusion.

Brussels, May 2, N. S. Frequent Councils of War are held here by the British, Hanoverian, Dutch and Austrian Generals. Prince Charles has fixed his Departure for the Army upon the Rhine to the 7th Instant. Three Persons were killed in scrambling for the Money that was thrown out at the Inauguration of their Highnesses the Archdutchess and the Prince at Ghent. The Town of Alost presented their Highnesses with 50 Pieces of Holland, of one Ducat an Ell, in their Passage thither. The lower Part of this Town has lain four Days under Water, by the Fall of Waters from Hainault, which still cover all the Fields on both Sides of the Canal.

Brussels, May 9, N. S. The excessive Rains which have lately fallen, have hitherto hindred the French from taking the Field. Prince Charles set out for the Army upon the Rhine early in the Morning on the 7th, N. S.

Ruremond, May 5, N. S. On the 1st Instant, the last Division of the Hanoverian Troops, consisting of one Battalion of the Regiment of Soubiron, passed the Maese here in their Way to Flanders; and all the Troops of that Electorate are by this Time arrived at their Rendezvous in the Austrian Netherlands.

Liege, May 5. The Marquess de Fenelon arrived here the first of this Month at Night: He and his Lady dined with the Bishop the next Day, and on the 2d they set out for France. He gave out that the Government of the Austrian Netherlands had refused him a Pass, which obliged him to come this Way. On the 2d Instant the Bishop of Liege declared that he would set out for Franckfort in two or three Days, and he is accordingly gone this Morning: He has declared that he will return in 16 Days, and in the mean Time, the Direction of Affairs here is lodged in the Hands of the Grand Provost, the Chancellor Briedbach, M. de la Naye, and two or three more.

Leige, May 8. A Detachment of Rougrave's Regiment of Hussars, who came as far as Dinant to escorte M. de Fenelon, has demolished one of the Queen of Hungary's Toll-Houses, on the Territory of Luxembourg, almost opposite to Namur; and the Officers of another, belonging to the Queen, called Navagne, have thereupon received Orders to retire to Maestricht.

Hague, May 12. The Province of Holland proposed Yesterday, as her unanimous Advice to the States General, the Necessity of the Republick's hiring or raising 12000 Men more; and this Proposition is put into the usual Method of proceeding here. Holland has also proposed a Plan and Petition for assembling in a Body the 20000 Men that are put into a marching Condition, and it is not doubted but the same will soon take Effect. The Post from Flanders, instead of bringing us To-day News of any Operations in that Neighbourhood, mentions the French having sent back the Effects, Money and Hostages, which their Hussars had carried off from a Village near Chimay. The Account of the French having marched to besiege Mentz, appears to have been without Foundation.

Hague, May 12, N. S. Last Saturday a Scotch Vessel coming from Montrois to Rotterdam, laden with Malt, was taken off of the Meuse by a Dunkirker, who thought fit to bring her up into that City. Their Arrival was no sooner known in the Town, but the People assembled by Multitudes about the Ship, and would have driven the Frenchmen out of her, if they had not cut their Hawfers, and laid her out of Reach in the middle of the Canal. The French French Agent, and the Commander of the Privateer, coming at the same Time from the Agent's House, were so rudely received by the People, that they were both obliged to take Refuge in a neighbouring Church, where they were kept besieged, and would have been dislodged, if the Bailiff had not sent his Officers to rescue them. The Mob followed them where-ever they went, even to the Presiding Burgermaster's House, till Midnight; and next Morning early the Prize was sent down to the Brille again with the Bailiff's Officers on board.

Naples, April 14, N. S. The King, (on Notice that the Austrian Army under Prince Lobkowitz did not shew any immediate Design to invade this Kingdom) not to give his Troops the unnecessary Fatigues of a March in the present unseasonable Weather, and over the difficult Passages of the Mountains of Abruzzo, ordered them to halt, and on the 11th Instant determined to return to Venafro, with a Design, after having left a Body of Troops at the River Tronto, to watch the Motions of the Austrians that are between Acoli and Fermo, to canton his own and the Spanish Troops between that Place, Alvito, and Sora. In Consequence whereof, Orders have been sent to the Battalions of Hainaut, and those of Salerno and Molice, Militia, who were on their March from Capoa to the Army, to stop on the Road, and Directions have been sent to a Commissary at Naples to repair immediately to St. Germano, and to make the necessary Dispositions on the Confines of Ceprano, in Case it should be necessary for the Troops to proceed thither. The French Ambassador has constantly followed the King. Many Mules are lately arrived at Naples from M. de Gages's Army, to conduct to Ceprano 14 Cannon, and four covered Waggons, escorted by the Body of Gunners. The Duke of Barretta, Agent Victualler of the Spanish Army, is to send to Sora, Arpino, &c. 12600 Tomolos of Corn, and 19900 Tomolos of Oats, for the Service of the said Army. Two English Merchant Ships are lately arrived at Naples with a Cargo of Corn for that City. On the 13th a long Consultation was held by the Committee of Health, at which 18 Physicians were present, to examine the Nature of the Sickness at Reggio, &c. in Calabria; and though only two Persons have died thereof for many Days past, yet it has been determined to suspend for the present the perfuming and purifying that City and Villages. The Province of Calabria has lately been terrified with an Earthquake.

Florence, April 21. In the last Week two hundred Hussars advanced, by the Way of Tivoli, as far as Agnani and Frognone, with a Design to surprize the Magazines that were there, composed of the Effects that were formerly moved from Civita Castellana; but the Spaniards having got Notice of this Design, transported great Part of the Effects into the Fortresses of the Kingdom of Naples, so that the Hussars only seized 2000 Bomb Shells and some Cannon Balls, with which they were obliged to retire, on the Arrival of a large Detachment which the King of Naples had sent thither. A Report likewise prevailed that he was soon to follow in Person: On the 13th Instant General Novati passed by Bologna to Turin, with Commissions from Prince Lobkowitz to the King of Sardinia. Prince Lobkowitz continues at his Head Quarters at Macerata. A Detachment of about 300 Hussars has been ordered lately to Corese, between Monte Rotundo and Farfa; and many Waggons, with Sick and Baggage, have been removed back to Pesaro. Besides the 300 Sardinian Dragoons, who lately marched from Placentia towards the Duchy of Savoy, Orders have been sent from Turin to draw a Number of Men out of each Company of Sardinian Troops in Garrison in the different Fortresses in Lombardy, to form a Body of 2000 Men, to be sent immediately into Savoy.

Brussels, May 13. The Weather has proved so unfavourable to the Enterprizes of the French, that they have not yet been able to encamp; and the Roads are still impassable for the heavy Baggage and Artillery. We hear from the Frontiers, that the French Garrison at Maubeuge had marched out of that Place: The 11th and 12th Instant the French Troops marched towards Bouchain, St. Amand, and Valenciennes, in three Columns, and are to be reviewed the 14th Instant. The said Troops have received their Ammunition; and a great Number of Pioneers are ordered to assemble at Bouchain: The first Division of the Hanoverians marched Yesterday to the Camp at Anderlecht: The second goes To-day, and the third To-morrow: The first Division of the British Troops marches To-day to the same Place. The second To-morrow; and the Troops, which are in Brussels, will remain till the first Movement of this Camp, which lies about a League West of this Place.

THREE Days after the general Assault made by the French and Spaniards upon our Intrenchments at Montalban, the Count de la Rocca, who commanded a Body of nine Battalions at Castiglione, not having been able to open a Communication, General Sirzan thought fit to put Garrisons into Montalban and the Cittadel of Villafranca, and to embark all the Ammunition, Provisions and Artillery, and 4500 Men, for Oniglia, for which Place he likewise ordered 16 Battalions to march in order to oppose the Passage of the Enemies on that Side, and a Camp has been formed out of them at Savorgio beyond the Col de Tende.

The Attack upon our Intrenchments began the 19th at Midnight. The Allies, conducted by a Piemontese Deserter thro' broken Ways, surprized the General's Quarter, and seized the Marquis de Suze, as he was writing in his Tent: They were however driven from thence, and from the other Intrenchments. They lost the Lieutenant General Marquis de Monlevrier, the Brigadier General Marquis de Maillebois, the

Major

Major General Marquis d'Ada, and 112 other Officers, who were found dead in the Trenches; 48 Officers wounded, besides the General Marquis de las Minas, and M. de Castillar; 44 Officers taken Prisoners; 5500 Soldiers killed, 900 wounded, and 540 taken Prisoners.

Of the Piemontese were killed, the Chevalier Faletti, Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment d'Aosta, the Chevalier d'Aix, and 34 other Officers: His Highness the Marquis de Suze taken Prisoner, with the Colonels Sesto and Keller; 1200 Soldiers killed, and 420 made Prisoners.

It is written from the Austrian Army in the Romagna, that all the Dispositions were making there for a March, which it was thought was intended for the Kingdom of Naples, by the Order which had been given for 2500 Croats from Mantua to join the Army, as likewise some Battalions of Sprenger, Vasquez, and Marcelli, who had been before appointed to assemble at Parma.

Turin, May 4. The General Count de Sinfan having held a Council of War on the 21st past, wherein it was agreed to abandon the Intrenchments of Villafranca, and to embark the Troops immediately, that Resolution was put in Execution the same Evening, when a Garrison of 340 Men was put into the Citadel of Villafranca; and one of 60 Men into that of Montalban, with all Manner of Provisions and Military Stores for their Defence: All the Artillery upon the Batteries, which could not be carried off, was nail'd up, the Carriages burnt and ruined, and the Magazines of Provisions and Ammunition taken on board; as also our sick and wounded; and the French and Spanish Prisoners, as well Officers as Soldiers, amounting to upwards of 500 Men. Since that we hear from Oneglia that all his Sardinian Majesty's Troops were safely landed, after a very tedious and stormy Navigation, on the 29th past, at Port Maurice, a Place in that Neighbourhood belonging to the Republick of Genoa, having been convoyed thither by some English Men of War. The French and Spaniards had compelled 2000 Peasants to work at making the Roads fit for the Carriage of Cannon, and it was thought their Intention was to penetrate into Piemont by Ceva, not daring to attempt it by the Riviere, whilst his Britannick Majesty's Squadron continued upon that Coast; and it is even very much doubted, whether they are in a Condition to undertake any Thing at all, without some Reinforcement, having lost 6000 Men in the late Action, and full 12000 since they passed the Var. By Letters from Prince Lobkowitz's Army, we are informed, that they were preparing to march for the Kingdom of Naples, by the Campagna of Rome, and were to move forward between the 5th and 8th Instant.

Errata. In the Introduction to the Address from the Borough and Town of Wigan, inserted in last Tuesday's Gazette, for Sir Richard Bradshaigh, read Sir Roger Bradshaigh.

And the 4th and 5th Lines of the first Column of the third Page of the same Gazette, for passed the Rhine at Germersheim, read passed the Queich at Germerheim.

Admiralty-Office, April 30, 1744.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them, on the 31st Day of May next: This is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of next Month, the Affidavit required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

London, April 27, 1744.

By the Commissioners for distributing the Moiety of the Prizes taken from the Spaniards.

Notice is hereby given to the several Agents for the Captors of all Prizes taken on or between the 10th Day of July 1739, and the 19th Day of October following, by any Ships of War, from the King of Spain or his Subjects, or others inhabiting within any the Territories of the King of Spain; and to all other Persons whom it may concern; That, pursuant to his Majesty's Command, by his Commission bearing Date the 4th Day of February 1743, they are hereby required forthwith to bring or transmit to the said Commissioners, at their Office in Aldermary Church Yard in Bow-lane, a particular and authentick Account of all such Prizes, setting forth their Value according to the Sales made, the sundry Charges attending their Condemnation and Sale, together with the neat Produce of such Prizes; and also an Account of what Part of the said Prizes (if any) is still remaining unsold; and likewise immediately to pay to the said Commissioners the full Moiety of their respective Accounts: And hereof they are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril.

By Order of the Commissioners,
Jo. Sedgwick.

Whitehall, April 28, 1744.

It having been represented to His Majesty, That Edmond Lambert, Esq; of Boyton, in the County of Wilts, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, did, on the 22d Instant, receive an anonymous Letter, Threatening, That in Case he continued busy in the Execution of his said Office, his House and Barns should be burnt to Ashes within Four Days: For the better discovering the Persons concern'd in writing the said Letter, His Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, that shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Edmond Lambert does offer a Reward of Twenty Guineas, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Ed. Lambert.

The Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, do hereby give Notice, that they will begin to pay the Widows Pensions on Wednesday in the Whitfun Week, from Ten of the Clock to One, at the Corporation House in Salisbury Court Fleet-street; and to continue to pay on Thursday and Friday in the same Week, and on the four following Wednesdays, at the same Place, and during the same Hours; and afterwards on the first Wednesday in every Month till Michaelmas, at Mr. Giles Vincent, Treasurer, at his House in Lime-street, during the same Hours.

Ste. Comyn, Register.

This is to give Notice, that the next general Meeting of the Corporation of the Governors and Guardians of the Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted young Children, appointed by his Majesty's Royal Charter, will be held on Wednesday the 9th Day of May 1744. being the Second Wednesday in May, and the Annual General Meeting of the said Corporation, for electing, by Ballot, a President, six Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, the General Committee, and a Secretary, for the Year ensuing, at their House in Hatton Garden, at Eleven in the Forenoon, when all the said Governors and Guardians are desired to be present: Of which Meeting, this Notice is given, pursuant to the Directions of the Act of Parliament.

Harman Verelst, Sec.
