St. James's, May 12.

HE following Address of the Mayor, Town Clerk, and Common Council of the Burrough of Bodmyn, in the County of Cornwall, and also of the Clergy and other Principal Inhabitants of the faid Burrough, has been prefented to his Majefty by John Laroche, Elq; one of their Reprefentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulet, one of the Lords of his Majefty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majefty was pleased to receive very gracioully.

The humble' Address of the Mayor, Town Clerk, and Common Council of the Burrough of Bodmyn, in the County of Cornwall, and also of the Clergy and other Principal Inhabitants of the faid Burrough.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

WE your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, amidst the general Addresses of your faithful People, beg Leave, with all Humility, to express our Abhorrence and Deteftation of the Designs forming to involve these Nations in the Calamities of an unnatural War, in order to root out the Protestant Religion, and subject us to the Revenge and Tyranny of a popular Pretender.

When we reflect on your Majeffy's paternal Care of your People, and the many Bleffings we enjoy under your Majeffy's aufpicious Conduct, Gratitude, as well as Intereff, infpires us with Sentiments of Duty and true Loyalty, and with a fincere Zeal for your Majeffy's Service; and we thall at all Times, and upon all Occafions, unite our Endeavours, not only for promoting the Welfare and Happine's of your Majeffy and your illuftrious Family, but alfo in Defence of your undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the faid Burrough, the 1st Day of May 1744.

(Price Four-Pence.)

The following Address of the Mayor, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kellington, has been prefented to his Majesty by the Hon. Charles Horatio Walpole, and Thomas Copleston, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulet, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Walting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majefty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kellington in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN the Electors (Freeholders and Inhabitants) of this ancient Borough prefum'd to approach your Royal Prefence with their humble Addrefs in the Beginning of your Majefty's Reign, they could not but most gratefully acknowledge your Majefty's Goodnefs and Forbearance, in order, if possible, to cultivate the Arts of Peace, for the Prosperity, Riches and Welfare of your Majefty's Great and Trading Kingdom of Great Britain, and Dominions thereunto belonging ; but that if notwithfanding your Royal Endeavours, fuch a defirable Situation could not be obtain'd and preferv'd, confistent with the Security of this Nation and Liberties of Europe, from the refiless and ambitious Views of any Foreign Power whatfoever, and that in Confequence thereof your Majefty's Sword should be obliged to the drawn, they did not doubt (by the Bleffing of God) but that your Majefty's Enemies would dearly and fufficiently experience the Power thereof, and that in fuch Cafe, the Valour of the Hero would correct, where neither his Wifdom nor Moderation could amend.

And we now humbly beg Leave to offer our most fincere and hearty Congratulations on the Verification thereof at the late Battle of Dettingen, where, imaugre the advantageous Situation, as well as Numbers of the Enemy, and terrible terrible Fire from fo many Batteries of Cannon, your Majesty's British, and other auxiliary Troops, animated by your Prefence, and encouraged by your great Example of Firmness and Intrepidity in the Midst of Danger, (always fo confpicuous in your illustrious House) overcame all Difficulties, and which must therefore render fuch a Victory the more Glorious in the Eyes of all Men.

We praife the Almighty for preferving your Majefty in the Day of Battle, as also his Royal Highness the Duke, (and for the Recovery of the Wound he then receiv'd) whole Gallant Behaviour was fo eminently manifested on this important Occafion.

We also prefume to express the Joy of our Hearts on the farther Increase of the Royal Family, by the Birth of another Son to their Royal Highneffes the Prince and Princess of Wales; as well as of the Marriage of the Princess Louisa to the Prince of Denmark, (another Demonstration of your Majefty's constant Care to cement and improve the Protestant Interest in Europe.)

Our Duty, Loyalty and common Intereft, call upon us at this Time, to declare the utmost Abhorrence of the late Perfidy of the French King, and to affure your Majefty of our unshaken Zeal and Attachment to your Royal Perfon and Family; and when we reflect that no Motives could produce fuch rafh Attempts, as the Invation of this Kingdom, and a Declaration of War against your Majesty, but the most infamous, as well as strong Resentment, af the Check which hath been given to ambitious Defigns and Endeavours at universal Monarchy, contrary to the most folemn Trea-ties, from the distinguish'd Valour, good Faith, and Honour of your Majesty, (supported by a Parliament truly British) we must continue to think, and if poffible, to be more and more confirm'd in Opinion, that when-ever our Lives and Fortunes are ready, at all Hazards (as they now most chearfully and truly are) for the Prefervation and Support of your Majefty, it must be at the fame Time for our own. And unworthy fhould we indeed be of the Name of Britons, or of that Fulness of Liberty we rightfully enjoy under your Maje-fty's most auspicious Reign, tamely to submit to a popish Pretender, or his Son, bred up in the Superstition of the Romith Church, with all its Attendants of Cruelty, Perfecution, Want of Charity, and Principles of arbitrary and defpotick Power; and befides this, to have him impos'd upon us by that of France, from whence only he can have a further Dependance or Hopes of Affiftance.

May your Majesty's Reign be long, happy and glorious, over a loyal and free People | And may the British Crown continue in your Royal Family till Time shall be no more ! These are the constant and most ardent Wishes of,

Great Sir,

Your Majefty's most dutiful, and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helfton, has been prefented to his Majefty by Francis Godolphin, Efq; one of their Re-prefentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulet, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleafed to receive very gracioufly.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helfton, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helfton, in the County of Cornwall, beg leave to congratulate your Majefty on the unfuccessful Attempts your Enemies have made to fettle the Son of a Popifh Pretender on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to express our fincerest Joy at that Satisfaction your Majesty must reap in knowing now (what before you had the jufteft Reafon to expect,) how firmly attached to your Ma-jefty's facred Perfon your Subjects are, who know no Language but that of the Heart.

We, with the reft of your Majefty's Subjects, do express the utmost Abhorrence to the faithless Authors of fuch pernicious Enterprifes ; and hope, that the unanimous and hearty Addreffes, which your Majefty has received from fo many of your Subjects, will convince your Enemies, that your Majefty's aufpicious Government is too firmly established to be shaken by their Intentions, or overthrown by their utmost Efforts.

We are not only truly fenfible of the Bleffings we enjoy from your Majefty's Reign in the uninterrupted Prefervation of our Religion and Liberties, which alone are able to support your Royal Throne, but we, as all-Chriftian Subjects ought, pay the greatest Regard to our Oaths of Allegiance, which, whatever Notions our Enemies may have of us, we think of too binding a Nature to be wantonly diffolved.

If our Lives or Fortunes can be any Ways ferviceable to your Majesty's Interest, we are ready to facrifice them in your Defence, who have so long and so faithfully protected us.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto put the common Seal of our Borough, and fubfcribed our Names.

Dated at the Guildhall of the faid Borough, the first Day of May, 1744.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been prefented to his Majefty: Which Address

Address his Majefty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majefty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Juftices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, at a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held at Kilmainham, in and for the faid County, the Fifth Day of April, 1744.

WE your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being justly alarmed by the late daring and perfidious Attempts of the French Nation, in Conjunction with other your Majefty's Enemies, to invade your Majefty's Dominions in Favour of a popish Pretender, and the infolent Declaration of War of the French King, embrace the earlieft Opportunity of our first General Quarter Seffions, held for the faid County, to give your Majesty the strongest Affurances, upon this important Conjuncture, of our firm Attachment to your Royal Perfon and Government.

The great Calamity and Mifery this Kingdom laboured under, during the arbitrary Reign of a late popifh Prince, and from which we were happily delivered by the Great King William, of glorious Memory, under whom was laid the Foundation of that Happines we now enjoy, by establishing your Royal Family on the Throne of these Realms, must not only raise the highest Indignation in the Hearts of your Majesty's Protestant Subjects, against all Persons and Nations, who shall endeavour to overthrow our present happy Constitution in Church and State, but also unite them in Defence of your Majesty's facred Person and Government, under whom we enjoy the most invaluable Bless, our Religion, Liberty and Laws.

And we humbly beg your Majefty's moft gracious Acceptance of our fteady and unanimous Refolution, to fupport and defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majefty's moft facred Perfon, your undoubted Right to the Crown of these Kingdoms, and the Protestant Succession in your Royal Family, against the Pretender, and all other your Majefty's open and fecret Enemies whatfoever.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Burgefles of the City of Londonderry, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majefty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Burgesses of the City of Londonderry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Burgesser of the City of Londonderry, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Arms in the last Campaign, where you exposed your facred Person to fuch imminent Danger, in the Cause of publick Liberty, against that perfidious Nation, who are the common Disturbers of the Peace of Europe

We declare our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the late presumptuous Design of Invading your Majesty's Dominions, in Favour of a popsifh Pretender, encouraged by a disaffected Party at Home, and abetted by a Foreign Power, to whom no Treaties are facred.

Our Ancestors, at the late happy Revolution, defended this City against a popsih Prince, affisted by a numerous French Army: We, animated by so great and glorious an Example, will hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government, who have made the Established Laws the Rule of your Actions, and under whom only we can hope to enjoy our Religious and Civil Rights. We are so fensible of the Happines we en-

We are to fentible of the Happinels we enjoy under your Majefty's Protection and Government, and of the prudent and wife Administration of the Perlon with whom you have entrusted the Affairs of this your Kingdom, that we are allured and convinced, that the united Force of the Protestant Interest in this Part of your Majefty's Kingdom of Ireland, will always be ready to exert itfelf, in its utmoit Vigour, to oppose any Attempt that may be made to invade any Part of your Majefty's Dominions, under any Pretence whatsoever.

Given under our Common Seal the 3d Day of April 1744.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

. My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Cannot put an End to this Seffion, without returning you my hearty Thanks for the many Demonstrations you have given me, during the Course of it, of your good Affections, and of your Zeal for the Support of my Government.

The great Preparations made by France on the Side of the Auftrian Netherlands, must convince all Europe of the ambitious and deftructive Views of that Crown, in beginning the present War. It shall be my Care, in Con-junction with my Allies, to pursue the most proper Measures to disappoint them, and to profecute the War in fuch a Manner, as may be most effectual for procuring a fate and honourable Peace. My good Friends, the States Ge-neral, have already, in purfuance of my Requifition, agreed to furnish the Succours ftipulated by our Treaties; and I have received the ftrongest Affurances of their just Sense, not only of the common Danger, but also of the infeparable Connection of their Interests with .thofe of this Kingdom, which I fhall not fail to improve for the general Good of the common Caufe.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The great Readine's and Regard to the publick Service, which you have fhewn, in granting the Supplies for the current Year, are highly acceptable to me. You may depend upon it, that they shall be ftrictly applied to the Ends for which they were given, and in fuch Manner as may be most for the Honour and Advantage of Great Britain.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Let me earneftly recommend to you, in your feveral Stations, to be vigilant in preferving the Peace and good Order of the Kingdom. I promile myself, you will ferioufly confider, that, in the prefent Conjuncture, you are particularly called upon, by all the Motives of Duty and Intereft, to ftir up and cultivate, in the Minds of my People, an hearty and more than ordinary Zeal for the Maintenance and Defence of our Holy Religion, and excellent Constitution, against the malicious Defigns of our Enemies.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majefty's Command, faid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I'T is his Majefty's Royal Will and Pleafure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Thurfday the 21ft Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurfday the 21ft Day of June next.

Kensington, May 10.

This Day his Majefty, his Royal Highness the Duketh of Cumberland, and their Royal Highness the Princeffes Amelia and Caroline, came from St. James's to refide here.

Whitehall, May 12, 1744.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majefly, That James Phillips, a Boatman in the Service of his Majefly's Cuftoms, in the Port of Cardigan, South Wales, with feveral others his Affifants, did, on the 4th of April laft, board a Smugling Sloop, then lying in Cardigan Bay, of which Sloop William Ownen (late of the Town of Cardigan, Mariner, but now an Inhabitant of the Ifle of Man) was Commander, when the faid William Ownen fired off a Gan, or Musket, at the faid James Phillips, and killed him on the Spot; and feveral Perfons unknown, on board the faid Sloop, difcharged other Guns, whereby John Hughes, late of the Town of Cardigan, Sadler, and another of the Perfons who went to the Affifance of the faid James Phillips, were killed : His Majefly, for the Detter difcovering and bringing to Juftice the Perfons who committed the faid Murders, is pleafed to promife his mof gracious Pardon to any of them, who were on board the faid Owner's Sloop, (recept the Perfons who actually committed the faid Murders, or either of them) who fhall difcover his Accomplice, or Accomplices, fo as be or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any Person or Persons, who shall discover and apprehend the said William Owen, or any other of the Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General and Cashier of his Majesty's Customs, upon Conviction.

London, May 12, 1744.

Whereas it is the Intention and express Meaning of the Act now in Force, for the speedy and effectual recruiting his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, that those Regiments should be the sconer compleated with able-bodied Men, and such, as from their Age, Size and Strength, where fit to serve his Majesty and the Country as Soldiers;

Neverthele's leveral Colonels, and commanding Officers of Regiments, baving represented to the Field-Mar/hal Earl of Stair, Commander in Chief of his Majefy's Forces in South Britain, that the Commiffioners, at some of their Meetings for putting that Act in Execution (mislaking the true Meaning and Intention of it) have infifted on Officers taking Men, that appeared, on account of their Age, Size, and Infirmities, unfit for the Service, particularly at St. Albans, where Colonel Cholmondely, after a strict Infpection and Examination, in which be was attended and affifted by two Surgeons, discharged Siz and thirty Men, turned over by the Commiffioners, being absolutely unfit for the Service; the inlifting such Men being an Evil, that if not immediately flopt, must prove highly detrimental to bis Majesty's Service, my Lord Stair finds it therefore absolutely necessary to order, and does hereby brder the Officers employ'd in Recruiting, to refuse to accept of any Boy that is too weak to carry Arms, or Man turned of Forty Years, unlefs be is strong, active, and other Ways fit for his Majefy's Service. They are likewise to refuse any Preft Man for the Marines that does not measure full Five Foot four Inches high, or upwands.

And whereas the Regiments at Gibraltar, Minorca, the Weft Indies, and also those of Marines, are already near compleated, his Lordship orders, that in such Places where there are no Officers belonging to the Gorps above mentioned, attending the Meetings of the Commissioners, that the Officers of the other Corps employed in Recruiting, or inspecting Recruits, are not, for the future, to receive any Men, but what are Five Foot five Inches high, or upwards, and fit for the Regiments of Foot now in Great Britain.

Whatever extraordinary Expences may arife from fubfifting the Men received, or other Incidents, the Field Officers Officers, in their feveral Diffricts, are (notwithflanding any former Order) to grant Bills on the Agent of the Regiment of Foot or Marines to which they belong, who has Orders to pay the fame.

bas Orders to pay the fame. His Lord/hip not doubting but every Commiffioner for executing the AA now in Force for the fpeedy and effec-tual recruiting his Majefly's Land Forces and Marines, acting with Zeal for the Publick Service, will ca-ope-rate with the Officers employed in Recruiting, in fuch a Manner, that the Corps may be not only fpeedily, but alfo effectually recruited, with Men fit for the Service, according to the true Meaning and Intention of the AA. His Lord/hip alfo gives this tublick Alfurance to the

His Lord/bip alfo gives this publick Affurance to the Commiffioners, that he has ordered all the Officers who were appointed to recruit, and who were as many as could be spared from other Services, to attend their Meetings, as regularly and constantly as the Nature and Circumstances of the Service will at present admit of.

By Command of the Field-Marshal Earl of STAIR, C. Ellifon; Dep. Adj. Gen.
