

Donawert, where having learnt that a Detachment of our Hussars were advancing on the other Side the Danube, they broke down the Bridge, threw their Ammunition, together with some Pieces of Cannon, into the Water, and fled from thence in the Night towards Lavingen. The Bavarians and Hessians, on their Part, marched on the 16th towards Fridberg, but they were so harrassed by the Corps under the said Prince Lobkowitz, that the Bavarians passed the Bridge of the Lech with all Diligence, and set Fire to it after them, retiring towards Augsbourg. But the Hessians separated themselves from them on this Side near Fridberg, and remained on this Side the Lech, declaring themselves Neutral. We found two Pieces of Cannon and one Carriage, which the Enemy had left behind them in their forced Retreat.

Dresden, April 28. We just now hear that the Peace is signed between the Queen of Hungary and the Elector of Bavaria, and that it was published at the Head of that Prince's Army, by the Prince of Saxe Hilburghausen, on M. Thoring's refusing to perform that Ceremony.

Mentz, April 29. The Prince of Conti passed by this Town Yesterday Morning, and dined with the Prince of Nassau at Biberich; but we do not yet learn where his Highness will fix his Head Quarters. In the mean Time it is certain, that the French have summoned the Commissaries and Bailiffs of the Electorate of Treves to meet immediately at Simmeren (situated in the Palatinate, almost equally distant from Mentz, Coblenz and Mont Royal) and demanded 200,000 Rations to be furnished at that Place. The Elector of Bavaria returned to Munich on the 24th, and the Peace was to be proclaimed in both the Armies on the 26th. We just hear, that the French have forced 2000 Peasants out of the Rhinewald, to work with all possible Diligence to fortify the Head of their Bridge at Biberech. The Prince of Conti lay last Night at Wisbaden, and it is given out, that his Head Quarters will be at Swolbach. The French talk openly of passing the Labne, and attacking the Allied Army.

Mentz, May 2. The Prince of Conti has taken his Head Quarters at Swolbach, and, it is said, the French Army will encamp in a Day or two. We have Advice that the French have brought about 20 heavy Cannon, and 20 more of a smaller Calibre, with a proportionable Quantity of Ammunition to Spire, and 'twas given out that this Train would be brought immediately to Worms, where Directions were issued for assembling a great Number of Horses; but those Orders have been since countermanded. General Hagenbach, who commanded in the Castle at Fribourg, passed through this Town two Days ago in his Way to Aix la Chapelle, and reports, that the French upon the Neckar, after having assembled all the Forces they had in the Circle of Swabia, do not amount to 15000 Men. Our Elector has received requisitorial Letters from the Prince of Hesse, for the Passage of his Troops, now upon their Return from Bavaria, who are said not to exceed 4000 Men.

From the Camp at Cambron, May 6. The Allied Army arrived here from Soignies Yesterday, and will march To-morrow to a Camp marked out about a League on this Side Leuse, where the French have these three Days past had an advanced Party. The Reports of Deserters vary about the Progress of the Siege of Tournay; there are four Attacks, but the real one is that at the Gates of the Castle.
