

From the Saxon Head Quarters at Pless, near Jaromitz, June 12, at Night.

The 9th we left our Camp at Slatin, and pushed forward to Schurtz near Konigshoff, and Prince Charles's Army went to Jaromitz.

The Advices we had from the Posts on the Frontiers confirmed those which had informed us the Night before, of the Prussians having entered into that Kingdom by the Way of Trautenau and Braunau.

The 10th we halted at Schurtz, where we were informed by Prussian Deserters, that the Corps commanded by General du Moulin, which consisted of 12,000 Men, was marched from Landshut into Bohemia, and had left the King's main Army near the said Town.

Lieutenant General Count Nadafti sent Word, that the Prussians were on this Side Poliz near the Town of Starchstadt, which is six Miles from this Place, and according to Colonel Wilkzewski's Accounts, those who were in the Neighbourhood of Hirschberg, were retired from thence.

The 11th Prince Charles came in the Morning to our Head Quarters, to discourse with the Duke on what was proper to be done in the present Situation. The two Chiefs agreed at this Interview to alter the Position of the Allied Army, which was this Day executed.

The 12th Instant our Auxiliary Corps having taken the Place of the Right Wing of the Allied Army, which extended to Jaromitz, the Austrian Troops marched on farther to the Right; so that their Camp extends towards Neustadt, the River Metau being in their Front. The two Chiefs are lodged in the same Place.

Dresden, June 16, N. S. The Prussians have demanded 400,000 Florins of the Circle of Koniggratz. The Troops in and near Magdebourg are not encamped.

Mentz, June 17, N. S. The Elector of Mentz's Troops have taken Possession of the Castle of Konigstein, which the French abandon'd on the 15th, but they continue to fortify themselves at Hoecht, and have thrown 1000 Men into the Elector's Palace at Aschaffenburg, where they are taking necessary Measures for defending themselves in Case of an Attack. The Prince of Conti's Head Quarters are at Bobenhausen, much upon the same Ground where the Duke de Noailles lay before the Battle of Dettingen. Velt Marshal Traun passed the Mayn some Days ago in the Neighbourhood of Weltheim and Mittelburg, and is now marching with his Army on the Back of the Spessart, and as Velt Marshal Bathiani has already taken the Command, we hope that the Junction of the two Armies will be made near Gellenthausen.

Berlin, June 19, N. S. By Letters from his Prussian Majesty, dated the 12th of this Month, from the Camp between Friedland and Braunau, there is an Account, that the Prussian advanc'd Guard, under the Command of General du Moulin, was that Day in March directly for Koniggratz, the King being to follow the next Day with the main Body of the Army, with an Intent to attack the Allies again, or to seize upon their Magazins in Case of their Retreating. The Hungarian Insurgents in the mean while continue making Incursions to the very Gates of Schweidnitz.

Hanover, June 22. This Morning at Nine a-Clock her Royal Highness the Princess of Hesse arrived in good Health at Herrenhausen.

Hague, June 25, N. S. On Wednesday last the States received, by an Officer dispatched from Tournay, the News that the Cittadel had capitulated on the 20th Instant. Letters from the Rhine from good Hands bring Advice, that on the 18th Instant Marshal Traun's and Marshal Bathiani's Armies were but two Marches from one another; and that by the Prince of Conti's Dispositions then making, it seemed as if he was meditating a Retreat as far as Worms. Lord Tyravly arrived here from Hanover on Wednesday last, and sets out for England tomorrow or next Day; as does M. Osorio for Hanover.

This Day being the Anniversary of his Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, the Great Guns were fired in the Phoenix Park, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out on Oxman-Town Green. At Noon their Excellencies the Lords Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction; and afterwards made a Tour round St. Stephen's Green, attended by the Battle-Axe Guards and a Squadron of Dragoons; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.
