

above-mentioned, during the said Term of six Months, shall be from henceforth deemed to be void, and of no Effect; and that no Regard shall be had thereto. And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and Admiralty, the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, the Commanders and Captains of His Majesty's Fleets, and Ships of War, and all others, whom it may concern, are to take Notice hereof.

Andrew Stone.

Whitehall, July 23, 1745.

Whereas it has been represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that on Saturday the 13th of this Instant, between Six and Nine o'Clock in the Evening, the House of Sir Kenrick Clayton, Bart. at Marden in Surry was set on Fire, which, it is apprehended, was done in order to burn down and destroy the whole House; and also that a Cabinet therein was broke open; Their Excellencies, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who committed the said Crime, are pleased to promise his Majesty's Pardon to any one of the Offenders who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Andrew Stone.

And as a farther Encouragement for the Making such Discovery, the said Sir Kenrick Clayton does hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Kenrick Clayton.
