By the King,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Nineteenth Day of this Instant September; We, with the Advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said Nineteenth Day of September, to Thursday the Seventeenth Day of October next; and we have given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And we do hereby further declare our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Seventeenth Day of October next, be held, and fit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs; And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said Seventeenth Day of October next.

Given at our Court at Kensington, the Eighteenth Day of September 1745, and in the Nineteenth Year of our Reign.

G O D save the King.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 18th Day of September, 1745.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint his Grace John Duke of Bedford to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Bedford, his Grace this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

(Price Six-pence.)

Kensington, September 21.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Middlesex, and the City and Liberty of Westminster, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Middlesex: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Middlesex, and the City and Liberty of Westminster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being thoroughly sensible of the many great and invaluable Blessings derived to this Nation, by the Succession of your Majesty's illustrious House in the Throne of these Kingdoms, beg Leave at this Juncture to renew our Promises of Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majesty, and to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion now raised by some traitorous Subjects, and our Indignation at the daring Attempts of your Enemies to support it.

Your Majesty's Fatherly Care and Protection of all your People are so conspicuous, that we cannot but wonder how any of your Subjects can be misled, to give Disturbance to your Majesty's just and gracious Government, in Favour of a Popish Pretender, whose only Aim and Interest it can be, to overturn and destroy the Religion, Laws and Liberties of these Kingdoms, and to bring them under the intolerable Yoke of a Foreign Power, and by that Means, with Arbitrary and Tyrannical Sway, inflict upon the unhappy People, all the Miseries and Calamities of Slavery and Oppression.

For our Parts, we are fully resolved, as we are bound by many sacred Ties and Obligations, to maintain and defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, Fortunes, your Majesty's undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of these Realms; and upon this, and all other Occasions, we will not fail to give manifest Proof of our true Zeal and Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our steady Adherence to the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Royal Family.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right-Hon. the Lord Cornwallis, &c. being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions.

We humbly lay hold of this Opportunity to express our Joy on the Success with which it has pleased Almighty God to bless your Majesty's Arms in North America,

It is with unspeakable Satisfaction we see the happy Effects of your Majesty's extensive Influence, and unwearied Application, in placing the Grand Duke at the Head of the Germanick Body.

By these happy Events we have a fair Prospect of an equal Balance of Power being maintained on the Continent, and of a flourishing and increasing Trade to these Kingdoms.

Permit us, Great Sir, to declare our Detestation and Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion now carrying on in Scotland, in Favour of a Popish Pretender.

We readily embrace every Occasion to renew our Acknowledgments of your Majesty's rightful and lawful Title to the Crown of these Realms; and do assure your Majesty, that we will exert ourselves to the utmost of our Power, to put the Militia of the Tower Hamlets in Readiness fit for immediate Service; and (excited by Duty and Interest) are ready to sacrifice every Thing that is dear to us, for the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, and illustrious House, against all Pretenders and Invaders whatsoever.

May your Majesty's Reign be long, easy, and glorious, over a free, affectionate, and happy People, and continued in your Royal House to latest Posterity.

Kensington, September 18.

This Day the Deputy Steward, High Bailiff and his Deputy, and the Burgeses of Westminster, waited on his Majesty with the following Address; which his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and they had all the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, and his Deputy, the Chief Burgeses, Burgeses, High Constable, and Assistant Burgeses, of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, and his Deputy, the Chief Burgeses, High Constable, and Assistant Burgeses of your City and Liberty of Westminster, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Return to your British Dominions, and on the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Conquest of the important Island of Cape Breton.

The insolent Attempt carrying on in Part of your Majesty's Kingdoms, to disturb the Peace of your Reign, in Favour of a Popish Pretender, must, we are persuaded, unite all your Subjects, who have any Regard to their Religion or Liberty, in the firmest Resolution to support your Majesty, and the Succession to the Crown in your Illustrious House, as the only Means to secure to them and their Posterity the invaluable Blessings they now enjoy. And we do, in the most solemn Manner, declare our utter Abhorrence of the wicked and traitorous Designs of your Majesty's Enemies, and that we are ready, at the Hazard of our Lives and Properties, to oppose this and all other Attempts against your sacred Person and Government.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous over a free and grateful People, truly sensible of the Felicity they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government; And may we be ever blessed with one of your Royal House to sit upon the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Town-Court-House in Westminster, this 18th Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign,

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, having been transmitted by John Hawker, Mayor of Exeter, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries aries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the City of Exeter.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of your City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our sincerest and most joyful Congratulations on your Majesty's safe and happy Arrival among your British People, and on the great Success with which it hath pleased the Divine Providence to crown your Majesty's Arms in America, by the Conquest of Cape Breton.

The inexpressible Advantages which will be perpetually accruing to these Kingdoms, from the Possession of so valuable an Establishment, in the Enlargement of our Commerce, the Security of our Possessions, and the Increase of our Naval Force, as they will be every Day rendering more and more conspicuous the Wisdom of your Councils in Projecting, and the Glory of your Arms in Executing the Reduction of this most important Fortress; so they afford us the justest and most solid Foundation for that full and entire Confidence with which we rely on your Majesty's experienced Goodness, and unwearied paternal Care for the Welfare and Prosperity of your People, that every proper Measure will be taken to secure effectually to this Nation, the perpetual Enjoyment of this invaluable Acquisition.

We beg Leave also to express to your Majesty our most unfeigned Detestation of that unnatural Rebellion, lately broke out in the Northern Part of this Island, in Favour of a Popish Pretender to your Crown. We set too high a Value on our Religion, Constitution, Liberties and Laws; we have had too long an Experience of that favourable Protection they have always received from your Majesty's just and mild Government; and we know too well how inseparably they are united with the Succession of your Majesty's Family to the Crown of those Kingdoms, not to exert our utmost Efforts, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in the Support and Defence of your Majesty's Person, Crown and Government, as well against the Pretender and his Family, as against all other Invaders and Disturbers of the Peace of this Kingdom.

And we doubt not, but that with the Divine Blessing on the Justice of your Cause, your Majesty's known Wisdom and Fortitude, seconded by the Hearts and Hands of a Free People, will with Ease crush this impotent Attempt, and convince our inveterate Enemy, that 'tis not from among your Majesty's Subjects, united to your Majesty by all the Ties of Gratitude, Affection and Interest, that he can with Reason hope to form a Diversion to those generous Cares, which have hitherto given a Check to that restless and insatiable Ambition, which sets no Bounds to its Views, and threatens half Europe with its Fetters.

Given under our Common Seal this 13th Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, having been transmitted by Joseph Watson, Esq; Mayor of Berwick, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, with the greatest Sincerity congratulate your Majesty on your seasonable and happy Return to your British Dominions; at a Time, when your inveterate Enemies Abroad, and rebellious Subjects at Home, have enter'd into a most detestable Conspiracy, to deprive your Subjects of the best of Kings, of their Religion and Liberties, to introduce Popery and Slavery, to overturn our present happy Constitution, and destroy the Balance of Power in Europe.

Give us Leave, Sir, to assure you, that we shall on all Occasions manifest our Loyalty by our Actions, and contribute all in our Power to render abortive their pernicious and traiterous Designs; shall be steady in our Duty to our Country, in Support of your Majesty's Rights, and the Protestant Succession in your Royal House: The united Zeal of all true Britons in the same glorious Cause, must soon convince your Enemies how vain the Attempt is, to shake a Throne founded on the Interest and Affections, and supported by the Hands of a Free, a Brave, and a Grateful People.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, having having been transmitted by George Crowle, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, beg your Majesty would be graciously pleased to accept our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's safe Return to these your Kingdoms; and also upon the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, in the Taking the Island and Forts of Cape Breton.

At this critical Conjunction, when an Invasion is made upon your Majesty's Dominions by the Son of the Pretender, and a Rebellion is stirred up, and already begun in Scotland in his Favour, we think there is an indispensable Obligation upon all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, to make an open and hearty Profession of their Fidelity and true Allegiance to your Majesty; that the Enemies to your Majesty, and to the Welfare of this Nation, may, in some Measure, be discouraged from persisting in their rash and perfidious Designs. We therefore humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most unshaken Obedience and Loyalty to your sacred Person, and of our stedfast Zeal to support, to the utmost of our Power, in our respective Stations, your Majesty's just and undoubted Title to the Crown of these Realms, against all your open and secret Enemies. And we hope, and shall ever pray, that the same good Providence, which hath for many Years made us happy in the peaceable Enjoyment of our Rights, Laws and Liberties, under your Majesty's just and mild Administration, will still continue to protect your Majesty; and, notwithstanding the secret Machinations and audacious Attempts of your Enemies, enable you, after a long and happy Reign, to transmit your Crown down in your own Royal Family to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, the 13th Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in Great Britain.

At this Time our Prayers are most ardent for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person, when a Popish Pretender, urged by the ambitious Views of Foreign Powers, has attempted to stir up a Rebellion in your Majesty's Dominions.

An Attempt, which, if attended with Success, must end in the utter Extirpation of the Protestant Religion, and the total Destruction of our Property.

We, who acknowledge the Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's most just and mild Government, and bound not only by Gratitude but Interest, presume, on this Occasion, to assure your Majesty of our firm and inviolable Loyalty, and of our determin'd Resolution to expose our Persons and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Crown, and in the Support of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's illustrious House.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereto affixed, this 13th Day of September, 1745.

The following Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Tankerville, privileged Lord of the Bed-Chamber, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave most humbly to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to these these your Kingdoms, as also on the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms in America; which we doubt not but will be a safe Protection to the Trade of this Nation, and a constant Bar to the treacherous Designs of the Enemies of your Majesty and the British People,

At this Time, when your Kingdom of Great Britain is actually invaded by a Popish Pretender to your Crown, supported by the French, the known Advocates of Arbitrary Power, it is the Duty of all your faithful Subjects to distinguish their Allegiance to your Majesty; among the most faithful of which, we testify our utmost Detestation of all Designs, by whomsoever form'd, that may disturb your Majesty in the peaceful Possession of your undoubted Right to these your Dominions, and the happy Establishment in your illustrious House, in Defence of which we shall cheerfully exert our utmost Efforts, being sensible all that is dear and valuable to us depends upon it.

Our daily Prayers and Wishes are, that your Majesty's Arms may be blessed with Success; that your Enemies may be driven back with Shame and Confusion, and that the Crown of these Realms may flourish on your Majesty's Sacred Head and your latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal the 11th Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and forty-five.

Kensington, September 20.

This Day the Rev. Mr. Prescot, Master of Catherine Hall, and his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, High Steward of the University of Cambridge, attended by several Heads of Houses, Doctors in the several Faculties, Masters of Arts, and other Members of that learned Body, waited on his Majesty in their Formalities, with the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of your University of Cambridge, humbly beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy upon your Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions.

The unnatural Rebellion lately broke out in Favour of a Popish Abjur'd Pretender, encouraged and supported (as there is the greatest Reason to apprehend) by a Foreign Power, is an Attempt, which we cannot but look upon with the utmost Abhorrence; and we desire most faithfully to assure your Sacred Majesty, that we will constantly endeavour, by all the Means in our Power, to defeat the wicked and traitorous Designs of those, who aim at the Subversion of your Majesty's Government, and consequently of our Laws, our Liberties, and our Religion.

As we are truly sensible these invaluable Blessings can only be preserv'd to these Kingdoms by the Protestant Succession in your Royal House, we esteem it our indispensable Duty to instil Principles of Loyalty and Obedience to your Majesty, into all those who are committed to our Care, and to form them to an early Attachment to our present happy Constitution in Church and State.

May your Majesty's Counsels and Arms prevail to the secure Establishment of the Liberties of Europe; may you Triumph over your Enemies at home and abroad; and may you long continue to reign over a free and happy People.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this loyal and affectionate Address: The Abhorrence you express, for the Attempts to overturn our excellent Constitution in Church and State, is not only very agreeable to me, but must greatly tend to confirm my People in Principles of Duty and Affection to my Government.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, having been transmitted to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, with the profoundest Humility, beg Leave, on this trying Conjunction of Affairs, to repeat the Assurance of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and to express our warmest Indignation against all Attempts to disturb it.

An Invasion in Favour of a Popish Pretender, animated with the Hopes of Assistance from the Power of France or Spain, is reflected upon with uncommon Abhorrence by those, whose Studies peculiarly lead them to know, that the Religion to be introduc'd by this intended Change, is founded in Absurdity and the grossest Superstition.

But we trust, Great Sir, that the same good Providence, which has hitherto preserv'd the Protestant Religion in these Kingdoms, will continue it to us safe under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government; and that those Enemies, who are not to be prevailed upon by gentle and gracious Means, or the Obligation of the most solemn Engagements, will soon fall before your just and victorious Arms.

And, as we are encouraged from a late happy and important Event, principally owing to your Majesty's Wisdom and the Influence of your Counsels, permit us, Sir, to add our most sincere and hearty Prayers, that the present Distractions may soon end in a general and lasting Peace, and that your Majesty may pass the Remainder of your Days in Tranquillity and Joy, undisturbed by Contention Abroad, or Sedition and Rebellion at Home; and that you may deliver down the Scepter of this brave and loyal Nation to your flourishing and illustrious House, to be rul'd by the same good Principles of Liberty and Religion, which have been the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and which will, by the Blessing of Almighty God, continue it in your August Family to the latest Posterity.

Given in our House of Convocation, the 17th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

The following Address of the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitick Church of Christ Canterbury, and the Clergy of this Diocese, beg Leave to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of the Rebellion already raised in your Kingdom, and of the Invasion with which we are threaten'd in Favour of an unjust Pretender to your Throne.

The Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, can receive no Addition from any Change; but the Miseries, evidently consequent on that now projected, fill us with Horror and Indignation. We are sensible how much the Safety of our Reformed Religion depends upon your Majesty's Government; and we have experienced how constantly it has been the Object of your Royal Care. We should therefore be in the highest Degree unwise and ingrateful, if we willingly submitted to any other Protector of it than your Majesty.

Strong must be the Delusion of those, who can think a Bigot to the Church of Rome will become a good Defender of our Faith, or that a Protestant People can be safe under a Popish Prince. The Emissaries of that Communion have been unwearied in their Endeavours to re-establish their Corruptions among us; but the Labours of your faithful Clergy have watch'd over and preserved the Doctrines of the Reformation.

The united Attempts of our foreign and domestick Enemies tend equally to extinguish the Profession of our Holy Religion, and by the Introduction of an Arbitrary Power, to deprive us of our Laws and Civil Liberties. By your Majesty's Protection, under the Divine Providence, we are preserved in the full Enjoyment of these invaluable Blessings; and every Motive of Interest, Gratitude and Duty obliges us, both as Members of a free Government, and as Ministers of the Church of England, to exert our utmost Efforts in Defence of your sacred Person and Crown.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Worcester, having been transmitted to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Worcester.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit your dutiful and faithful Subjects the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Worcester, to join the general Voice of a loyal and grateful People, in the heartyest Congratulations upon your Majesty's safe and welcome Return to your British Dominions.

All your Majesty's Subjects are so nearly concerned in every Danger to your Royal Person, and every Attack upon your Government, that we must beg Leave, in the warmest Manner, to express our utter Detestation of a Rebellion now wickedly excited in this Kingdom, unnatural to the highest Degree, and at a Juncture most favourable to the implacable Enemies of our Country, in their injurious Views upon our holy Religion, Liberty, and important Rights. A Rebellion as void of all Foundation or Pretence in its Origin, as destructive in its Consequences, of every Blessing a Free and Protestant Nation can enjoy.

Your happy Subjects, Sir, fully convinced by long Experience, need not now the Confession of of your Majesty's and their Enemies (which are always the same) to demonstrate the great and manifold Benefits of a Government so wise, so mild, and legal: Had there been Room for further Proof, the strongest Evidence arises from this impious and daring Attempt, headed by a natural born Subject of the Pope of Rome, the deluded Son of an abjur'd Pretender, substituted and supported by the envious Rival of our Prosperity, and constant Projector of our Ruin, the perfidious, bloody, and ambitious Power of France.

The Preservation and Subsistence of our happy Constitution, and the Enjoyment of all our Rights, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, are so inseparably united with the Support of your Majesty's Government, that were it possible for us ever to forget our Duty to your sacred Majesty, or be unmindful of your constant Royal Care and Protection, a just Regard to that excellent Protestant Church in which we minister, the perpetual Mark of Popish Fury, would oblige us to continue our zealous Endeavours, by Example and Instruction, to encourage the most affectionate Loyalty; and offer up our fervent Prayers, that all your Enemies may fall before you, be cloath'd with Shame and Disappointment, and for the Happiness of Britain, and the Preservation of the whole Protestant Interest, your Majesty's auspicious Reign may be successful, long, and glorious.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City and County of Canterbury, has been presented to his Majesty by Mark Thorne, their Mayor, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Chamberlain, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City and County of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and obedient Subjects, beg Leave, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in Great Britain, and the Success of your Arms in America; and at the same Time to express our utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of the Attempt now carrying on by some of your disobedient and rebellious Subjects, in Favour of the Pretender to your Majesty's Crown.

The Settlement and Continuance of the Crown in your Illustrious House, we rely on as the only Security of our Religious and Civil Rights: Possess with this Sentiment, we offer your Majesty our most sincere Assurances, that no Dangers shall deter us, nor any Artifices divert us, from being incessant in our Endeavours to support your Government, and to defeat the Designs and Practices of all your Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, the 17th Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign, 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Tankerville, privileged Lord of the Bed-Chamber, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to present our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions; which, though at all Times is a Matter of great Joy to your faithful People, yet must be so in an extraordinary Degree at this Time, when this your Kingdom is actually invaded by the Power of France, the constant Enemy of this Nation, in Aid of a Pretender to your Crown: But we trust the same good Providence, that hath so often guarded your Majesty and the British People, will now bless your Arms with Success, and support and defend your Majesty in the Possession of the Throne of these Realms, and the happy Establishment in your Royal House; That can be the only Means to preserve to us the many Blessings we now enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious Government, the free Exercise of our Religion, the Security of our Liberties, and the Preservation of our Trade and Property.

As the Situation of this Place exposeth us to an early Attack, we think it our Duty to assure your Majesty, that our utmost Care and Vigilance shall be used to preserve this Town in a steady Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and that we shall on all all Occasions, exert ourselves to the utmost of our Power in Defence of your Majesty, against all your Enemies.

We most heartily rejoyce on the great Success of your Majesty's Arms in America, and that the like Success may always attend your Majesty's constant Endeavours for the Glory and Honour of this Nation is our daily Prayer and most ardent Wish.

Given under our Common Seal the 11th Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and forty-five.

The following Address of the Corporation of Nottingham, has been presented to his Majesty by John Plumtree, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corporation of Nottingham.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Council of the Town and Corporation of Nottingham, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere and unfeigned Joy for your Majesty's safe Arrival in your British Dominions, after the great Fatigue and Hazard to which your Majesty's unwearied Zeal for the publick Good has exposed your sacred Person, in order to concert such Measures Abroad, as may best secure the Happiness of Europe in General, and of these Kingdoms in Particular: And we do most heartily congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Success, which has already attended your Majesty's wise and powerful Endeavours to exalt to the Imperial Dignity, the Great Duke of Tuscany; one whose Inclinations and Interest must dispose him, and whose Power may enable him, in Conjunction with your Majesty, effectually to oppose the ambitious and dangerous Schemes of the grand Disturbers of Europe.

The Reduction of Cape Breton by your Majesty's Forces, is an Event which demands our most grateful Acknowledgments, as it does not only distress and weaken our declared Enemies, but may be a great and lasting Means of extending the Trade and Commerce of your faithful Subjects; the Importance of which to these Kingdoms cannot more fully appear, than by the great Care, which your Majesty's long experienced Goodness has taken to promote and to protect them.

It fills us with the greatest Abhorrence, to find there are any Persons in these Kingdoms so unworthy of the many and great Blessings we have so long enjoy'd under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, as to join with the avow'd Enemies of our Religion and Liberties, in order to advance a popish and abjured Pretender to your Majesty's Throne. The same Loyalty and Affection to your sacred Person, which so lately deterr'd them from putting in Execution the like bold and desperate Designs, still reign in the Hearts of all true Englishmen, and will still, we doubt not, be a sufficient Security against all these Enemies to our Happiness. We do most humbly assure your Majesty, that we will forthwith, and with the utmost Diligence, obey your Majesty's Command, by putting the Laws in Execution against Papists, reputed Papists, and Nonjurors, being dangerous to your Majesty's Government; and will do all other Things in our Power, which may be of Service to your Majesty and the Publick, at this critical Time. And since our restless Enemies have again presumed to renew their wicked and traitorous Designs against your Majesty and your Royal Family, we hope it will not be thought unreasonable, that we again endeavour to convince them of the Folly and Madness of their Undertaking, by joining with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, in declaring our firm and unanimous Resolution, at the Hazard of all that is dear and valuable to us, to support your Majesty's Person, and the Government, as by Law established; the Continuance of which in your Majesty's Royal Protestant House, is the only Means, under God, of securing to ourselves the uninterrupted Enjoyment of our Civil and Religious Liberties, which has long render'd this Nation the Glory and the Envy of the World.

Given under the Corporation Seal, the 16th Day of September 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor in the County of Berks, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. Sidney Beauclerk and Henry Fox, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's Borough of New Windsor in the County of Berks.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, &c. beg Leave to con-

congratulate your Majesty on your safe and happy Return to your British Dominions; and on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Reduction of the Islands and Forts of Cape Breton.

We are too sensible of the many and great Benefits and Advantages we at present enjoy, and of the certain and fatal Consequences that must ensue, should the Enemies of our happy Constitution succeed in their present Designs in Scotland against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, (in Favour of a popish and abjured Pretender) not to do every Thing in our Power to detect, disappoint and punish so daring and dangerous an Attempt.

And we crave Leave to renew our Assurances of our inviolable Duty and Attachment to your Majesty, and that we shall be ready at all Times to sacrifice all that is dear and valuable to us, in Support of your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, and in Opposing all such wicked and destructive Schemes.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign over a free and happy People, are the hearty and sincere Prayers, and shall be the constant Endeavours of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants. Given under our Hands the 17th of September 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, Dorsetshire, has been presented to his Majesty by Joseph Gulston, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, Dorsetshire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, and of the Success of your unwearied Zeal and Application during your Absence, in Support of the common Cause, to preserve a Balance of Power in Europe, and disappointing the ambitious Views of your perfidious Enemies, by the Elevation of the Grand Duke to the Imperial Dignity.

We farther beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Arms in the important Conquest of Cape Breton; a Conquest of inestimable Advantage to this Nation by its Situation and Trade; by the Acquisition of which, our Enemies valuable Commerce to all North America is rendered very precarious, if not impracticable; and by the Possession of which, the British Settlements and Trade in those Parts are protected and secured.

Your Majesty will permit us to express our utmost Detestation and Abhorrence, at the daring Attempts of the Pretender's Son and his Adherents; and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your sacred Person and Government; of our Perseverance in our Duty at this critical Juncture. That we are sensible of the Difference between that horrid Monster Popery, and its inseparable Attendant Slavery, and the Religion and Liberties we so fully enjoy under your Majesty's Protection; and are fully convinced, that every Thing that is dear and valuable to us as Englishmen and Protestants, depend on the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of your Royal House to the Crown of these Realms; which we will, with the greatest Zeal and Affection, endeavour, to the utmost of our Power, to support and maintain.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Town and County, the 16th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

Hague, Sept. 28, N. S. The ten English Battalions, that have been detached from the Army, have marched with such Speed, five Days successively without resting, that they are all expected at Willemstad To-morrow; and will probably be under Sail before the End of this Week; as it is supposed the Second Dutch Division is now. The News from the Low Countries talk of the French having resolved to besiege Ath and St. Ghilani at once. Prince George of Hesse set out for Guelderland this Morning. Count Maurice of Nassau goes over to England with this Mail.

Whitehall, September 21.

The Rebels left Perth the 11th, and marched that Day to Dumblain, twenty Miles; the next Day they march'd only two Miles, to Down; and on Friday the 13th they passed the Forth at the Fords of Frews, five Miles above Stirling: They then seemed to direct their March towards Glasgow; but on the 14th in the Morning they turned Eastward, and marched by Falkirk, towards Edinburgh; and when the Letters of the 16th came away, they were within a few Miles of that City.

On the 16th in the Afternoon, Brigadier Fowkes marched to Prestonpans, six Miles East of Edinburgh, with two Regiments of Dragoons, in order to join Sir John Cope, who was just arrived from Aberdeen, where he had embarked, and was then making a Disposition to land the Troops under his Command at Dunbar, eighteen Miles East of Edinburgh, the Wind not being then fair to carry the Transports up to Leith.

By Letters of the 18th, the Rebels had taken Possession of the Town, and proclaimed the Pretender there on the 17th.

General Gueff, who commanded at Edinburgh, had retired into the Castle, where the Publick Offices and the Inhabitants had secured their most valuable Effects; and General Cope being joined by the two Regiments of Dragoons, was on his March the 18th towards Edinburgh.

Whitehall, September 21.

On Tuesday last arrived in the River from Holland the three Battalions of Herler's Swiss Regiment of Foot; as did Yesterday the three Battalions of Foot of Holstein Gottorp, Villets and Patot, together with four Companies of Brackell's Battalion of Foot.

London, Sept. 14, 1745.

John Earl of Stair, &c. Field Marshal and Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in South-Britain, does hereby declare, that it is his Majesty's Intention, that any Man, who shall voluntarily engage in his Majesty's Service, in any of his Regiments of Horse, Foot or Dragoons, shall be discharged from the Service at the End of two Years, to be reckoned from the Day of his Inlisting, and that this Declaration shall extend to all such as shall engage between the Day of the Date hereof, till the first Day of January next to come.

STAIR.

By his Excellency's Command,
Ro. Keith.

War-Office, September 6, 1745.

His Majesty, having thought fit to augment the Four Battalions of Foot Guards doing Duty at home, is pleased to order that the Sum of Six Pounds, Bounty Money, should be paid to each Man five Feet seven Inches high, or upwards, without Shoes, and under 30 Years of Age, who shall enlist with any Officer, belonging to the said Regiments of Guards; or with any Officer of Horse, Dragoons, Foot or Marines in Order to serve in the Guards, and shall be approved by them as able-bodied Men, on or before the 24th of this instant September; the said Bounty Money with Subsistence from the Time of their enlisting respectively, to be paid on their Arrival on the Parade, in St. James's Park, London; And that the Sum of Four Pounds Bounty-Money shall be paid to each Man who shall enlist to serve in the Regiments of Guards, answering the above Description after the said 24th Instant, and before the 1st of October next. This publick Notice is hereby given of these his Majesty's Commands, that the proper Officers, and all Persons concerned, may govern themselves accordingly.

By his Majesty's Command,
Will. Yonge.

General Post-Office, August 24, 1745.

Whereas the Communication with Flanders, by the Way of Ostend, is interrupted, and for the present at an End; Publick Notice is hereby given to all Merchants and others whom it may concern, That as their Letters for the several Parts and Provinces of the Austrian-Netherlands are now, of Necessity, to be forwarded by the Way of Holland, it will be most proper for them to inclose their Letters and Packets, or recommend them to such as may be their Friends or Correspondents in Holland, from thence to be forwarded to the Places they are designed for in the Netherlands aforesaid; as also that it will be most safe and convenient for them, that the Answers, in Return to their said Letters, should be sent under Cover to Holland, to be forwarded from thence, to this Office.

But in regard to the Correspondence with the Army; all Persons are hereby to take Notice, That their Letters, directed for any Person or Persons in the same, will be received at this Office, and from hence forwarded to the Army, in the Manner hitherto observed, a proper Method of conveying the Army Letters directly from hence, having been settled by the Way of Holland, in Conformity to the Usages in regard thereto, during the Wars of King William and Queen Anne.

By Command of the Post-master General,
George Shelvocke, Secs

Victualling-Office, Sep. 19, 1745

Whereas the Hopewell Sloop of Limington, Robert Newman, Master, laden with Flour, Iron Hoops, Butter, Cheese and Hops, at this Office for the Supply of his Majesty's Stores at Plymouth, was chased a-shore on the 7th Instant near Beachy Head in Sussex, by a French Privateer: The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy, give Notice, that if any Persons who have saved any of his Majesty's Provisions or Stores out of the said Sloop, will forthwith bring and deliver them to the Collector of the Customs at Newhaven, or Charles Harrison, Esq; of Seaford in the said County, they shall be allowed Salvage for the same. But as the said Commissioners are determined to proceed with the utmost Severity of the Law against such Persons as may conceal or embezzle any of the Cargo of the said Vessel, they do also hereby promise to any Person or Persons that shall discover to the said Charles Harrison, Esq; at Seaford, or to the Collector of the Customs at Newhaven, where any Part of the Cargo of the said Vessel, which has been carried from her, is concealed and secreted, a Reward of Ten Pounds per Cent. upon the Value of the Goods that shall be so discovered, which Reward will be paid by the said Charles Harrison, Esq; or the Collector of the Customs at Newhaven.

London, Sep. 21, 1745.
