

Publick Offices and the Inhabitants had secured their most valuable Effects; and General Cope being joined by the two Regiments of Dragoons, was on his March the 18th towards Edinburgh.

Whitehall, September 21.

On Tuesday last arrived in the River from Holland the three Battalions of Herler's Swiss Regiment of Foot; as did Yesterday the three Battalions of Foot of Holstein Gottorp, Villets and Patot, together with four Companies of Brackell's Battalion of Foot.

London, Sept. 14, 1745.

John Earl of Stair, &c. Field Marshal and Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in South-Britain, does hereby declare, that it is his Majesty's Intention, that any Man, who shall voluntarily engage in his Majesty's Service, in any of his Regiments of Horse, Foot or Dragoons, shall be discharged from the Service at the End of two Years, to be reckoned from the Day of his Inlisting, and that this Declaration shall extend to all such as shall engage between the Day of the Date hereof, till the first Day of January next to come.

STAIR.

By his Excellency's Command,
Ro. Keith.

War-Office, September 6, 1745.

His Majesty, having thought fit to augment the Four Battalions of Foot Guards doing Duty at home, is pleased to order that the Sum of Six Pounds, Bounty Money, should be paid to each Man five Feet seven Inches high, or upwards, without Shoes, and under 30 Years of Age, who shall enlist with any Officer, belonging to the said Regiments of Guards; or with any Officer of Horse, Dragoons, Foot or Marines in Order to serve in the Guards, and shall be approved by them as able-bodied Men, on or before the 24th of this instant September; the said Bounty Money with Subsistence from the Time of their enlisting respectively, to be paid on their Arrival on the Parade, in St. James's Park, London; And that the Sum of Four Pounds Bounty-Money shall be paid to each Man who shall enlist to serve in the Regiments of Guards, answering the above Description after the said 24th Instant, and before the 1st of October next. This publick Notice is hereby given of these his Majesty's Commands, that the proper Officers, and all Persons concerned, may govern themselves accordingly.

By his Majesty's Command,
Will. Yonge.

General Post-Office, August 24, 1745.

Whereas the Communication with Flanders, by the Way of Ostend, is interrupted, and for the present at an End; Publick Notice is hereby given to all Merchants and others whom it may concern, That as their Letters for the several Parts and Provinces of the Austrian-Netherlands are now, of Necessity, to be forwarded by the Way of Holland, it will be most proper for them to inclose their Letters and Packets, or recommend them to such as may be their Friends or Correspondents in Holland, from thence to be forwarded to the Places they are designed for in the Netherlands aforesaid; as also that it will be most safe and convenient for them, that the Answers, in Return to their said Letters, should be sent under Cover to Holland, to be forwarded from thence, to this Office.

But in regard to the Correspondence with the Army; all Persons are hereby to take Notice, That their Letters, directed for any Person or Persons in the same, will be received at this Office, and from hence forwarded to the Army, in the Manner hitherto observed, a proper Method of conveying the Army Letters directly from hence, having been settled by the Way of Holland, in Conformity to the Usages in regard thereto, during the Wars of King William and Queen Anne.

By Command of the Post-master General,
George Shelvocke, Secy

Victualling-Office, Sep. 19, 1745

Whereas the Hopewell Sloop of Limington, Robert Newman, Master, laden with Flour, Iron Hoops, Butter, Cheese and Hops, at this Office for the Supply of his Majesty's Stores at Plymouth, was chased a-shore on the 7th Instant near Beachy Head in Sussex, by a French Privateer: The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy, give Notice, that if any Persons who have saved any of his Majesty's Provisions or Stores out of the said Sloop, will forthwith bring and deliver them to the Collector of the Customs at Newhaven, or Charles Harrison, Esq; of Seaford in the said County, they shall be allowed Salvage for the same. But as the said Commissioners are determined to proceed with the utmost Severity of the Law against such Persons as may conceal or embezzle any of the Cargo of the said Vessel, they do also hereby promise to any Person or Persons that shall discover to the said Charles Harrison, Esq; at Seaford, or to the Collector of the Customs at Newhaven, where any Part of the Cargo of the said Vessel, which has been carried from her, is concealed and secreted, a Reward of Ten Pounds per Cent. upon the Value of the Goods that shall be so discovered, which Reward will be paid by the said Charles Harrison, Esq; or the Collector of the Customs at Newhaven.
