

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 21. to Tuesday September 24. 1745.

Kensington, September 24.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, has been presented to his Majesty by the Honourable Horatio Walpole, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return into your British Dominions, after your indefatigable Care and Concern for the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe, and consequently the Liberties of these your Realms. The Safety and Security of your Majesty's Person and Government are so closely united to the Happiness of your Subjects, that we should be unworthy of those various Blessings which we amply possess under your Majesty's gracious Protection, if our Hearts were not elated with a dutiful Joy on this happy Occasion.

We likewise beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late Success of your Arms in America, by the Conquest of Cape Breton; an Acquisition, which immediately tends to increase the Trade of your Majesty's Subjects, and impoverish and debilitate an Enemy, whose boundless Ambition aims at universal Power.

We crave your Royal Permission further to express our great Abhorrence of the daring Attempt of your Enemies in Favour of a Popish Pretender.

Duty, Gratitude, our Religion, Rights, and Liberties, loudly call upon us vigorously to oppose them, and all their bold and destructive Designs; and we assure your Majesty, that we will, on this and every Occasion, exert all our Abilities, and hazard our Lives and Fortunes to support your Majesty and your Royal Progeny on the British Throne.

Given under our common Seal the 13th Day of September, 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Abingdon in the County of Berks, has been presented to his Majesty by John Wright, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

(Price Two-pence.)

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks, in Common Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Abingdon, beg Leave to express our Joy for your Majesty's safe Arrival in your British Dominions.

When we reflect on the Happiness and Prosperity we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we find our Hearts warm with Zeal and Affection for your Service, and with Detestation and Abhorrence of the wicked Attempts of your Enemies.

We cannot forget the Miseries which our Ancestors were reduced to in a former Reign, when arbitrary Power, like a Torrent, broke in upon them, and the Laws which ought to have been their Protection, were made the Instruments of their Ruin; when the Protestant Faith was in great Danger of being destroyed, and no Man was safe in his Life or Liberty that would not sacrifice his Religion.

Our Ancestors bravely rescued themselves from these Difficulties; and whatever Opinion your Majesty's Enemies may entertain, they will find that this Nation will ever be attentive to its true Interest, and will be zealous in revenging every Insult upon your Majesty, or upon the Peace and Quiet of your Kingdoms.

We are sensible that your Majesty's Enemies, and the Enemies of the Nation, are the same; and whatever Part a few wicked desperate Men may act, we are persuaded that no serious Person will give the least Encouragement to a Scheme, formed by our most inveterate Enemies, in Favour of a popish abjured Pretender. We do for our own Parts beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will exert our best Endeavours to inculcate Affection to your Majesty's Government, and to defeat the Designs of all such as have engaged to disturb it.

Given under our common Seal, at the Guildhall in the said Borough, the 16th Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

In last Saturday's Gazette, in the Address from the City of Canterbury, the Mayor's Name who presented it was by Mistake printed Mark Thorne, whereas it should have been Mark Thomas, Esq;

Journal