Kensington, October 2.

THIS Day the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London, attended by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and Clergy of the City and Diocese of London, waited on his Majesty with the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the City and Diocese of London.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and Clergy of the City and Diocese of London, remember, with great Pleasure, the late Zeal and Unanimity of your Majesty's Subjects, in expressing their Resentment and Indignation even at the Preparations that were making by a neighbouring Power, in Favour of a Popish Pretender. And after such late and publick Testimonies of the Duty and Loyalty of your Subjects, it might well be wonder'd, not only that the like Preparations should be renewed so soon, but carried further into an actual Invasion; as if they still flattered themselves with the Hopes of a favourable Reception here. But our Wonder ceases, when we reflect upon the restless spirit of Popery, which never neglects the least Prospect of enlarging its Borders; and upon the Pleasure which arbitrary Powers naturally take, in destroying the Liberties of a Free Nation; and the Readiness of People of desperate Fortunes to embark with them in any Enterprize that gives them the least Hope of bettering their Condition.

What the Strength is, that they rest upon from Foreign Forces and Aids, is best known to themselves; but surely it would be the vainest Imagination that could enter into the Mind of Man, to suppose, that a Nation, who find themselves in secure Possession of their Religion, Laws and Liberties, under your Majesty's most mild, just and auspicious Government, should be disposed to receive a Popish Pretender to your Throne; who has from his Infancy been bred and trained up amidst the highest Notions and Maxims of Superstition and arbitrary Government; and whose Success, which God avert, carries in it such a frightful Scene of Calamities to the Souls, Bodies and Estates of a Protestant and Free People.

Upon so important an Occasion, we should be greatly wanting to our Duty, if we did not make the most open and publick Profession of our inviolable Fidelity to your Person and Government, and of the firmest Resolution to defend and support both to the utmost of our Power, against this and all other Attempts, from what Quarter soever they come.

And for the more effectual preventing and defeating all such wicked Enterprizes, we take this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that we will instill into the People committed to our Care, a just Abhorrence of Popery and the Doctrines of it, and excite them to a serious Reflection upon the Dangers and Difficulties in which these Nations were involv'd within the Memory of Man, by the illegal and violent Proceedings of a Popish Prince, for the overturning our Religion, and the establishing his own. We will also use our best Endeavours to make them truly sensible of the particular Obligation they are under at this Time, to exert themselves in their several Stations, to prevent our falling again into the like National Dangers and Distractions. And that they may be effectually armed against all the Arts and Delusions of the Enemy; it shall be our particular Care to fix and establish them in this great and fundamental Truth; That, under God, there is no Safety for the Religion and Liberties of this Country, but in the Protestant Succession, as settled by Law in your Majesty, and your Royal Family.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this seasonable Mark of your Duty and Affection. Your Influence and Example will greatly tend to animate my People with a due Zeal for the Support of my Government, and for the Defence of our most Holy Religion. You may be assured of my constant Resolution to protect and maintain the Church of England, as by Law established.

The following Address of the Governour, Council and Representatives of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governour, Council and Representatives of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Governour, Council and Representatives of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England, in General Court assembled, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, upon the Reduction of the Island of Cape Breton, with its Dependencies, to the Obedience of your Majesty's Crown; and to express the deep Sense we have of our Obligations to your Majesty, for the timely Assistance of your Majesty's Ships of War, which you was most graciously pleased to order for the Support of your Troops raised in this and two of the neighbouring Colonies, for your Majesty's Service in the late Expedition against those Settlements.

It is with the highest Pleasure that we reflect upon the Share which your Majesty's Subjects of this Province have had in making this Acquisition, as it has afforded them an Opportunity of distinguishing their unalterable Duty and Attachment to your sacred Person, their Zeal for the Honour of your Majesty's Government, and their Disposition to promote the general Welfare of your Dominions; an Acquisition which, as we esteem it in its immediate Effects to be of very great Importance to the Interest of your Majesty's European as well as American Subjects, so we trust it will prove still more beneficial to them in its future Consequences! And we hope the Remembrance of it will be transmitted to succeeding Generations within your American Colonies, that it may excite and preserve in them the same Spirit of Loyalty, which animated us in our late Enterprize for your Majesty's Service.

May the Divine Providence, which has most remarkably favour'd your Majesty's Arms in this Conquest, continue to crown them with Success, till your Majesty shall have established the Liberties of Europe and America, by a safe and honourable Peace; and may this Acquisition be an Earnest of larger Additions to your Majesty's Dominions.

William Shirley, Governour.

In the Name and by Order of the Council,

Josiah Willard, Secretary.

In the Name and by Order of the House of Representatives, Thomas Cushing, Speaker.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County Palatine of Lancaster, having been transmitted by the Earl of Derby, Lord Lieutenant of the County, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County Palatine of Lancaster, assembled at the Borough of Preston, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty's safe Arrival in your British Dominions.

As your Majesty's Presence Abroad has been found powerful and effectual in disconcerting the dangerous Schemes of an ambitious Monarch, the open and avowed Enemy of these Kingdoms, and raising the Grand Duke of Tuscany to the Imperial Throne; so we doubt not but it will be as powerful and effectual at Home, in defeating the traiterous Attempts of your and the Nation's Enemies, and give new Strength and double Vigour to your faithful Subjects.

The unnatural Rebellion at this Time raised in Scotland, (which from a Spark is now become a Flame threatening Destruction as far as it shall extend) cannot but fill our Hearts with a just Horror and Resentment, and inspire us with Unanimity and Resolution to exert all the Means in our Power, for the Defence and Security curity of your Majesty's Royal Person and House, on which, (under God) all that is or can be dear to Englishmen, our Religion, Laws and Liberty depend.

That your Majesty may long reign for the Preservation of these invaluable Blessings, (the noblest End of all Government, and which your Majesty has ever been ambitious to make the Glory and Measure of your own) to the Happiness of your People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Yonge, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously. —

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Honiton, beg Leave to express our sincerest Joy on your Majesty's safe and happy Arrival in your British Dominions.

When we consider your Majesty's Goodness and unwearied Endeavours to maintain the Liberties of Europe in general, and the true Interest of all your Subjects in particular, we think it our indispensable Duty to acknowledge, with the greatest Gratitude and Veneration, your Majesty's just Regard and tender Concern for their Happiness: And we cannot omit (on this Occasion) congratulating your Majesty on your important Conquest of Cape Breton; an Acquisition of the greatest Consequence to these Kingdoms, as the Security and Welfare of the Trade to your Northern Colonies greatly depend thereon.

We reflect with the highest Detestation and Abhorrence, on the malicious Attempts of your Majesty's most inveterate Enemies, in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Crown and Dignity; and beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready (at the Hazard of every Thing that is valuable to us) to defend your Majesty's most sacred Person and illustrious Family, and to support your prudent and equitable Government, from which only we can promise ourselves the Continuance of our Religious and Civil Liberties, and the Preservation of our happy Constitution.

The following Address of the Mayor, capital Burgesses and Assistants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Yonge, Bart. their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton in the County of Devon, in Council assembled, beg Leave to join with the rest of your loyal Subjects, in congratulating your Majesty on your safe Return into these your Dominions; and also on the happy Success of your Arms at Cape Breton; an Acquisition of vast Importance to your Majesty's Trading Subjects.

Whilst your Enemies, equally regardless of their own Engagements, their People's Interests, and their Neighbours Rights, are endeavouring to extend the Borders of Tyranny, and to scatter Desolation through the World; your Majesty's Councils and Arms are employ'd in securing and enlarging the Trade and Happiness of your Subjects, and in defending the Liberties of Europe, and the Rights of Mankind. The wicked Attempt to impose a popish Pretender on Great Britain will, we trust, by the Assistance of a good Providence, prove vain and abortive, like former Attempts of the same Kind, and like the late Endeavour to prevent an Emperor in Germany; It is an Experiment which we hope will only serve to show the Malignity of your Majesty's Enemies, the Temerity of the young Adventurer, and the Loyalty and Fidelity of your British Subjects.

Our Fathers have told us of the dire and fatal Effects of Popery and arbitrary Power in their Days, which cost them so much Pains and Blood to extirpate; We have enjoy'd the happy Fruits of their Labours, under your Majesty's wise and gentle Administration. As the same Calamities again threaten us and ours, we doubt not but the same true British Spirit will revive and exert itself, and will animate and engage us, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend our Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Properties, which are so inseparably connected with your Majesty's Person, Government, and Family, as we are fully sensible they must stand and fall together.

May the Event of this Enterprize give your Majesty an Opportunity of knowing your Friends, of Triumphant over your Enemies, and of convincing the World, that 'tis much more safe and glorious to reign over a brave and a free free People, than to command a World of Slaves.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guild-hall of Tiverton, this twenty-third Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and forty-five.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, having been transmitted by John Talke, Esq; their Recorder, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your Majesty's British Dominions, and on the important Conquest of Cape Breton.

When we reflect that our Religion, Liberties, and every Thing that is dear and valuable unto us, as Englishmen and Protestants, depend on the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of your Royal House to the Crown of these Realms; we should be guilty of the highest Folly as well as Ingratitude, not to be particularly anxious for the Safety of your Majesty's Person, when an unnatural Rebellion is actually broke out in these your Majesty's Dominions.

From that sincere and unshaken Loyalty and Fidelity, which we feel in our own Breasts for your Majesty's sacred Person, we trust in God, that it will not be in the Power of your Majesty's Enemies to make any Impression on your Subjects in these Parts of your Majesty's Dominions; but at the same Time we cannot help looking upon the Landing the Pretender's Son in Scotland, as such an Affront and Indignity offer'd to your Majesty, as calls for our highest Resentment: And we assure your Majesty, that we shall be ready, upon this and all other Occasions, to support and maintain your Majesty in your lawful and rightful Title to these your Majesty's Dominions, even at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

Dated at Sarum, under our Common Seal, the 26th Day of September 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the City of Chester, having been transmitted by Sir Robert Grosvenor, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the City of Chester, in Common Council assembled,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in your British Dominions, and on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton, a Place of so great Importance and Advantage to the Trade of these Kingdoms.

Permit us, Great Sir, to join with the rest of your loyal Subjects, in testifying our greatest Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion, raised and fomented against your Majesty. The Blessings the Subjects of these Kingdoms have enjoyed ever since their Deliverance from Popery and arbitrary Power, by the happy Revolution, are so many and great, as render it astonishing to think, that any of those Subjects should be so audacious and infatuated, so insensible of their own true and real Interest, as to endeavour to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Government, on the Preservation whereof every Thing that is dear and valuable to us, as a free People, entirely depends.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, in the most solemn Manner, That we will, to the utmost of our Power, defend your Majesty's just and undoubted Right to the Crown of these Realms, against all your Enemies, and maintain the Succession thereto, as it stands established by Law; and we heartily pray, that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Line to fill the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal the 27th of September 1745.

The following Address of the Freemen and Inhabitants of the King's Town and Parish of Maidstone in Kent, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Romney, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address

Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freemen and Inhabitants of the King's Town and Parish of Maidstone in Kent.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen and Inhabitants of the King's Town and Parish of Maidstone in Kent, approach you to congratulate your safe and happy Arrival in these Kingdoms, which will soon, we doubt not, reduce to due Subjection and Obedience such disloyal and traitorous Persons, as may have taken Encouragement to disturb your Government during your Majesty's Absence from your British Dominions.

And as this wicked Rebellion carrying on at Home, will probably encourage our natural Enemy the French to attack us from Abroad; so we gladly take the present Occasion of assuring your Majesty, that every Attempt of our Enemies to invade us, shall find us determined to decline no Danger in the Discharge of that Duty we which owe to your Majesty, ourselves, and our Posterity.

We enjoy beyond any other Nation the Blessing of being a Free People; and it will ever be the unalterable Resolution of our Minds, at the Hazard of all that is dear to us, to oppose every Attempt that shall at any Time be made against the Religion, Liberties, and Constitution of our Country.

We congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton, an Acquisition of the utmost Importance and Advantage to the Trade and Navigation of this Nation, the Benefits whereof we trust will be transmitted to our latest Posterity.

Done at the Town Hall in Maidstone, Kent, the 25th of September 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Steward, Capital Burgeses, Burgeses, and other the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Harwich in the County of Essex, has been presented to his Majesty by John Phillipson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Steward, Capital Burgeses, Bur-geses, and other the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Harwich in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST that universal Gladness which at this Time fills the Hearts of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, on your Majesty's safe Return to your Dominions of Great Britain, we of this Corporation should be wanting in our Duty to your Majesty, should we not join with our Fellow Subjects, in expressing our Joy on that most happy Occasion: With Hearts therefore full of Affection, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to congratulate your Majesty, on that Instance of the Divine Protection, so great a Blessing to the British Nation.

And it would be a Crime against Royal Majesty, at this Juncture, not to give some Testimonies of our Zeal for your Majesty's sacred Person, under whose most auspicious Government we enjoy all the Liberties and Blessings of a free and happy People: We therefore most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, upon all Occasions, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and of all that is dear to us, stand by and assist your Majesty in the Support and Maintenance of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, in your Majesty's Royal Person, against all the traitorous Conspiracies and Attempts of your Enemies to subvert it.

And we most ardently pray the Almighty, that he would bless your Majesty's Arms with the happiest Success, and grant unto your Majesty Health, long Life, and Pleasure, and be forever propitious to your Royal Family.

Given under our Common Seal of the said Borough, the 24th Day of September 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks, has been presented to his Majesty by ——— Waller, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Bailliffs, Burgesſes and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, with loyal and unfeigned Hearts moſt humbly congratulate your Maſteſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

The many and great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Maſteſty's mild, juſt, and prudent Administration, cannot but excite in us the utmoſt Detestation and Abhorrence of the daring and insolent Attempts that are now carrying on in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

We therefore take this Occaſion to aſſure your Maſteſty of our inviolable Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government; and that we ſhall always, with the utmoſt Alacrity and Cheerfulneſs, be ready to ſacrifice all that is dear and valuable to us, in Support of your Maſteſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State.

That your Maſteſty, after all your unwearied Endeavours for the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms, may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign over us, a free and happy People, are the ſincere and hearty Prayers, and ſhall be the conſtant Endeavours of your Maſteſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, the 27th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable the Earl Powlet, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Maſteſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Maſteſty: Which Addreſs his Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater.

May it pleaſe your Maſteſty,

TO permit your moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesſes, and Principal Inhabitants of your Maſteſty's ancient Borough of Bridgwater, to congratulate your Maſteſty on your ſafe Return to theſe your Britiſh Dominions; and to join in the general Joy for that enlivening Proſpect, that is opened to the Trade of theſe Nations, by the glorious Succeſs that has attended your Maſteſty's Arms in the Conqueſt of Cape Breton.

Permit us alſo, Great Sir, when our moſt ſacred Religion and invaluable Liberties are now endangered, by an execrable Attempt made by the Common Foe and Diſturber of Europe, to impoſe a popiſh Pretender and arbitrary Government upon us, Names! that will always be had in the greateſt Abhorrence by every ſincere Proteſtant and true Engliſhman, to repeat our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of our unalterable Attachment to our moſt excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State; of our ſteadfaſt Loyalty and inviolable Fidelity to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and of our determined Reſolution, to the utmoſt of our Power and Abilities, of ſupporting and defending your Maſteſty on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, againſt all Pretenders and Oppoſers whatſoever.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Capital Burgesſes of the Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, having been tranſmitted by John Noel, Eſq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of his Maſteſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Maſteſty: Which Addreſs his Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Capital Burgesſes of the Borough of Stamford in the County of Lincoln.

May it pleaſe your Maſteſty,

TO permit us to renew the unfeigned Aſſurances of the Loyalty and Allegiance of your moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Capital Burgesſes of your Borough of Stamford, who join the general Voice of a free and grateful People, in the moſt hearty Congratulations upon your Maſteſty's ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, and upon the Succeſs which has happily attended your Maſteſty's wiſe Endeavours to ſettle the Imperial Dignity in the Grand Duke of Tuſcany; an Event ſo deſtructive of the ambitious Deſigns of our Enemies, (the known Diſturbers of Europe) and ſo advantageous to the common Cauſe.

Our inviolable Duty and Attachment to your Maſteſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, will never fail of creating in us the ſtrongeſt Reſolutions, to exert ourſelves in the Defence of your Maſteſty's Perſon, and undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, upon all Occaſions, and particularly upon the preſent deteſtable Invaſion, and unnatural Rebellion in Scotland.

As we are fully convinced, by long Experience, ence, that a popish Prince is inconsistent with the Religion and Liberty of a Protestant Nation; so we shall always look upon all Attempts to introduce again so great a Mischief into these Kingdoms, as proceeding from Persons who have neither Reverence for God, nor Affection for Mankind. And as we are fully convinced by equal Experience of the Safety of both these invaluable Blessings, under your Majesty's Government; so the Preservation of your most sacred Person, and the Continuance of the Crown in your illustrious Family, shall be equally our Care, as the Maintenance of our own Rights.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Town Hall of the said Borough, the 25th Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address and Association of the Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Nottingham, have been presented to his Majesty by John Mordaunt and William Levinz, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Lieutenant of the County, and one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address and Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Nottingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Happiness we have constantly enjoyed under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, lays us under the highest Obligations, at all Times, to exert ourselves in Support of your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and particularly at this Conjunction, when we see your Royal Person insulted, and the Peace of these Kingdoms disturbed by an unnatural Rebellion in Favour of a popish Pretender, who, with the Assistance of our hereditary and implacable Enemies, vainly hopes, in Defiance of our Laws, to usurp a Dominion over a free People.

Permit us, therefore, to assure your Majesty of our utter Abhorrence of so wicked and detestable Attempt, and of our zealous Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, for whose immediate Defence we have with one Consent entered into a solemn Association, which we beg Leave to present to your Majesty with this our humble Address, not doubting, but that your Majesty's Wisdom, and the Prudence of Parliament, will, in a short Time, provide more effectual and durable Methods to secure these Kingdoms against all Insults from foreign Enemies, or domestick Traytors; so that at all Times hereafter, your Majesty's faithful Subjects may be found in Readiness to defend your Majesty's Person and Government; and that by the Duty and Affection of a grateful People, the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms may be transmitted to your latest Posterity; which are the hearty Prayers of

most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

An Association of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Nottingham.

WHEREAS there is now a horrid and an unnatural Rebellion formed and carried on by Papists and other wicked and traitorous Persons, countenanced and supported by the ancient and implacable Enemies of our Country, with Intent to dethrone his Majesty King George, to subvert vert our Religion and Liberty, and to place the Crown of Great Britain on the Head of a popish Pretender, who must for his own Safety be dependent on France and Rome; We whose Names are hereunto subscribed, being fully convinced that an Union of Hearts and Forces will greatly conduce to his Majesty's Safety and the Protection of our Country, do voluntarily and firmly bind ourselves, every one of us the one to the other, jointly and severally, in the Bond of one loyal Society, and do hereby solemnly promise, that with our Bodies, Lives and Estates, we and every of us will stand by and assist each other in the Support and Defence of his Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and will, as well with Force of Arms, as by all other lawful Means, withstand the said popish Pretender and Traytors, and all Manner of Persons and their Abettors, who shall attempt, act, council or consent to any Thing that shall tend to the Harm of his Majesty King George, or any of his Royal Family. All which we will faithfully perform, according to the plain Sense and Meaning of the above-written Instrument, as we hope for Favour from Almighty God, and Esteem amongst good Men.

Kensington, October 3.

This Day the following Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, was presented to the King by the Reverend Mr. Joseph Stennett, attended by several of his Brethren; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your most dutiful and faithful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, with great Thankfulness to God, and affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty, on your safe and happy Return to your British Dominions, on the Prosperity of your Arms in North America, and on the Success of your zealous and prudent Endeavours to restore the Balance of Power in Europe to its ancient and natural Situation.

As the religious and civil Liberties, the Happiness and Honour of the Nation, have been always your Majesty's unwearied Care, we cannot but detest and abhor the present unnatural and rebellious Attempt to impose on these Kingdoms a Popish and Abjured Pretender. We trust in God, that so wicked and desperate an Enterprize will issue in the speedy and utter Overthrow of these infatuated Traytors, and the still firmer Establishment of your Majesty's Throne, and the Succession in your illustrious Family, on which, under Divine Providence, the Enjoyment of all that is dear to us depends.

Nothing, Sir, we are persuaded, within the Power of the Protestant Dissenters, will be wanting to defend and secure your Majesty's just and undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of these Realms; the Weight of which you have have always supported with so much Dignity to yourself, and Happiness to your People.

We shall never cease to offer our most fervent Prayers to the great Sovereign of Heaven and Earth, for the Preservation of your Majesty's invaluable Life, the Tranquillity and Glory of your Reign, and the Conveyance of our Liberties, under the Protection of your Royal House, to the End of Time.

To which his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this Loyal Address, and have a firm Dependence upon your steady Attachment to my Person and Government. You may be assured of the Continuance of my Protection.

They were received very graciously, and had all the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

The following Association of the Mayor, Lord Bishop, Aldermen and Magistrates, Dignitaries of the Cathedral, and other the Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Exon, having been transmitted by Francis Brayne, Esq; Mayor of Exeter, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Lord Bishop, Aldermen, and Magistrates, Dignitaries of the Cathedral, and other the Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Exon, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the following Association, as our bounden Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Royal Person and happy Government in Church and State.

At the Guildhall of the City of Exon, the first Day of October, 1745.

WE the Mayor, Lord Bishop, Aldermen, and Magistrates, Dignitaries of the Cathedral, and other the Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City and County of the said City, being truly sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under the auspicious Reign of his present Majesty, and having the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the present wicked and most unnatural Rebellion, begun in Scotland, and threatened to be back'd by an Invasion from abroad, by the ancient and inveterate Enemies of our civil and religious Rights, in Favour of a popish abjured

Pretender, educated in the Religion and Politicks of a French and Romish Court and Church, do hereby, in this critical and dangerous Juncture, when all that is dear to us, either as Englishmen, or Protestants, is at Stake, most solemnly, heartily, and sincerely associate, unite and bind ourselves jointly and to each other, and declare, that we will, at all Times, to the utmost of our several Powers, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, stand by, support, and defend, his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in his Majesty's Family, against the present, or any future Attempts which may be made against it by foreign or domestic Enemies; and that we will use our utmost Endeavours, without Fear, Favour, or Regard to any Persons whomsoever, to discover, and bring to their deserved Punishment, all, if such there should be amongst us (which God forbid) who shall either openly or secretly carry on, encourage or abett, any Practices or Designs destructive to our present most happy Establishment under his Majesty King George.

And we mutually promise and engage to each other, That we will readily, at all Times, meet together, and enter into such proper and vigorous Measures, personally, or at our Expence, for the carrying these our Resolutions into Execution, as shall evidence to all the World, that our Hearts accompany our Words in this Association; and that we are all equally affected with our present common Danger, and firmly determined to act on this important Occasion, as becomes his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Hague, October 10.

The following Account has been just received here from Berlin by the Prussian Minister.

On the 30th of last Month, the Austrian and Saxon Army in Bohemia having made a forced March all Night, in order to surprize the King, and to attack his Majesty in his Camp of Staudentz near Prouchez, the King put his Army in Order of Battle, and at Day-break, altho' inferior to the Allies by the great Detachments he had made, after a most obstinate Battle, he obtain'd a compleat Victory, and totally defeated the Enemy's whole Army, which left between 3 and 4000 Men dead and wounded upon the Field of Battle, and at least as many Prisoners; they lost besides all their Artillery, and a great Number of Standards, &c. The Allied Army retired in great Confusion to Arnau, and at the Departure of the Courier, the Prussians were in Pursuit of them. On our Side the Loss was very inconsiderable; but Prince Albert of Brunswick, the Queen's Brother, and the Sieur Wedel, Major of the King's Guards, were killed; Major General Blankensee, Major General Count Schmettau, Colonel Forcade, and Lieutenant Colonel Voilke, wounded. The Enemy's Irregular regular Troops found an Opportunity during the Battle; to pillage the King's Baggage, and to carry off his Majesty's private Secretary.

Hague, October. 10. All the last Letters from Italy bring an Account, that the Spaniards cross'd the Po near Pavia on the 20th past, and some even add, were enter'd into the Town of Milan. Count Stahrenberg is arriv'd here in his Way to England, whither he is going with the Emperor's Notification of his Election and Coronation. The British Troops which compos'd the Garrison at Ostend, and have been for some Time at Mons, are arriv'd at the Army, having been as we hear attack'd upon the Road by a French Detachment, which was repuls'd with the Loss of several Men kill'd on the Part of the Enemy, and four Officers taken Prisoners. The Battalion of English Guards was upon its March for Willemstadt, to be embark'd there for England.

Whitehall, October 5.

By Letters of the 30th past from Berwick, the Rebels had not then moved from Edinburgh. The Officers they had taken Prisoners in the late Action near Tranent, were, on the 29th in the Morning, sent to Perth; and they were to pass the Forth four Miles above Stirling, at the same Place where the Rebels had cross'd that River in their March Southward; the private Men, who were Prisoners, had been sent by the same Route the Day before, and the wounded remained in the Infirmary at Edinburgh.

We are likewise assured, by Letters of the 29th of September, at Noon, from the Castle of Edinburgh, that the Communication betwixt the Town and Castle had been till then still open; but the Letters of the 30th from Edinburgh, say, that in the Night before, the Rebels had taken Possession of all the Avenues leading to the Castle, in order to block it up.

But in regard to the Correspondence with the Army, all Persons are hereby to take Notice, That their Letters, directed for any Person or Persons in the same, will be received at this Office, and from hence forwarded to the Army, in the Manner hitherto observ'd, a proper Method of conveying the Army Letters directly from hence, having been settled by the Way of Holland, in Conformity to the Usages in regard thereto, during the Wars of King William and Queen Anne.
