THE following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Bristol, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, beg Leave, with all Humility, to address your Majesty upon the present Occasion of an Infurrection in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Majesty's Crown.

This Attempt upon our whole Constitution, both in Church and State, which we have so long securely enjoyed under your Majesty's gracious Government, cannot but raise the utmost Detestation in the Breast of every one, who has any just Value for either of them.

And as we are under all the Obligations of Interest, Gratitude, and Christian Loyalty, together with the most sacred voluntary Engagements, to an inviolable Fidelity to your Majesty's Person and Government; so we think it incumbent upon us, at this Time especially, to declare, with all Simplicity, that we bear in our Hearts the deepest Sense of these accumulated Obligations of Allegiance to our most gracious Sovereign, and will faithfully adhere to them in our whole Conduct; and particularly that we will use our utmost Endeavours to beget a like zealous Sense of this their Duty in the People under our Charge; as well as to oppose that avowed Irreligion and Vice, which, to the Dishonour of Almighty God, so much abound, and not only vilify, but have a Tendency even to subvert all Civil Authority.

May the Divine Providence guard your sacred Person, give Success to your Counsels and Arms, and defeat those of your Enemies: And, surrounded with every Blessing, may your Majesty long reign over these Nations, and be succeeded by Descendants of your illustrious House to the latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the Diocese of Rochester, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Rochester, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the Diocese of Rochester.

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the Diocese of Rochester, after expressing our Joy for your safe and welcome Return to your British Dominions, beg Leave to tender our sincere and strongest Assurances of doing every Thing in our Power to support your Right, and Title to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to make your Possession thereof easy and secure against all Opposers.

While we are thus employ'd, we are sensible how much we are doing our own Business, and taking taking Care of ourselves; are consulting the Safety of what we prize highest, and value most; are labouring and contending in Defence of our Rights and Liberties as Free Britons, and of our Holy Religion as Protestant Divines; are guarding against that Subverter of our Laws, and Corrupter of our Faith, and Enslaver of our Minds as well as Bodies, a Popish Government.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to declare to you and all the World, our Detestation and Abhorrence of the present unnatural Insurrection of your own Rebellious Subjects, in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Throne, and that we will not cease our earnest Prayers to God, our Labours, and all our Interest, to avert the great Calamity we are threaten'd with; and that this audacious Attempt may soon be quashed, and we and all your faithful Subjects be restored to the quiet Enjoyment of our Laws, our Liberties, and our Religion, and to a sure and reasonable Hope of transmitting them safe under your Majesty and your Royal Descendants, to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace of the County Palatine of Chester, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Cholmondeley, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace of the County Palatine of Chester.

May it please your Majesty;

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace of the County Palatine of Chester, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions; and to take this Opportunity of expressing, with the warmest Zeal, our unshaken Loyalty and Affection to your sacred Person and Government.

With the utmost Abhorrence we view the bold and desperate Attempts of some of your Majesty's Subjects, (deceived and led by the Encouragement of foreign Enemies) to raise an unnatural Rebellion in these Kingdoms, thereby exposing the Nation to the Mischief and Desolation of a civil War. And our Detestation of them is heightened by the Reflection, that these pernicious Schemes can only enter into the Hearts of Men entirely lost to all Sense of Loyalty and Duty to your Majesty, and to all Regard for the Laws, Liberties, and Religion of their Country; which, should this Rebellion succeed, must inevitably become a Prey to the Ambition of its most inveterate Enemies, and fall a Sacrifice to the Revenge and Cruelties of popish Tyranny and arbitrary Power.

On our Parts, your Majesty may rest assured, that as we are highly sensible how essentially the Interest, Liberty and Happiness of your People, are connected with the Support and Continuance of the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms on your sacred Head; so we shall on this, and all other Occasions, exert our utmost Endeavours to maintain your Royal Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in your Royal Family; and to transmit the Blessings we enjoy under the Protection of your august House to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Lieutenant, High Sheriff, and the Justices of the Peace of the County of Monmouth, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Lieutenant, High Sheriff, and the Justices of the Peace of the County of Monmouth, at a Meeting held at Usk in the said County, the 25th Day of September 1745.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Monmouth, take the Liberty to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Arrival in Great Britain, and upon the Success of your Majesty's Arms, which have added the important Place of Cape Breton to your Majesty's Dominions.

Upon receiving Information that a popish Pretender has dared to invade your Majesty's Kingdoms, we take this early Opportunity of expressing our Abhorrence and Detestation of such a rash and insolent Attempt; and at the same Time of offering our Lives and Fortunes for the Defence of your Majesty's Person, and the Protestant Hanover Succession.

We are ready, Sir, to venture our Lives and Liberties in your just and glorious Cause. Our Rebel Antagonists venture their Lives only, for by

by the Cause they maintain, they disclaim the Name of Liberty.

All that is dear to us is attack'd, and we will hazard all that is dear to us to defend the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Reign.

We have grateful Hearts. We are sensible and thankful that the Church of England, as by Law establish'd, is duely maintain'd; that the Laws of this Kingdom have their full Force; and that no Man has real Cause to complain under your Majesty's just and gentle Reign.

Your Majesty may therefore rest assured, that whatever the best Prince can expect from the Hands and Hearts of the most loyal and dutiful Subjects, we shall be ready and willing to make good, acknowledging to all the World, that we look upon the Protestant Hanover Succession, and the Religion and Liberty of our Country, to be inseparable.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable Thomas Winnington, Esq; Recorder of the said City, and one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Worcester, having long experienced your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Prosperity of your People, and being truly sensible of the many great and invaluable Blessings accruing to this Nation from your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, cannot but express our utter Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion now carrying on in Favour of the Pretender to your Majesty's Crown, and consequently in Subversion of our happy Establishment in Church and State.

As the Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws and Liberties (under the Divine Providence) intirely depends upon the Preservation and Safety of your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in your most illustrious House; we think ourselves bound in Point of Interest, as well as Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty for Benefits already receiv'd, to renew the Assurances of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty, and to declare, that Nothing in our Power shall be wanting to defend and support your Majesty's just and undoubted Title to the Crown of these Realms, against all your open and secret Enemies whatsoever.

We beg Leave to add our hearty Prayers and Wishes, that your Majesty's Arms may be blessed with Success; and that after your Majesty has enjoyed a long and happy Reign over us, the Protestant Succession to the Crown of these Realms may be continued in your Majesty's Royal Family. Given under our common Seal the 26th Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and forty-five.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of the Borough of Devizes in the County of Wilts, has been presented to his Majesty by Doctor George Lee, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of the Borough of Devizes in the County of Wilts.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council of this your ancient and loyal Borough, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Return to this Kingdom, and the Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Conquest of Cape Breton.

And at the same Time to assure your Majesty that we have the utmost Abhorrence of the Invasion of your Majesty's Dominions by a popish Pretender to the Crown of these Realms.

Were it possible for us to be unmindful of the long and uninterrupted Felicity we have enjoy'd under your Majesty's mild and gentle Government; or to be insensible that this Invasion is the natural and undoubted Consequence of that Resentment which has been rais'd by the glorious Part your Majesty has taken in the Defence of the Liberties of Europe, and the Protection of the Trade and most important Interests of your Majesty's Subjects; yet the just Sense of the Danger our Religion and Liberties must inevitably be expos'd to from an Attempt to establish a popish and arbitrary Government in this Realm, by the Strength and Power of France, and consequently to render it for ever hereafter hereafter a miserable Dependant upon the same, should not fail to excite in us the warmest and strongest Resolutions to support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, which we shall never think worth preserving longer than we can enjoy them with Liberty and Freedom.

And although some few Persons may have unhappily been seduc'd and impos'd upon by the Artifices and false Pretences made Use of to deceive them; yet we flatter ourselves, that the same British Ardour, the same Love of Liberty, and Detestation of the boundless Ambition and unwearied Endeavours of France to bring us to Destruction, which have so eminently distinguish'd our Ancestors, will animate the rest of your Majesty's Subjects upon this Occasion, in such a Manner, that these Disturbers of our Peace will soon meet with the Fate they justly deserve.

That your Majesty's Arms may ever be attended with Success, and the Crown of these Realms continued to latest Posterity in your Majesty's most illustrious House, as the greatest Security we can possibly have for our Religion, Liberties, and all that is dear and valuable to us, are the most ardent Wishes of

most faithful and obedient Subjects and Servants.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, the 27th Day of September 1745.

The following Address of the Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply, of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Stair, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply, of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, met at the Head Burgh of the Stewartry, take the Liberty humbly to approach your sacred Person, and with Joy to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe, and happy and seasonable Return to these your Dominions; and with Hearts fill'd with Loyalty and Affection to your Person and Government, and with the greatest Zeal for the Defence of our Holy Religion, the Rights and Liberties of our native Country, beg Leave, in this critical Conjunction, to offer renewed Assurances of our steadfast Adherence in our Loyalty to your Majesty, and to the Protestant Succession, and to the present happy Establishment, which we look upon, under God, as the only Security of all that is dear, and most nearly concerns us, and the Happiness of these Kingdoms; And at the same Time to express our Abhorrence of the wicked and pernicious Practices that have been set on Foot, and carried on to an open Insurrection and Rebellion, in order to disturb the Peace and Quiet of your Realm, and expose it to the devouring Sword, both of profligate and unnatural Subjects at Home, and inveterate Enemies Abroad, who cannot fail to be encouraged by such Insurrection to invade us, as becoming an easy Prey.

If your Majesty will be pleased to indulge us Arms and proper Authority, to assemble ourselves, with others your Majesty's good Subjects in the County, in a Military Way, and proper Officers to instruct us in Discipline, we shall exert ourselves to our utmost, not only to maintain the Peace among ourselves, but also in obeying and executing all your Majesty's Commands.

We cannot help declaring our Amazement, that any Briton should be found, when we live quiet and happy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and under a well-poised Government, who could wish to exchange it for Slavery and arbitrary Power, to be exercised by a Pretender to your Majesty's Crown, of a Religion, in which human Kind suffer Indignities and Cruelties, under the Notion of Religion and Government. We, for our Parts, declare to your Majesty, that upon this Occasion, and at all Times, we shall be ready, with becoming Warmth and Resolution, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and of any Danger that shall ensue, to defend and support your sacred Person and Government, and your undoubted Right to the Crown, against all who shall dare to make any traiterous Attempts upon it. And our ardent Prayers shall always accompany our Endeavours, that the Blessings we enjoy may descend to Posterity, under the Protection of your Royal Family. We are,

Your Majesty's most faithful, loyal,
and dutiful Subjects,

Kirkcudbright,
Sept. 24, 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Huntingdon, has been presented to his Majesty by Albert Nesbitt, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Huntingdon.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Huntingdon, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Zeal and Fidelity to your Royal Person and Family.

We are sensible, that the Services we may be able to perform, at a Time when your Majesty will be in need of the Support of your whole People, will be of very little Moment towards the Preservation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and we wish our Abilities were equal to our Zeal for your Majesty's Welfare, and the Peace and Quiet of these Realms.

All we can do is to assure your Majesty, that we will exert ourselves to the utmost in our several Capacities, to prevent and discourage Disaffection, and to promote Unanimity in our Country in your Majesty's Defence, as we are convinced, that in defending your Majesty, we are acting in Support of every Benefit and Privilege, belonging to a free People.

Given under our Hands, and the common Seal of the said Corporation, the 26th Day of September, 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiff, Aldermen, Freemen and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plympton, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Sundon, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiff, Aldermen Freemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plympton in Devon.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, most humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, and on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton.

It is with the highest Indignation that we hear of an unnatural Rebellion fomented at this time in your Majesty's Dominions, in Favour of a Popish Pretender, and we most humbly beg Leave to express the Abhorrence of the Conduct of all those who, insensible of their Happiness under your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign, are wicked enough to endeavour to involve their Country in all the Calamity and Misery of a Civil War.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty of our Fidelity and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty, upon this, and every other Occasion, and we are ready cheerfully to lay down our Lives, and devote our Fortunes to the effectual Support of your Majesty and your Posterity.

May the Almighty prosper all your Majesty's Undertakings for the Happiness of your People, and still continue to guard and defend your Majesty and your Royal Posterity against all disloyal and traitorous Attempts of your's and the Nation's Enemies.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Berks: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate you on your happy and safe Arrival in these your Kingdoms; and on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Reduction of the Islands and Forts of Cape Breton, a Place of the greatest Importance to the Trade and Navigation of Great Britain.

It affects us with the utmost Abhorrence, to hear of the rash and impious Attempts of your rebellious Subjects in Scotland, in Favour of a popish Pretender; but we hope, through the unanimous Zeal of your loyal People, their detested Designs will be frustrated; and your Majesty may depend on our united Endeavours to support and defend your Majesty and your Royal Family on the Throne of these Kingdoms with our Lives and Fortunes, for on you, Sir, we are, firmly persuaded, our Religion and Civil Rights depend.

in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Council-Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Council-Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of your Town and Port of Dover, humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and happy Return to these your British Dominions; after your unwearied Labours and Care for the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe.

And permit us, with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, to declare our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the daring Attempts of the professed Enemies of your Majesty and this Nation, in Favour of a popish and abjured Pretender.

We beg Leave also to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Fidelity to your Royal Person, and unalterable Steadiness and Zeal for the Support of the Protestant Religion; (which cannot be upheld but under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government) for the Preservation of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty, and your illustrious House, and of the Laws and Liberties of our Country.

The following Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House, in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Tankerville: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House, in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate you on your safe Arrival in your British Dominions; and also to express our Joy on the Success of your Majesty's Arms on Cape Breton.

And as we cannot, without the utmost Detestation, look upon the Designs of a popish Pretender (abetted and supported by the Power of France, our most inveterate Enemy) against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, we therefore beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, support and defend your Majesty against all your Enemies.

And that our most hearty and sincere Wishes and Prayers are, that your Majesty may long and happily Reign over us; and that these Kingdoms may always flourish, and enjoy their present happy Constitutions both in Church and State, under the Government of your Majesty and your Posterity.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be affixed, this 18th Day of September 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester in the County of Leicester, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in the County of Leicester, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person, with Hearts full of Joy, for your Majesty's safe Arrival in Great Britain, at a Time when your Presence was immediately necessary, to secure to us our Lives, Liberties, and Religion.

The free Enjoyment of those Blessings in every Part of your Majesty's Reign over us, has inspired us with a Loyalty founded upon Reason, as well as Duty; and therefore 'tis no Wonder that, with the utmost Abhorrence and Surprize, we heard that any of your Majesty's Subjects should, contrary both to their real Interest and Duty, make any Attempts to set an abjur'd Pretender upon your Throne, or endeavour to exchange Liberty for Slavery, Religion for Superstition.

We beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to your Person and Family, and that our Lives and Fortunes shall be spent in their Support, being resolved to endeavour to the utmost, to transmit to our Successors and Posterity, that Religion and Liberty which we have received from our Ancestors, and which we cannot hope to be continu'd, but in your Royal Person and Family! Wherefore we sincerely pray, that your Majesty, or some Descendants from your Royal Person, may sit on the Throne of these Kingdoms, to the latest Generations.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Coroners, Recorder, Chamberlains, Capital Burgesses, Freemen, Gentlemen, and others Inhabitants of the Borough of Scarborough, in the North Riding of the County of York, having been transmitted by H. Lascelles, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty George the Second, over Great Britain, &c.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Coroners, Recorder, Chamberlains, Capital Burgesses, Freemen, Gentlemen, and others Inhabitants of your Majesty's Borough of Scarborough in the North Riding of the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to repeat to your Majesty our Thanks for your early Care on all Occasions for the Welfare of these Nations in Church and State, more especially by your effectually opposing in Great Britain, at this Conjunction, a popish Pretender, his Male Adherents foreign and home, by your supporting your Loyal British Subjects in their Properties, Laws, Liberties, and Religion, in giving your wise Advice, and calling upon your Allies for their respective Contingents from Abroad, and joining them to your own British Troops, marching them under able Generals against your Enemies and disaffected Subjects, in several Parts of Great Britain, and doing every other Thing necessary and conducive for the obtaining and executing these good Ends.

Such your Advice and Conduct the last Year, very quickly stifled the like audacious and rebellious Designs formed against you, and your loyal Subjects of Great-Britain, our Properties, Laws, Liberties and Religion. And may the present Attempts of your Enemies be soon frustrated, is our sincere Wish, and under God we doubt not our Wish having the desired Effect, as your and our Cause is good and glorious.

We beg Leave, at the same Time, to declare our hearty Abhorrence to such your Enemies, their Pretensions and Undertakings.

And we do most sincerely assure you of our bearing faithful and true Allegiance to your lawful Sovereign, and using our utmost Efforts in Aid of your Royal Person and Family.

Given under the Common Seal of this Borough, this 30th Day of September, 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common mon Council of your ancient Borough of King's Lynn, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to join with the rest of your faithful Subjects, in the sincerest Congratulations on your happy and seasonable Return to these your Dominions; and on the Success with which it hath pleased the Divine Providence, to bless your Majesty's Arms in, the Reduction of Cape Breton; a Place, which by its Situation, is of inestimable Benefit to the Trade of this Nation, but more especially so, as the Advantages which will accrue to us from the Possession of it, are taken out of the Hands of our most dangerous Rivals and inveterate Enemies.

Permit us, Sir, at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty on the Success, your Zeal and unwearied Application have been crown'd with, in restoring the Imperial Dignity to that Family, from which alone we can hope to see the Ballance of Power and the Liberties of Europe, once more secured, in Defiance and Disappointment of the common Enemy, who has long aim'd at universal Monarchy, and who is now endeavouring, in Pursuance of that destructive Scheme, to wrest the British Sceptre from your sacred Hands, and place it with a Dependant of his own, a popish, abjur'd Pretender.

But as Subjects, and Englishmen, truly sensible of those inestimable Blessings, our Civil and Religious Rights, which we enjoy so fully under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we beg Leave to repeat the most faithful Assurances of our unfeigned and invariable Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, (under whom alone we can expect the Continuance of them to ourselves and our Posterity) and thus publicly to declare, that we will endeavour, by all the Means in our Power, to defeat this wicked Design, which aims at nothing less than the Destruction of the Honour, the Property, the Religion and Liberty of this Nation.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Borough aforesaid, this Thirtieth Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By the King,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS an unnatural Rebellion is begun, and now carrying on, in the North Part of this our Realm, in Favour of a Popish Pretender: And whereas, for the more effectual Suppression thereof, We have Occasion for a speedy Augmentation of our Forces; we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, for the Encouragement of such of our faithful Subjects, who shall, on this Occaſion, inliſt themſelves in our Service, to iſſue this our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby promiſe and declare, That all ſuch able-bodied Men, who ſhall inliſt themſelves, as Soldiers, in our Land Service, on or before the Twenty Fifth Day of December next, ſhall, upon their Requeſt to be diſcharged therefrom, be diſcharged accordingly, at the End of Six Months, from the reſpective Times of their Inliſting, in caſe the ſaid Rebellion ſhall be extinguished within that Time; and if not, then as ſoon as the ſaid Rebellion ſhall be extinguished.

Given at Our Court at Kenſington, the Fifth Day of October, 1745, in the Nineteenth Year of Our Reign.

Vienna, October 2, N. S. Twelve Thousand Spaniards having ſcaled the Town of Pavia, and killed or taken 1500 Slavonians, who were juſt arrived, fatigued by a forced March, the Magiſtrates of Milan ſent their Keys on the 23d paſt to the Enemy that had paſſed the Teſſin and the Po. We have juſt received Advice, that 5000 Pruffians have taken Poſſeſſion of Jagendorf, the Inſurgents having at the Approach of the Enemy abandoned that Place with a good Part of their Equipage, and being retired to Troppau.

Berlin, October 3, N. S. The Loſs on the Part of the Pruffians in the late Action near Prauſnitz amounts, as is reported here, to 2000 Men. And we hear, that during the Battle, the Auſtrian Irregular Troops fell upon the King of Pruffia's Baggage and Equipages, all which, together with thoſe of the Prince of Pruffia, and of moſt of the Officers, they carried off. They alſo took away all his Majesty's Domesticks, his Plate, the Military Caſh, the Chancery, and the Privy Secretary M. Eichlet.

Francfort, October 6. Monday laſt, the Emperor's Coronation, his Imperial Majesty went from his Palace at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, accompanied by the Ambaſſadors of the Secular Electors, and a numerous Retinue to the Cathedral. The Emperor rode under a rich Canopy, ſupported by twelve Perſons of Diſtinction, dreſſed in his Robes as King of the Romans. At the Entry of the Cathedral, his Imperial Majesty was received by the Electors of Mentz and Treves, who performed the Ceremony of the Coronation, aſſiſted by ſeveral Prelates; and after his Imperial Majesty had been inveſted with the Robe of Charles the Great, and that the Imperial Crown had been placed upon his Head, he returned on Foot to the Roſet, the Electoral Ambaſſadors preceding him, the Electors of Mentz and Treves walking at the Right and Left-hand under his Canopy, Count Pappenheim as Hereditary Marshal of the Empire carrying the Sword of State before him, and all the Princes, Counts, Barons and Gentleman of the Suite of the Ambassadors following according to their several Ranks. The Queen of Hungary, accompanied by the Dutchess Dowager of Brunswick, and all the Ladies of her Court, saw the Coronation in a Seat prepared for her Majesty in the Church, and afterwards the Procession at a Window in a private House near the Romer upon the Market Place. The Emperor dined in the Great Hall of the Romer, being seated under a Canopy of Gold Cloth on a Place erected for that Purpose at the upper End of the Hall; the Elector of Treves sat lower at a Table over-against the Emperor; the Elector of Mentz, at another, on his Imperial Majesty's Right Hand, and all along the Hall Tables were served under their proper Canopies, for the absent Electors, according to the usual Custom. After Dinner the Emperor shew'd himself to the People at a Balcony in his Robes, having the Imperial Crown of Charles the Great upon his Head, and his Majesty saw at the same Time the several Functions performed by the Hereditary Officers of the Empire; and though the Multitudes was very great, yet every thing passed in good Order; and after the Emperor was returned in his Coach to his Palace, the Evening concluded with Illuminations, &c. Yesterday the Emperor and Queen of Hungary dined in publick, and her Majesty has fixed her Departure on the 15th instant, and it is supposed the Emperor will set out at the same time for Vienna; but their Majesty's will take different Routs for the Convenience of Post Horses.

Francfort, Oct. 6, N. S. Yesterday we received the Account of the Action between the Allied Army and the Prussians upon the 30th past. The Design was to have surpris'd the Enemy, which would have succeeded, had not one of the Wings of our Army mistaken the Road in the Darkness of the Night, and a great Fog retarded the Attack; both which Accidents gave the Prussians full Time to form. In the Beginning, the Allies were so successful as to oblige the Enemy several times to retire, though in Justice to them it must be said, they soon rallied and returned to the Charge, and the Conclusion of the Affair had probably been as favourable, if a considerable Body of our Troops, which had penetrated into the Prussian Camp, had not been too intent in plundering it, instead of attacking the Enemy in the Rear, as they were ordered. The Battle lasted four Hours; but at last the Allies were obliged to retire, which they did in good Order, to their old Camp at Konigshoff. Prince Charles himself covered the Retreat with four Regiments. Our Loss amounts to 2000 killed and wounded; and that of the Enemy is more considerable.

Vilwoerden, October 11, N. S. Aeth surrendered the Day before Yesterday upon honourable Conditions, the Garrison being allowed to march out with all Military Honours, and to be conducted to Brussels upon the 13th.

Hague, October 12, N. S. We have Advice here from Paris of the 8th Instant, that upon the 6th a Courier arrived at Fontainebleau from Marshal Maillebois, with an Account, that the Allied Army of France and Spain had forced the Passage of the Tanaro, behind which the King of Sardinia's Army was posted; that the Sardinian Troops had retired under the Walls of Valentia, having abandoned Alexandria, which the Infant Don Philip forthwith caused to be invested with a Design to besiege it; the King of Sardinia is said to have lost in this Action between fifteen and eighteen hundred Men, two Standards, and eight Pieces of Cannon; and the Loss of the Part of the French and Spaniards to have been not very considerable. M. de Lautrec had been obliged to raise the Siege of Exiles, and was marching towards Fenestrella. We have just heard from Helvoetsluys, that the two Mails with the Letters of the 5th and 8th from this Place, which were sent over on board a Fishing Vessel hired for that Purpose, the Packet Boats being all on the other Side, were taken Yesterday, near the Coast of England, by a small French Privateer.

Whitehall, October 8.

By Letters of the 3d from Berwick we are informed, that the Rebels continued in their Camp at Duddingston on the 2d; that the Day before, about Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, they began to dig a Trench, cross the Street of Edinburgh, a little below the Reservoir on the Castle Hill; about Three in the Afternoon, the Garrison of the Castle fired on them with Small Arms, killed three of the Rebels and wounded the Officer who commanded the Party; upon which they discontinued to work at the Trench. About Four o'Clock, some great Guns were fired from the Castle, which did little or no Damage to the Town; immediately on the firing from the Castle the Pretender's Son left the Abbey and retired to the Camp at Duddingston.

Whitehall, October 8.

By Letters received this Day from Berwick, of the 5th Instant, the main Body of the Rebels were, on the 4th, still at Duddingston, and those left in Edinburgh, continued where they had taken Post in order to cut off all Communication with the Castle. There is likewise Advices from Glasgow, that the Town had received a second Letter from the Pretender's Son, demanding the Sum of 15,000 Lm Which Letter was accompanied with Threats of Military Execution, if the Demand was not complied with. The Town under this Necessity prevailed upon the Party of the Rebels, who had been sent to require the above Contribution, to lessen it to 5500 l. Which Sum they were obliged to pay immediately.
