

in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Council-Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common-Council-Men, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of your Town and Port of Dover, humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and happy Return to these your British Dominions; after your unwearied Labours and Care for the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe.

And permit us, with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, to declare our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the daring Attempts of the professed Enemies of your Majesty and this Nation, in Favour of a popish and abjured Pretender.

We beg Leave also to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Fidelity to your Royal Person, and unalterable Steadiness and Zeal for the Support of the Protestant Religion; (which cannot be upheld but under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government) for the Preservation of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty, and your illustrious House, and of the Laws and Liberties of our Country.

The following Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House, in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Tankerville: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House, in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate you on your safe Arrival in your British Dominions; and also to express our Joy on the Success of your Majesty's Arms on Cape Breton.

And as we cannot, without the utmost Detestation, look upon the Designs of a popish Pretender (abetted and supported by the Power of France, our most inveterate Enemy) against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, we therefore beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, support and defend your Majesty against all your Enemies.

And that our most hearty and sincere Wishes and Prayers are, that your Majesty may long and happily Reign over us; and that these Kingdoms may always flourish, and enjoy their present happy Constitutions both in Church and State, under the Government of your Majesty and your Posterity.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be affixed, this 18th Day of September 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester in the County of Leicester, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, in the County of Leicester, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person, with Hearts full of Joy, for your Majesty's safe Arrival in Great Britain, at a Time when your Presence was immediately necessary, to secure to us our Lives, Liberties, and Religion.

The free Enjoyment of those Blessings in every Part of your Majesty's Reign over us, has inspired us with a Loyalty founded upon Reason, as well as Duty; and therefore 'tis no Wonder that, with the utmost Abhorrence and Surprize, we heard that any of your Majesty's Subjects should, contrary both to their real Interest and Duty, make any Attempts to set an abjur'd Pretender upon your Throne, or endeavour to exchange Liberty for Slavery, Religion for Superstition.

We beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to your Person and Family, and that our Lives and Fortunes shall be spent in their Support, being resolved to endeavour to the utmost, to transmit to our Successors and Posterity, that Religion and Liberty which we have received from our Ancestors, and which we cannot hope to be continu'd, but in your Royal Person and Family! Wherefore we sincerely pray, that your Majesty, or some Descendants from your Royal Person, may sit on the Throne of these Kingdoms, to the latest Generations.

Given under our Common Seal, the 2d Day of October 1745.
